

John the Baptist

- I. (JOH 1:6) There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.
 - A. His name was by divine order, the first so named in that family line. LUK 1:13, 59-63.
 - B. His name in Greek was Ioannes (SRN G2491), which, according to Thayer, means, "Jehovah is a gracious giver."
 1. That Greek word, according to Brown-Driver-Biggs Hebrew Dictionary, is from the Hebrew Yochanan (SRN H3110), which means, "Jehovah has graced."
 2. God graced His people (and mankind) with a very special child at a special time to have a special ministry, a special ordinance, a special contact with Messiah.
 3. John had much grace but proclaimed Christ as the Fount of grace. JOH 1:15-17.
 - C. He was a man, not an angel or spirit. He therefore was subject to human passions and weaknesses as other men, even his type. JAM 5:17.
 - D. He was sent from God. c/w MAL 3:1; 4:5-6; JOH 1:33; 3:28.
 1. Christ authenticated his sending. MAT 11:10.
 2. Christ cornered the chief priests and elders on this point. MAT 21:23-27.
 3. True ministers are sent from or by God. GAL 4:4; JOH 17:18; 20:21; ACT 13:2-4.
 4. Not every professed minister is thus sent. 2CO 11:12-15.
 - E. His name became universally associated with a title: John the Baptist. Christ affirmed this form of recognition. MAT 11:11-12.
 1. He was also "...called the prophet of the Highest" (LUK 1:76).
 2. He was the greatest prophet up to that point in time, but the least prophet of the post-resurrection era was greater than him since such had the full gospel knowledge by the Holy Ghost. 2PE 1:19-21.
 3. John the Baptist at the end of his ministry was unsure of Christ but John the Apostle was very sure of Him. MAT 11:2-3 c/w 1JO 1:1-3; 2:22; 4:1-3.
 - F. He was called John the Baptist because he dipped/immersed in water those who came to him for baptism where there was much water. JOH 3:23.
 1. Martin Luther testified to immersion and even rendered MAT 3:1, "John the Dipper."
 2. "...let Luther, the father of Lutheranism, speak: 'Baptism is a Greek word, and may be translated immersion, as when we immerse something in water that it may be wholly covered, and although it is almost wholly abolished (for they do not dip the whole, i.e., children, but pour a little water on them), they ought to be wholly immersed...for that the etymology of the term seems to demand.'" (J. R. Graves, The Act of Christian Baptism, p. 28)
 3. "St. Paul alludes to the manner in which Baptism was ordinarily conferred in the primitive Church, by immersion. The descent into the water is suggestive of the body into the grave, and the ascent is suggestive of the resurrection to a new life." (footnote on ROM 6:3 of the Douay Confraternity Version of the Holy Bible [Roman Catholic])
 4. John Calvin admitted, "...Although the mere term Baptize means to immerse entirely, and it is certain that the custom of entirely immersing was anciently observed in the Church." (Institutes of the Christian Religion, Book IV, p. 524)
 5. "Commenting on the immersion of the eunuch he (Calvin) says: 'From this verse we clearly see what was the rite of baptism among the ancients; for they were accustomed to immerse the whole body in water. At the present time (sixteenth century) the practice has gained ground for the minister only to sprinkle water on

- the body or head.’ - Cal. Inst.” (J. R. Graves, The Act of Christian Baptism, p. 29)
6. “In his (John Wesley’s) Notes on Romans vi:4, says: ‘Buried with him, etc., alluding to the ancient manner of baptizing by immersion.’”
 7. “It is true that there is no express command to baptize infants in the New Testament, no express record of the baptism of infants, and no passages so stringently implying it that we must infer from them that infants were baptized.” (B.B. Warfield [Presbyterian], Studies in Theology, p. 399, cited in A String of Pearls Unstrung: A Theological Journey into Believers’ Baptism by Fred Malone)
 8. “Respecting the form of baptism, the impartial historian is compelled by exegesis and history substantially to yield the point to the Baptists.” (Philip Schaff [Reformed], History of the Apostolic Church, p. 570)

II. John preached before the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. ACT 13:23-25.

- A. That “coming” of Christ was His coming into His public ministry, not His incarnation. MAT 3:1, 11.
- B. John’s birth preceded Christ’s by about six months. LUK 1:36.
- C. John knew, though, that Christ preceded him in eternity as the Word. JOH 1:14-15, 29-30.

