

COULD YOUR DOG BE IN PAIN?

No one knows your dog better than you do. That means it's important to recognize the warning signs of pain and silent suffering.

ASK YOURSELF THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

1. Does your dog hesitate before jumping onto the bed or couch, or into the car? YES NO
2. Does your dog seem to lag behind during walks? YES NO
3. Does your dog seem stiff or shaky when rising or walking? YES NO
4. Does your dog limp after strenuous play or exercise? YES NO
5. Does your dog have difficulty squatting to eliminate? YES NO
6. Does your dog show signs of discomfort, such as whimpering or restlessness? YES NO

If you answered "yes" to ANY of these questions, your dog may be suffering from osteoarthritis. But you can help. Talk with your veterinarian today about your options.

DOSAGE AND ADMINISTRATION

Osteoarthritis Pain and Inflammation: 0.45 – 0.91 mg/lb/day (1 to 2 mg/kg/day) as a single daily dose, as needed.

INDICATION FOR OSTEOARTHRITIS PAIN AND INFLAMMATION

DERAMAXX® (deracoxib) Chewable Tablets are indicated for the control of pain and inflammation associated with osteoarthritis in dogs.

Dogs needing a dose of less than 12.5 mg can only be accurately dosed through use of the 12 mg tablet, which can be broken in half to provide 6 mg. Do not attempt to accurately dose smaller dogs through the use of breaking larger tablets. Inaccurate dosing may result in adverse drug events (see Adverse Reactions, Animal Safety, and Post-Approval Experience on prescribing information attached).

IMPORTANT SAFETY INFORMATION

As with all drugs in this class, side effects involving the digestive system, kidneys or liver may occur. These are normally mild, but may be serious. Pet owners should discontinue therapy and contact their veterinarian immediately if side effects occur. All dogs should undergo a thorough history and physical examination before using DERAMAXX. Regular monitoring is recommended. Use with other NSAIDS or corticosteroids should be avoided. For product label, including complete safety information, go to www.deramaxx.com.
