NICASIO FERNANDEZ

Nicasio Fernandez (b. 1993, Yonkers, NY) lives and works in Mahopac, New York. Fernandez received a BFA from the School of Visual Arts in 2015. His work has since been the subject of solo exhibitions at several galleries, including Ross + Kramer Gallery, East Hampton, NY; Over the Influence, Los Angeles, CA; Harper's Apartment, New York, NY; and Kustera Projects, Brooklyn, NY; and in 2021, Fernandez curated an exhibition at Harper's, East Hampton entitled "Potent".

Throughout his vibrant figurative paintings, Nicasio Fernandez displays an emotional embodiment of the human experience. Fusing a variety of art historical references from European Classical paintings, Expressionism, Surrealism with metaphors, hypothetical situations, manual labor and personal narratives, the imagery teeters between the dichotomies of the familiar and strange. The solitary, exaggerated and contorted figures rendered in saturated hues assist Fernandez's exploration of the psychological and physical endurance submerged within contemporary life.

His work has been featured internationally, with group exhibitions in New York, California, Hong Kong, London, and South Korea. Fernandez's work can be found in the Hall Art Foundation Collection, as well as the Beth Rudin DeWoody Collection.