III. John’s existence and influence was impressive enough to move wicked Herod to think that Christ was the resurrected John the Baptist. MAT 14:1-2.

- A. John had reproved Herod for his immorality so Herod imprisoned him and had him beheaded. MAT 14:3-11.
- B. “Now some of the Jews thought that the destruction of Herod’s army came from God, and that very justly, as a punishment of what he did against John, that was called the Baptist; for Herod slew him, who was a good man, and commanded the Jews to exercise virtue, both as to righteousness towards one another, and piety towards God, and so to come to baptism; for that the washing [with water] would be acceptable to him, if they made use of it, not in order to the putting away, [or the remission] of some sins [only,] but for the purification of the body: supposing still that the soul was thoroughly purified beforehand by righteousness.” (Josephus, Antiquities Of The Jews, Bk. 18, Ch. 5)

IV. John was prophesied of conspicuously in ISA 40:1-3; MAL 3:1; 4:5-6.

- A. He was indeed (in fact, in truth) the Elijah prophesied of in MAL 4:5-6. MAR 9:11-13.
- B. He ministered in the spirit and power of Elijah. LUK 1:17.
- C. Unlike Elijah or Christ, John did no miracles. JOH 10:41.
- D. Yet multitudes came to him for baptism (MAR 1:5), a pattern and ordinance that does not need miraculous signs.

V. Consider the parentage, generation and nativity of John. LUK 1:5-80.

- A. The time was the reign of Herod the Great, the monster who ordered the slaughter of all children of two years and under. v. 5 c/w MAT 2:16.
 1. John would be born during a time when rising to prominence was dangerous.
 2. John would, though, be raised in privacy in the deserts. LUK 1:80.
- B. John’s parents are of note. v. 5.
 1. Zacharias (from Heb. Zecaryah, “Jehovah remembers”) was a noted name in Israel, being that of a martyred priest (2CH 24:20) and a later prophet who spoke of the coming Messiah as the suffering LORD and fountain for cleansing. ZEC 12:10; 13:1.
 2. Zacharias was a priest in the course of Abia/Abijah. v. 5 c/w 1CH 24:10.

- a. Abijah's course was the eighth.
 - b. Noah was the eighth person (2PE 2:5), a righteous man in an ark of eight people where eight souls were saved by water (1PE 3:20). The significance of Noah relative to John and his rite of baptism will be explored later.
 - c. The number "eight" is associated with new beginnings.
 - d. Zacharias ministered in the O.T. temple. John's ministry would be without the temple. LUK 3:2-3.
3. Elisabeth was of the daughters of Aaron. Both of John's parents were Levites of the priestly Aaronic line.
 - a. Elisabeth is the N.T. form of Elisheba (SRN H472), which means "my God has sworn" or "God is an oath." God would in this chapter be true to His word to make her a mother in old age.
 - b. Elisheba was the name of the wife of the first Levitical high priest, Aaron. EXO 6:23.
 4. John's parents were emphatically Levitical and of priestly lineage. John would one day, though, lay his hands on and baptize the One Who would "...purify the sons of Levi..." (MAL 3:1-4), the knowledge of Him being the Perfect Sacrificer and Sacrifice making their offering acceptable through Jesus Christ in a New Testament. Thus we read that later a "...great company of the priests were obedient to the faith" (ACT 6:7).
 5. They were both righteous and blameless in all matters moral and religious. v. 6.
 - a. That they were righteous implies imputed righteousness and practical righteousness according to faith. c/w ROM 4:19-25.
 - b. That they were blameless means that they were not guilty of judicial censure.
 - c. These are qualities we should aspire to. PHIL 2:15; 2PE 3:14.
 - d. Nothing is noted about this couple being great in wealth. God is not so much concerned about golden vessels as He is about clean vessels.
 6. Yet they were old and childless because Elisabeth was barren. v. 7.
 - a. Once more, at a time when the impossible seemed inevitable, God would make the barren to bear.
c/w ROM 4:19-25; GEN 25:21; 30:1; JDG 13:2-3; 1SAM 1:2-8.
 - b. With God, all things are possible. LUK 1:37; JER 32:27 c/w MAT 19:26.
 - c. God was not unrighteous to forget their work and labor of love. HEB 6:10.
 - d. The best promises by the oath of God may be long in coming but they are sure. HEB 10:36-37.
 - e. Let such things be a comfort to those who have labored and long-awaited to see spiritual fruit finally appear. Salvation is good in youth, and not to be thought impossible when time has marched on.
LAM 3:22-27; JOB 42:12; PSA 71:17-18; ROM 16:7.
- C. Zacharias was offering the appointed incense when an angel appeared unto him in the temple. LUK 1:8-11 c/w EXO 30:7-8.
1. This was one of the hours of prayer. c/w ACT 3:1.
 - a. Note the association of incense and prayer. PSA 141:2; REV 8:3-4.
 - b. It is possible that godly Simeon and Anna were present. LUK 2:25-38.
 2. Mind that duty is not a substitute for prayer, nor prayer a substitute for duty. The people who may be most expected to receive blessing are a people who respect the service of God's house and that His house is a house of prayer. MAT 21:13.
 3. The angel stood on the right side of the altar of incense. ct/w ZEC 3:1.

