

Adoption/Surrogacy Assistance Reimbursement Request

You're eligible to receive Adoption and/or Surrogacy Assistance if you're classified as a regular employee working a minimum of 20 hours per week and are not classified as temporary, intermittent, intern, or co-op and you have eligible expenses related to adopting a child or a child being born via surrogate. Reimbursement will not exceed $15,000 per child.

Within 180 days from the adoption/surrogacy finalization date, the completed form with all required documentation must be uploaded to NetBenefits or faxed to 855-810-8223. All documentation must be submitted at once with this form. Required documents are:

- proof the adoption/surrogacy (either successful or unsuccessful) is final by providing a notarized affidavit or legal binding agreement,
- a birth certificate showing the child's name and date of birth if adoption/surrogacy is successful, and
- itemized receipts of expenses incurred by you.

Upon receipt of receiving your reimbursement request, Fidelity generally will review and provide a response within 3-5 business days. Forms that are incomplete or missing required documentation will be placed in a pending status until additional documentation is provided. If documentation is not provided within 30 days, your claim will be denied. Approved claims will be paid, less applicable tax withholdings, through the K-C payroll system as soon as administratively possible. Please allow a minimum of 14 business days from the claim approval date for payroll processing.

I certify that the information provided on this form is correct and complete. I certify that the expenses for reimbursement requested for adoption and/or surrogacy have been incurred, by me, in the process of obtaining a legal adoption/surrogacy of the above-referenced child. Further, I certify that the adoption/surrogacy of the above-referenced child has been finalized. In the event I received reimbursement for an ineligible expense, I hereby agree to reimburse K-C for these amounts, and consent to have the repayment taken from other wage payments I receive from K-C. All submissions for reimbursement are subject to audit and K-C's Code of Conduct. Any fraudulent claim to seek reimbursement under the Adoption & Surrogacy Policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.
