Here are some voicings that can be played either two hands (two notes per hand), or you can play the treble clef alone as LH rootless voicings (try this over along came betty or afternoon in paris).

D min7 G7 Cmaj7 D min7 G7 Cmaj7

You can also lower the ninth or 13th of the dominant (Ab or Eb).

D min7 G7b9 Cmaj7 D min7 G7b13 Cmaj7

This musical notation shows two-hand voicings for D min7, G7b9, and Cmaj7 in C major. The bass line is identical to the previous example. The treble line shows two-note chords: D min7 (F, A), G7b9 (F#, Ab), and Cmaj7 (E, G) for the first set, and D min7 (F, A), G7b13 (F#, Eb), and Cmaj7 (E, G) for the second set.

Here are the most common 4-note rootless voicings (with roots shown below)

D min7 G7 Cmaj7 D min7 G7 Cmaj7

Here is the major scale w/passing tone harmonized:

scale harmonized with alternating major 6th and diminished chords

Here is the major scale w/passing tone harmonized in drop 2:

For the above harmonized scales, you can also play them as minor (by simply changing all Es to Eb)

Modal voicings: the voicings below are useful when comping for modal situations (think McCoy Tyner etc).