- a. Zechariah the prophet was the last person in the O.T. record that was conversant with an angel. ZEC 1:9.
 - b. Zacharias the priest is the first person in the N.T. record to be conversant with an angel.
 - c. The angel was Gabriel who also appeared to Mary (LUK 1:19, 26) and earlier to Daniel. DAN 9:21.
4. Dr. John Lightfoot (early 17th C. English churchman and rabbinical scholar) calculated that the course of Abia by the Jewish calendar corresponded to early summer (June-ish) and the portions of the law and prophets that were read in synagogues at that time agreed with the corresponding focus in the temple: the law of the Nazarites and the conception of Samson (NUM 6; JDG 13).
 - a. This would be quite remarkable in view of what Gabriel was about to announce to Zacharias in vs. 13-15.
 - b. Also, if Lightfoot is correct, and if we assume that Zacharias and Elisabeth conceived John shortly after Zacharias' course was completed, this would place the conception of Jesus Christ in December-ish since there was about a six month lapse between the conceptions. LUK 1:36.
- D. The angel Gabriel's presence troubled Zacharias but Gabriel comforted him and assured him of glad tidings. vs. 12-17.
 1. NOTE: A righteous, blameless man was troubled and afraid at the presence of this angel who would announce the coming of the man whose preaching would be the beginning of the kingdom of God (LUK 16:16). How much more should we fear our God Who gave us the kingdom? HEB 12:28-29.
 2. The word spoken by this angel was, typically, stedfast (HEB 2:2), i.e., fixed, secure. It was to be received as God's word, and believed.
 3. Zacharias' prayer was heard, come up for a memorial before God. c/w ACT 10:4.
 - a. The context later implies that Zacharias had given up on praying for a child (v. 18), but God remembered the earlier prayers.
 - b. Sometimes our prayers seem to be futile but present silence does not necessarily mean perpetual silence. Sometimes it is a "not yet," not "No."
 - c. Pray always (1TH 5:17) for good things subject to God's will since we do not have a certain word from God to stop asking, as did Moses. DEUT 3:26 c/w LUK 18:1-8.
 4. Elisabeth would bear a son that would take away her reproach among men. v. 25.
 5. "...and thou shalt call his name John" (v. 13), not merely a prophecy but an imperative. c/w MAT 1:21.
 6. "And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth" (v. 14).
 - a. Family and neighbors rejoiced (v. 58) and the people marvelled. vs. 63-66.
 - b. Years later when he ministered, people mused whether he were the Christ. LUK 3:15.
 - c. The Jews were "...willing for a season to rejoice in his light" (JOH 5:35).
 - d. Mind that when John was born, Zacharias by the Holy Ghost first blessed God for Jesus' conception (LUK 1:67-69)! The Holy Ghost always glorifies Jesus Christ. JOH 16:14.
 7. "For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord..." (v. 15), a greatness confirmed by Jesus, Who was/is always in perfect accord with the Father. MAT 11:11.
 8. "...and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink..." (v. 15), indicative of a Nazarite.
 - a. One theory is that John was in the priestly line and this prohibition referred to the command of Moses to the priests in LEV 10:9. But that command

