8 Reykjavik Art Museum Kjarvalsstaðir
It houses the works of one of Iceland's most influential and recognized artists, Jóhannes Kjarval. You can also enjoy works from other leading Icelandic and foreign artists.

9 Hallgrímskirkja
The church spire is 73 m high, thus making this building the tallest one in Reykjavik city. The view from the tower is sublime.

10 BSÍ Bus Terminal
Home of Reykjavik Excursions and the Flybus. From here you can join one of the many adventurous day tours heading outside the city, come inside and rent a vehicle for the day at Enterprise rent-a-car or simply take the Flybus to Keflavik International airport.

11 Perlan
A glass dome built on top of six hot water tanks. Inside you will find a restaurant, café and the amazing exhibition Wonders of Iceland. The 360° view from the observation deck is spectacular.

12 Kringlan Shopping Centre
Iceland's first real shopping mall opened its doors in 1987 and includes today over 180 shops and restaurants along with a cinema and a public library. Next to the mall is the Reykjavik City Theatre.

13 Hilton Reykjavik Nordica
A good start or end for guests staying in the larger hotels in this area; Grand Hotel, Reykjavik Lights, Hilton, and more. Many local companies, cafés and restaurants also reside in this area.

14 Laugardalur Valley
Laugardalur is a major centre for sports and recreation in the capital. In Laugardalur you will find Laugardalslaug, the city's largest swimming pool. You will also find a beautiful botanical garden and the Family Park and Zoo.

15 Skarfabakki Harbour (Summer stop only)
From here you can take a boat tour over to Viðey island, stroll along the coastline to downtown Reykjavik

16 Höfði House
Höfði is considered to be one of the most historically significant buildings in Reykjavik. It was the location for the 1986 summit meeting of president Ronald Reagan and the general secretary Mikhail Gorbachev, in order to end the Cold War.
