The Unique Ingredients of Alpilean

One of the key factors that sets Alpilean apart is its proprietary blend of six powerful alpine nutrients and herbal extracts. These ingredients have been carefully selected based on scientific research and their traditional use in Alpine traditions. Let's take a closer look at these ingredients:

1. Golden Algae: Derived from freshwater algae, golden algae contains fucoxanthin, which promotes the conversion of fat cells into energy and heat. This ingredient helps to decrease weight by raising body temperature and supporting brain health, bone strength, and liver function.

2. Dika Nut: Dika nuts, sourced from African mangoes, have long been used in traditional medicine for weight loss. They help maintain a normal body temperature, reduce bloating, improve digestion, and support healthy cholesterol levels.
3. Drumstick Tree Leaf: Also known as moringa leaf, drumstick tree leaf is an Indian herb with powerful antioxidant properties. It helps support blood sugar levels and increase body temperature, contributing to weight loss.
4. Bigarade Orange: Bigarade orange provides citrus bioflavonoids, which help balance and maintain body temperature. It also reduces oxidative stress and supports a healthy immune system.
5. Ginger Rhizome: Ginger root is well-known for its various health benefits, including its ability to restore body temperature, improve muscle health, and support tooth and gum health. It aids in weight loss by promoting fat burning.
6. Turmeric Rhizome: Turmeric contains curcumin, a compound known for its anti-inflammatory and antioxidant effects. It helps target body temperature and supports a healthy heart and skin. Turmeric plays a significant role in weight reduction.