- was to priests going to minister in the tabernacle (and would have applied later to the temple, ISA 28:7) and John's ministry was not in the temple but in the open public forum, beginning in the wilderness. LUK 3:2-3.
- b. Jesus said that "...John came neither eating nor drinking..." (MAT 11:18) and he indeed observed a very ascetic diet (MAT 3:4), as would a Nazarite. NUM 6:3-4.
 - c. He would be "...filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb" (v. 15), filled with the spirit, not the spirits. c/w EPH 5:18.
 - d. One could be a voluntary Nazarite for a season but John would follow in the vein of Samson and Samuel who were Nazarites from the womb. JDG 13:7; 1SAM 1:11.
 - e. As a Nazarite, John would have been "different" and "separate" and under other restrictions. NUM 6:1-8.
 - (1) He would have been restricted from contact with dead bodies.
 - (2) He would have had long hair, the exception to the rule for men (1CO 11:7, 14), which, if ignored, erases the distinction of the Nazarite's hair.
 - (3) Jesus Christ, Whose Spirit authored 1CO 11:7, 14 would not have been a "long hair."
 - (4) The Nazarite's exceptional long hair is no more a license for men in general to have long hair than the exceptional nakedness of Isaiah (ISA 20:1-4) or the exceptional taking of a whorish woman for marriage by Hosea (HOS 1:2; 3:1) are licenses for all men.
 - (5) John the Baptist would have cut quite an extraordinary figure by his wilderness beginnings, appearance, diet, etc. But his most remarkable distinction was his holy life and ministry which stood out to all men, even Herod. MAR 6:20.
 - (6) "Note, Frequently those have most real honour done them, who least court the shadow of it. Those who live a mortified life, who are humble and self-denying, and dead to the world, command respect; and men have a secret value and reverence for them, more than they would imagine." (Matthew Henry on MAT 3:1-6)
 - f. "This separation was in ordinary cases temporary and voluntary: only Samson (Jdg 13:7), Samuel (1Sa 1:11), and John Baptist were Nazarites from the womb. It was fitting that the utmost severity of legal consecration should be seen in Christ's forerunner. HE was the REALITY and PERFECTION of the Nazarite without the symbol, which perished in that living realization of it: 'Such an High Priest became us, who was SEPARATE FROM SINNERS' (Heb 7:26)."
(Jamieson-Fausset-Brown Commentary on LUK 1:15)
9. "And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God" (v. 16).
 - a. But not all. LUK 7:29-33.
 - b. John even turned such away from his baptism. MAT 3:7-10.
 - c. Of the Nazarite, Samson, it was said, "...he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines" (JDG 13:5). So also with John, whose ministry paved the way for Christ Who would save God's Israel from temporal enemies and spiritual enemies and finish our faith. LUK 1:69-75 c/w MAT 1:21; HEB 12:2; PHIL 1:6; 1TH 5:23-24.
 10. "And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord” (v. 17). Like the stones of Solomon’s temple made ready for that O.T. edifice, John without the temple would make ready a people prepared for the Lord and His kingdom. 1KI 6:7 c/w MAT 3:1-3.

