

Military Leave Policy

Policy Highlights

Kimberly-Clark (K-C) recognizes and values our employees enlisted in or a commissioned officer of the Uniformed Services. In addition to providing unpaid, job-protected leave as required by the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA), K-C provides financial support through paid leave benefits. This policy covers how K-C complies and coordinates pay and benefits and action you need to take when going on and returning from military leave.

Policy Eligibility

All employees, including intermittent/temporary employees, interns, and co-ops, currently/newly enlisted in or a commissioned officer of the Uniformed Services are eligible for unpaid, job-protected leave as outlined under USERRA. Learn more about USERRA at dol.gov.

You're eligible for the paid leave benefits described in this policy if:

- you're an active full-time or part-time (regularly scheduled for 20 hours or more per week) salaried or full-time hourly paid employee not covered by a collective bargaining agreement,
- you're not classified as an intermittent/temporary employee, intern, or co-op, and
- you're enlisted in, newly enlist in or a commissioned officer of the Uniformed Services as defined under USERRA.

Amount of Military Leave

In general, USERRA offers up to a total (cumulative) of five years of unpaid, job-protected leave for qualifying military service.

Compensation While on Military Leave

The chart below outlines the paid leave benefits provided by K-C for the various types of military leave you may need or be required to take.

New Enlistment Attend required training for new Guardsman or Reservist enlistment	100% K-C base pay for duration of training period
Inactive-Duty Training Required, annual training spanning 24 calendar days over a 12-month period (sometimes referred to as "weekend training")	100% K-C base pay up to 24 absences per 12-month period if training occurs on date of a regularly scheduled work shift
Annual Active-Duty Training Required, continuous training held annually, typically ranging from 14 to 29 calendar days	100% K-C base pay up to 29 calendar days per 12-month period

Leave Type/Description	Paid Leave Benefit
Fitness-for-Duty Exam Required annual exam to verify fitness for military duty; typically conducted during Annual Active-Duty Training but may be scheduled separately	100% K-C base pay up to one absence per 12-month period if exam isn't conducted during Annual Active-Duty Training and occurs on date of a regularly scheduled work shift

Training and Conferences to Maintain/Advance Military Rank Required or voluntary attendance of training and/or conferences needed to maintain or advance military rank	Unpaid leave: you can request to use other K-C paid time off benefits (personal floating holidays, vacation) to cover regularly scheduled work shifts that occur during leave period
Active-Duty Deployment Required or voluntary deployment to support regional, national, or international military duty	100% K-C base pay, reduced by amount of military base pay for duration of deployment Note: To receive this paid leave benefit, you'll be required to submit a copy of your detailed military pay voucher so that differential paid leave benefit can be calculated
Post-Deployment Leave Voluntary, continuous leave available upon return from a required or voluntary Active-Duty Deployment and before returning to work	100% K-C base pay up to two calendar weeks immediately following return from Active-Duty Deployment

If you're a salaried employee and eligible for a 100% K-C base pay benefit, you'll continue to receive your normal base salary.

If you're a full-time hourly paid employee, the way your paid leave benefit is calculated depends on the reason for your leave:

- For Inactive-Duty Training, Fitness-for-Duty Exam and Military Funeral Support, Matrix will enter a paid absence in the K-C time and attendance system if your leave occurs on the date of a regularly scheduled work shift. These absences are paid at your regular base (straight) pay rate and don't count toward the calculation of overtime.
- For New Enlistment, Annual Active-Duty Training, Active-Duty Deployment and Post-Deployment Leave, your daily leave benefit is calculated using a five-day work week regardless of your work schedule.

Your annual base pay* divided by 52 weeks, then divided by 5 days.	Annual base salary = $70,200 $$70,200 / 52 = $1,350$ $$1,350 / 5 = \270 Daily Leave Benefit = $270 Your daily leave benefit will be applied to every weekday Monday through Friday that falls within your approved leave period and payroll schedule.
----------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Example: Joe is required to attend Annual Active-Duty Training beginning Wednesday, April 5 and ending Tuesday, April 18. Below is an example of how Joe’s daily leave benefit is applied during his approved leave period.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
			Off Leave Start Paid Leave $270	Off Paid Leave $270	Scheduled Paid Leave $270	Scheduled
Scheduled	Scheduled Paid Leave $270	Off Paid Leave $270	Off Paid Leave $270	Off Paid Leave $270	Scheduled Paid Leave $270	Scheduled
Scheduled	Off Paid Leave $270	Scheduled Leave End Paid Leave $270

*Your annual base pay amount in Workday can be found under Compensation and is listed as Total Base Pay. It's your base (straight) hourly pay rate multiplied by the average number of hours you're scheduled to work per week. For most rotating-shift employees, the average is 42 hours per week.

For claims effective before January 1, 2023, the daily leave benefit used a seven-calendar day calculation.

For both salaried and hourly paid employees:

All approved paid leave benefits are paid through K-C payroll on your normal pay frequency.

Any change in pay that may take effect during your leave period will not change the amount of your paid leave benefit. In other words,

Benefits

Health & Welfare

Your K-C benefits coverage will continue during military leave at the same cost you pay while you're actively working. The cost of coverage will be deducted through payroll unless you're on Active-Duty Deployment in which case you'll be billed for the cost of coverage. If you begin leave for New Enlistment, Annual Active-Duty Training or Active-Duty Deployment, you also have the option to drop K-C benefit coverage within 30 days following the start of your leave if you plan to use coverage provided by the military during your leave. You'll be eligible to re-elect K-C benefit coverage within 30 days after your return-to-work date.

401(k) & Profit Sharing Plan

Any pay you receive from K-C under this policy is considered 401(k) eligible earnings meaning that contributions will be deducted from your check if you're participating in the 401(k), and the paid benefit will count toward the calculation of any discretionary profit sharing contribution. You may also be eligible to make up missed 401(k) contributions and earn Company matching contributions for your military leave period. Contact Fidelity upon your return to work with questions about make-up contributions.

Important Things to Note

Job Protection

K-C complies with all state and federal laws related to qualifying military service. In addition, K-C's Code of Conduct prohibits subjecting you to discipline or retaliation for the good faith usage of your benefits, including paid or unpaid military leave benefits. However, you may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, if you're found to have taken absences under this policy fraudulently.

Military Leave and Family Medical Leave of Absence (FMLA)

FMLA doesn't run concurrently with USERRA but does offer some military-related time off including up to 12 weeks for qualifying exigency and up to 26 weeks for military caregiver leave. Review the FMLA policy for more information.

Military Leave and Holidays

Each year, K-C sets Company-paid holidays. Like other leaves of absence, holiday pay will not be provided during military leave.

Military Leave Interaction with State or Federal Laws

If there exists applicable state or federal laws granting military leave, you'll be provided with the greater benefit offered by either K-C or as required by law. Any military leave taken in this circumstance would satisfy state or federal leave entitlement.

This is a corporate policy and preempts any site-specific policies. K-C expects this policy to continue indefinitely. However, K-C reserves the right to make changes to and even discontinue this policy. If K-C were to terminate this policy or designate a partial termination with respect to a specific group of employees, each employee will have no further rights or obligations for future use of this policy.
