The true pioneers of Icelandic street food.

Hlemmur Food Hall & Grandi Food Hall

1 Harpa
The concert hall and conference centre is the latest landmark in Reykjavík and houses both the Iceland Symphony Orchestra and the Icelandic Opera.

2 The Old Harbour
A colourful busy area with restaurants, shops and cafés. From here you can choose between different sailing tours.

3 Reykjavík Maritime Museum
Explore the world of the Icelandic fisheries and coastal culture. The former coast guard vessel Óðinn is also docked there.

4 Whales of Iceland
The biggest whale exhibition in the world! Life-sized models, an interactive installation and virtual reality experience. Fun for all ages.

5 National Museum of Iceland
The permanent exhibition Making of a Nation - Heritage and History in Iceland is a journey through time, from the settlement to the present day.

6 Lækjargata Hard Rock Café
Lækjargata - literally "stream street" - takes its name from the stream that once ran along the street. The famous Hard Rock Café is located in this street.

7 Laugavegur Shopping Street
Strolling down Laugavegur you will find all kinds of shops, restaurants, cafés and bars - something for everyone.

8 Kjarvalsstaðir Art Museum
It houses the works of one of Iceland's most influential and recognized artists, Jóhannes Kjarval. You can also enjoy works from other leading Icelandic and foreign artists.

9 Hallgrímskirkja
The church spire is 73 m high, thus making this building the tallest one in Reykjavík city. The view from the tower is sublime.

10 BSÍ Bus Terminal
Home of Reykjavík Excursions and the Flybus. From here you can join one of the many adventurous day tours heading outside the city or simply take the Flybus to Keflavik International airport.

11 Perlan
A glass dome built on top of six hot water tanks. Inside you will find a restaurant, café and the amazing exhibition Wonders of Iceland. The 360° view from the observation deck is spectacular.

12 Kringlan Shopping Mall
Iceland's first real shopping mall opened its doors in 1987 and includes today over 180 shops and restaurants along with a cinema and a public library. Next to the mall is the Reykjavík City Theatre.

13 Hilton Nordica Reykjavík
The hotel is formerly known as Hotel Esja, name derived from the dramatically dominating Mt. Esja which provides a stunning backdrop to the capital area.

14 Laugardalur Valley
Reykjavík's housewives and housemaids washed laundry in geothermal hot springs here in Laugardalur until in the early 20th century. Today you will find a swimming pool, botanical garden and the Family Park and Zoo.

15 Skarfabakki Harbour (Summer stop only)
From here you can take a boat tour over to Viðey island, stroll along the coastline to downtown Reykjavík or come inside and rent a vehicle for the day at Enterprise rent-a-car.

16 Höfði House
Höfði is considered to be one of the most historically significant buildings in Reykjavík. It was the location for the 1986 summit meeting of president Ronald Reagan and the general secretary Mikhail Gorbachev, in order to end the Cold War.

Valid from 10 July 2019 until next edition.