- a. This is exactly what the last two verses of the O.T. prophecy declared. MAL 4:5-6.
- b. Godly prophets, apostles, preachers and angels declare “...none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:” (ACT 26:22). c/w GAL 1:8-9.
- c. Jesus declared that John the Baptist was Elias/Elijah indeed (in actual fact, in reality, in truth; really, truly, assuredly, positively). MAR 9:11-13.
- d. Malachi’s prophecy implies that there was a general breakdown of the family in its duty and relationship relative to God in 1st C. Judea, an interesting parallel to ISA 38:19. c/w DEUT 4:9; PSA 78:1-8.
- e. Elijah worked miracles but not John. 1KI 17-18 c/w JOH 10:41.
 - (1) The Jews typically looked for miracles to confirm a prophet. 1CO 1:22.
 - (2) Yet in the absence of observable miracles, the people held John to be a prophet and heeded him. MAT 21:26.
 - (3) The work of the Spirit on the inward man convicting of sin is itself a miracle of grace. 1CO 1:18.
 - (4) Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is both conviction and release. 2CO 3:15-18.
- f. But like Elijah, John “came out of nowhere” and preached righteousness to a generation swallowed up in carnal interests and lusts to turn them unto the Lord. 1KI 18:37-39 c/w MAR 1:1-5 c/w MAT 6:31-34; MAR 10:23-27.
- g. Elijah reprov’d all who needed to repent and turn to God: false prophets, the people, and royalty (1KI 18:17-21). So also did John. MAR 6:17-18.
- h. Elijah’s ministry was unique, fiery, illuminating (1KI 18:22-24; 2KI 1:9-12). So also was John’s, spiritually. MAT 3:7-12; JOH 5:35.
- i. Elijah’s ministry was highlighted by water and fire (1KI 18:37-38). So John baptized with water and spoke of Christ baptizing with fire. MAT 3:7-12.
- j. Elijah’s zeal for the Lord slew the wicked carnally (1KI 18:40). John slew the wicked spiritually by the words he spoke. c/w HOS 6:5; ACT 5:32-33.
- k. Elijah and John had similar garb and appearance. 2KI 1:8 c/w MAT 3:4.
- l. Elijah and John turned “...the disobedient to the wisdom of the just” (v. 17). 1KI 18:39 c/w LUK 7:29.
- m. “THERE is something grand, even awful, in the almost absolute silence which lies upon the thirty years between the Birth and the first Messianic Manifestation of Jesus. In a narrative like that of the Gospels, this must have been designed; and, if so, affords pre- sumptive evidence of the authenticity of what follows, and is intended to teach, that what had preceded concerned only the inner History of Jesus, and the preparation of the Christ. At last that solemn silence was broken by an appearance, a proclamation, a rite, and a ministry as startling as that of Elijah had been. In many respects, indeed, the two messengers and their times bore singular likeness. It was to a society secure, prosperous, and luxurious, yet in imminent danger of perishing from hidden, festering disease; and to a religious community which presented the appearance of hopeless perversion, and yet contained the germs of a possible regeneration, that both Elijah and John the Baptist came. Both suddenly appeared to threaten terrible judgment, but also to open unthought-of possibilities of good. And, as if to deepen still more the impression of this contrast, both appeared in a manner unexpected, and even antithetic to the habits of their contemporaries. John came suddenly out of the wilderness of Judæa, as Elijah from the wilds of Gilead; John bore the same strange ascetic appearance as his predecessor; the message of John was the counterpart of that of Elijah; his baptism that of Elijah's novel rite on Mount Carmel. And, as if to make complete the parallelism, with all of memory and hope which it awakened, even the more minute details surrounding the life of Elijah found their counterpart in that of John. Yet history never repeats itself. It fulfils in its development that of which it gave indication at its commencement. Thus, the history of John the Baptist was the fulfilment of that of Elijah in 'the fulness of time.'

(Alfred Edersheim, The Life and Times of Jesus the Messiah, p. 274)

- (1) NOTE: Edersheim connects John's baptism with Elijah's Mt. Carmel action, but there is a better connection.
 - (2) Elijah divided Jordan and went through it in a virtual immersion (2KI 2:7-8). This will be addressed in greater detail later.
- n. So emphatic and distinguishing was Elijah's ministry in Israel, that his very appearance apparently became a uniform for false prophets. ZEC 13:4.
- E. Zacharias was doubtful about the promise and was struck dumb in judgment. vs. 18-25.
1. His doubt concerned perceived human limitations.
 - a. Often, our moments of weakness of faith follow this pattern and hinder us from living freely and fully by the promises of God.
 - b. Our inadequacies and limitations are the very instruments of God bringing glory to Himself. 2CO 12:9-10.
 - c. Believers need help with their own unbelief and this is something to pray about. MAR 9:24.
 2. In Zacharias' defense, his doubting was little different from Abraham's. GEN 17:17.
 3. "...thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed..." (v. 20).
 - a. God, Who can make a dumb ass speak (2PE 2:16) can also make a speaking man mute, and can stop the mouth of a gainsayer. TIT 1:11 c/w MAT 21:27; ACT 4:14.
 - b. If it seems strange that a good man through unbelief should lose the ability to speak, consider that it is not uncommon for a man who speaks the language of unbelief to also lose the language of praise and thanksgiving.
 - c. "...these things..." must refer to vs. 13-15. See vs. 63-64.
 - d. Zacharias would be speechless during John's conception and gestation, also unable to lead his family in devotional prayers.
 4. Zacharias' faith recovered enough that he acted appropriately in spite of a chastening, something we all do well to remember. HEB 12:5-11.
 5. Elisabeth conceived as promised: the unbelief of man does not thwart the faith of God. ROM 3:3-4.
- F. This chapter describes three people as being filled with the Holy Ghost relative to John the Baptist: Zacharias, Elisabeth and John himself. vs. 15, 41, 67.
1. Under this fullness, their words and actions were definitely spiritual and not

