Iceland On Your Own

Ideal for the independent traveller!
- Make your own travel plans for a unique travel experience.
- To guarantee a seat on the bus, please book in advance.
- Make your own travel plans for a truly unique Icelandic experience.
- To guarantee a seat on the bus, please book in advance.
- Visit the website www.ioyo.is for further information & FAQ.

Safe Travel
If you are travelling on your own, we recommend you to use the 48-hour travel pass to cover the cost of the bus and some of the entrance fees. It is available at all the bus terminals.

 Liability
Reykjavik Excursions reserve the right to alter route, destinations or timetables without prior notice due to circumstances.

Road & weather conditions determine when highland roads are accessible.

Liability
Reykjavik Excursions reserve the right to alter route, destinations or timetables without prior notice due to circumstances. Liability is accepted for losses or expenses due to death or injury, damage to personal belongings, delays or inconvenience, which are caused by Acts of God, damage to vehicle, war, civil commotion, strikes, or force majeure.

Bicycles
Discount for children 1 - 11 years (3,250 ISK) and for bicycles per route (1,400 ISK). Bicycles are available at the bus terminals.

Pórsmörk Adventure
Pórsmörk is one of Iceland’s most beautiful mountain valleys and offers breathtaking views. It is a paradise for energetic nature lovers, a magnet for everyone from hard-core hikers to energetic nature lovers.

Things to do
1. On the summit of Valahnúkur (458m) you can admire one of the most stunning views in Iceland. It is a great viewpoint for photographers and a "must see" during your stay in Iceland.
2. Pórsmörk Trail: a wonderful 3-hour hike starting at the parking area and leads you to a beautiful waterfall. This is one of the most popular hiking trails.
3. Fimmvörðuháls Trail: a beautiful hiking trail that leads you to the stunning "Landmannalaugar" which is popular among hikers as it is the base for many hiking trails.
4. The summit of Ólafsfjöll is one of Iceland’s highest peaks rising above - a "must see" during your stay in Iceland.

Further information & FAQ can be found on our website www.ioyo.is.

Reykjavik Excursions reserve the right to alter route, destinations or timetables without prior notice due to circumstances.
Landmannalaugar Adventure

The journey to Landmannalaugar takes you through the black and green transitions of the Icelandic highlands and onto the mountain highlands of the world-renowned geothermal area of Landmannalaugar. The Landmannalaugar valley is a magnificent hiking trail,undiscovered natural landscape on earth and a great one day hike. From the top of the beloved 2400m high Hekla volcano, you will have an unobstructed view of the Mountain highlands and the surrounding landscape of the area. Each day a total of six buses leave between 07:15 and 13:45. The last bus departs at 15:30. Each day a total of 6 buses leave, between 07:15 and 13:45. The last bus departs at 15:30. To ensure that you enjoy the hike the best, the Flybus will pick up tourists outside the hotels in Reykjavík and bring them to the valley’s parking lot in the morning.

Hiking Pass

The Iceland On Your Own Hiking Pass is the ideal way to experience two of Iceland’s most popular hiking routes on your own. You simply purchase a Hiking Pass in our online shop and during your stay in Iceland you can change the hiking routes on your own.

Hiking Options

Hiking Skógafoss

This popular trail starts in town and runs for 7.25 km, leads back to Reykjavík and takes about 2.5 hours to complete. Depending on the hiker’s pace.

Hiking Fimmvörðuháls

This trail is one of the most popular hiking trails in Iceland. The trail starts with a bus transfer from Reykjavík, then it is a 14 km hike from Skógar to Þórsmörk nature reserve.

Hiking Laugavegur & Fimmvörðuháls

Visitors can combine the Skógafoss & Fimmvörðuháls hiking options in a combo you will get the best out of both.

Hiking Options

Hiking Skógafoss

This popular trail starts in town and runs for 7.25 km, leads back to Reykjavík and takes about 2.5 hours to complete. Depending on the hiker’s pace.

Hiking Fimmvörðuháls

This trail is one of the most popular hiking trails in Iceland. The trail starts with a bus transfer from Reykjavík, then it is a 14 km hike from Skógar to Þórsmörk nature reserve.

Hiking Skógafoss

This popular trail starts in town and runs for 7.25 km, leads back to Reykjavík and takes about 2.5 hours to complete. Depending on the hiker’s pace.

Hiking Fimmvörðuháls

This trail is one of the most popular hiking trails in Iceland. The trail starts with a bus transfer from Reykjavík, then it is a 14 km hike from Skógar to Þórsmörk nature reserve.

Hiking Skógafoss

This popular trail starts in town and runs for 7.25 km, leads back to Reykjavík and takes about 2.5 hours to complete. Depending on the hiker’s pace.

Hiking Fimmvörðuháls

This trail is one of the most popular hiking trails in Iceland. The trail starts with a bus transfer from Reykjavík, then it is a 14 km hike from Skógar to Þórsmörk nature reserve.

Hiking Skógafoss

This popular trail starts in town and runs for 7.25 km, leads back to Reykjavík and takes about 2.5 hours to complete. Depending on the hiker’s pace.

Hiking Fimmvörðuháls

This trail is one of the most popular hiking trails in Iceland. The trail starts with a bus transfer from Reykjavík, then it is a 14 km hike from Skógar to Þórsmörk nature reserve.