

REFERENDUM RETROSPECTIVE

Europeans Choose Europe

On June 23, the United Kingdom will decide in a referendum the fate of its relationship with the European Union. Although recent polls suggest the vote will result in a British exit, the contemporary history of referenda in the EU has often resulted in an ever closer union. With the latest vote in the hands of the British electorate, this infographic highlights EU member state plebiscites and results since 2000.