- according to the flesh. GAL 5:17.
2. We may conclude our words and actions spiritual when they accord with the Spirit's revelation and instruction. GAL 5:22-23 c/w ROM 8:5.
 3. As special as were these individuals, none of them had the fullness of the Spirit to the same degree as Jesus Christ. JOH 3:34.
 4. It is interesting, though, that such a concentration of sinners being filled with the Holy Ghost at this time was the preparation for Christ Whose Spirit would come to fill, feed and flow from believers of all makes.
JOH 7:37-39 c/w ACT 2:4, 16-18; 11:15-18.
- G. The personality (the fact of being a person as distinct from a thing) of the conceived unborn is evident from the events of vs. 39-45.
1. Elizabeth was six months pregnant with John the Baptist. LUK 1:36.
 2. Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost and spake (vs. 41-42), terms descriptive of inspired prophecy. c/w LUK 1:67.
 3. What she went on to say was by inspiration from God.
 4. Like David, she in spirit called the Messiah Lord. c/w MAT 22:42-45.
 5. Therefore, her description of the babe in her own womb (v. 44) was not mere poetry.
 - a. The babe LEAPED. This is personally initiated action.
 - b. AS SOON AS THY VOICE SOUNDED, the babe leaped. This is responsive action.
 - c. The babe leaped FOR joy. This is purposeful action.
 - d. The babe leaped for JOY. This is emotive action.
 6. This unborn babe manifested the attributes of personality: intelligence, purpose and emotion.
 7. The case of John the Baptist in the womb also shows that the Spirit of God is able to work His power on sinners prior to birth, instruction, faith, works, etc.
JOH 3:8; 6:63 c/w ECC 11:5.
- H. Elisabeth gave birth to a full-term child, a very special production for a woman of old age, and he was evidently of good health and mind That she in old age was saved in childbirth and her child hale and whole were further expressions of God's grace and mercy to that family. vs. 57-66.
1. Zacharias and Elisabeth continued in their righteous, blameless conduct (LUK 1:6) and circumcised John according to the Abrahamic order. c/w GEN 17:12.
 2. They also at that time officially named him John. c/w LUK 2:21.
 3. As a good and godly wife, Elisabeth insisted on honoring the design of God and her husband over the suggestion of friends and family. Zacharias had no fear of spoil with this good wife. vs. 59-60 c/w PRO 31:11.
 4. "And they made signs to his father..." (v. 62). He was dumb, not deaf. Folks are funny sometimes.
 5. "And he asked for a writing table..." (v. 63). This was a table which could be as easily immersed as a pot for washing. c/w MAR 7:4.
 - a. NOTE: Where there is a will to do good, obstacles need not be complete barriers to the performance. 2CO 8:1-5.
 - b. Little Zacchaeus climbed a tree (LUK 19:3-4); godly friends figured out a way to get the palsied man an audience with Jesus (MAR 2:1-5). Paul learned to be content and committed in spite of personal challenges.
2CO 12:7-10; PHIL 4:11-13.
 - c. Zacharias' faith had not been crushed by his chastening but fortified. He

