

Free school workshops

KS3 / 1st - 3rd Year

About our maths and English workshops

Our unique maths and English workshops are designed by teachers for teachers.

The workshops help your class develop skills such as problem solving, reasoning, language and literacy. They will be able to apply their knowledge of the curriculum in engaging ways and gives you the chance to sit back and observe your class in action.

Find out more

Maths Workshops

Number

Break The Budget

Your class work as travel agents to plan the trip of a lifetime for a family. Children must work within budget and specific demands, seeking solutions to keep the family happy.

- Problem solving
- Mathematical reasoning
- Budgeting

Geometry

Garden Designers

The Queen would like her gardens at Buckingham Palace to be redesigned. Can your class work together to meet Her Majesty's demands using area and perimeter from scale drawings?

- Area and perimeter
- Problem solving
- Recording

Maths Workshops

Statistics

Phone Shop

Using customer records, interpreting usage data and comparing contract offers, your class must recommend the right phone contract for the right customer.

- Data comparison
- Reasoning
- Problem solving

| English Workshops

Spoken

Crime Scene Investigation

Your class are the first police officers at the scene of a crime. They need to ask relevant questions to the key witness to extend their understanding and knowledge of what went on.

- Speaking and listening
- Formal language

Formal

Get That Job!

Your class will compose a cover letter, writing effectively for the purpose of the audience. They will select and organise key facts and apply their knowledge of vocabulary and grammar.

- Letter writing
- Accuracy and fluency
- Structure

| English Workshops

Figurative

Festival Goers

Your class start working for 'Explore Events' and are tasked with putting on a festival. Children's must consider how their writing will guide the audience through the festival's website.

- Identify audience
- Effective vocabulary
- Structure

Book a free workshop