- was adamant now about the angel's message: "His name is John."
- d. The chastening of dumbness promptly ended and he praised God (v. 64), a curious example of "...I believed, and therefore have I spoken..." (2CO 4:13).
6. All this created a great fear and stir in the hill country to a people who had for centuries looked for signs to confirm prophets. vs. 65-66 c/w PSA 74:9.
 7. Of John, "...And the hand of the Lord was with him" (v. 66).
 - a. This was similarly said of his type, Elijah. 1KI 18:46.
 - b. He was "...filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb" (LUK 1:15) and never cast away that strength as did the other Nazarite, Samson. JDG 16:20.
 - c. The hand of God which had written the Law on Sinai was upon John who would baptize Christ Who fulfilled the Law for us. ROM 10:4.
- I. Zacharias erupted in praise to God first for Messiah, as noted earlier (vs. 67-75) and then prophetically addressed the child, John. vs. 76-80.
1. He would be "...called the prophet of the Highest..." (v. 76), conspicuously by Christ Who identified John as such in fulfillment of the promised messenger of the LORD in MAL 3:1. See MAT 11:9-10.
 2. He would "...give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins, Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us..." (vs. 77-78). Dayspring means daybreak, early dawn.
 - a. Christ is the Sun of righteousness which arose with healing in his wings, per MAL 4:2.
 - b. John constantly informed the people that Christ was the true salvation of sinners. JOH 1:7-9, 29.
 - c. Sins would be remitted (forgiven, pardoned) according to mercy, not sinners' works, which Christ eventually did by his own blood, terminating the futile offerings for sin under the Law. MAT 26:28 c/w ROM 3:25; HEB 9:12, 22-28; 10:18; TIT 3:5.
 - d. "To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death..." (v. 79), beginning in Galilee of the Gentiles. MAT 4:12-16 c/w 2TI 1:9-10.
 3. "And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit..." (v. 80).
 - a. Compare this with what was said of Christ as a child. LUK 2:40.
 - b. The scriptures are given for spiritual strengthening, that God-loving children may find Christ in them all. 2TI 3:15 c/w ACT 10:43.

VI. John "...waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts until the day of his shewing unto Israel" (LUK 1:80).

- A. That day came at a notably identified time. LUK 3:1-2.
1. The sceptre had departed from Judah: they were a subjugated nation under Gentile dominion. Therefore the time of Shiloh/Messiah was at hand. GEN 49:10.
 2. The seventy weeks of Daniel's prophecy of Messiah's anointing could be generally known as being current by chronologies and genealogies. Could the promised kingdom of God be at hand? DAN 9:24-27; 2:44 c/w LUK 3:15.
 3. The priesthood in Judah was as corrupt and contemptible as Malachi had declared. MAL 2:1-10.
 4. The long dormant voice of prophecy was awakening, as witness the prophetic utterances of Elisabeth and Zacharias (LUK 1:41-42, 67) and this should have aroused the godly concerning the expected prophet, Elijah. MAL 4:5.

- B. John likely began his ministry at about his thirtieth year (c/w LUK 3:23) in keeping with the Law concerning the beginning of priestly ministration. NUM 4:3.
- C. By this time, under the care of godly parents who knew the scriptures and that John was slated to be a special messenger, and the fact that "...the hand of the Lord was with him" (LUK 1:66), John was himself well studied in the scriptures of things of God in general, of the times, of the priority of Messiah, and of his own role. He had indeed waxed strong in spirit. With the light he had, he spoke with authority and was not "...A reed shaken with the wind..." (MAT 11:7).
- D. Remember that there are three distinct O.T. passages that spoke of John the Baptist. MAL 3:1; 4:5; ISA 40:3.
1. The gospel evangelists used both Malachi and Isaiah in describing John. MAT 3:3; 11:10-11; MAR 1:2-3; LUK 3:4.
 2. But John only cited ISA 40:3 when he was asked what he said of himself. JOH 1:22-23.
 3. It seems that John gave particular attention to the prophecy of Isaiah, and with good reason.
- E. The Book of Isaiah (the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, LUK 3:4) is rich with prophecy of Christ, His work, His kingdom and His times, and penned by a man who had seen the LORD, yet lived. ISA 6:1-10 c/w EXO 33:20.
1. Isaiah declared the virgin conception and virgin birth of The mighty God Who would reign continually on David's throne. ISA 7:14; 9:6-8.
 2. Isaiah saw the sufferings of the LORD Christ as integral with His glory. ISA 6:9-10; 53:1 c/w JOH 12:37-41 c/w HEB 2:9; 1PE 1:21.
 3. The Lord Jesus Christ preached His first recorded sermon from this book. LUK 4:17-21.
 4. Isaiah's chapters parallel the entire number of books of the Bible (66) and the fortieth chapter which announces comfort to God's people is the beginning of the gospel era by John. ISA 40:1-5 c/w MAR 1:1-4.
 5. "There are not so many quotations in the gospels out of any, perhaps not out of all, the prophecies of the Old Testament, as out of this; nor such express testimonies concerning Christ, witness that of his being born of a virgin (ch. 7) and that of his sufferings, Isa 53:1-12. The beginning of this book abounds most with reproofs for sin and threatenings of judgment; the latter end of it is full of good words and comfortable words." (Matthew Henry Commentary)
 6. There is so much of Christ in Isaiah that he has been called the Fifth Evangelist, and Paul refers to Isaiah's words as the gospel. ROM 10:15-16.
 7. Isaiah speaks of:
 - a. An eschatological outpouring of the Holy Spirit associated with the wilderness and water. ISA 32:15 c/w MAR 1:3, 8; ISA 35:1-10; 40:3; 41:18-19; 43:19-20.
 - b. Israelites as the children of Abraham. ISA 51:1-2 c/w MAT 3:9.
 - c. Unfaithful Israel portrayed as a brood of vipers. ISA 59:5 c/w MAT 3:7.
 - d. Wind/breath/spirit and fire compared to a river in which one is immersed. ISA 30:27-28, 33; 43:2 c/w MAT 3:11-12.
 - e. Israel as the threshed and winnowed one. ISA 21:10 c/w MAT 3:12.
 - f. Israel washed clean. ISA 1:16; 4:3-4; 52:10-11 c/w MAR 1:4.
 - g. Works of righteousness attached to washing. ISA 1:16-17 c/w MAT 3:8, 11; LUK 3:10-14.
 - h. The Messiah as God's sin-bearing Lamb. ISA 53:6-7 c/w JOH 1:29.

8. “Two other qualities must be noted in Isaiah — his spirituality and his tone of deep reverence. The formal, the outward, the manifest in religion, are with him absolutely of no account; nothing is of importance but the inward, the spiritual, the ‘hidden man of the heart.’ Temples are worthless (Isaiah 66:1); sacrifices are worthless (Isaiah 1:11-13; 66:3); the observance of days is worthless (Isaiah 1:14); attendance at assemblies is worthless (Isaiah 1:13); nothing has any value with God but real purity of life and heart — obedience (Isaiah 1:19), righteousness, ‘a poor and contrite spirit’ (Isaiah 66:2).” (Pulpit Commentary)
9. Isaiah showed that God's redeeming mercy is likened to the flood of Noah when sin was buried under water and the survivors exited their ark-coffin to new beginnings. ISA 54:7-10 c/w 1PE 3:20-21.
10. For the better part of thirty years, John was waxing strong in spirit, and evidently much so in the Book of Isaiah which spoke so much of Christ, His kingdom, cleansing and washing away of sin, spiritual religion, etc., and of himself as the Lord’s messenger from the wilderness to go before Him to prepare the people for Him.

VII. The beginning of John’s ministry was a watershed moment in God’s program. LUK 16:16.

- A. The prophesied kingdom of God was preached as being “at hand” and people were actively pressing into it by faith, repentance, confession of sins, and baptism.
MAT 3:1-6; 21:31-32 c/w LUK 7:29-30.
 1. This was a movement which was not political liberation/ascendancy or building/rebuilding/beautifying an earthly temple but rather spiritual reform.
 2. The prophets had said that God would in time pour out His Spirit.
ISA 32:14-15; 44:3; JOEL 2:28-29.
 3. This season began with the revival of the spirit of prophecy (as noted earlier), became substantive with John’s ministry, and culminated in the coming of the Spirit at Pentecost. ACT 2:16-17.
 4. Remember that John was not just a man with a message: he was sent from God (JOH 1:6), His messenger. MAR 1:2.
- B. The actual nature of John’s ministry to “...make ready a people prepared for the Lord” (LUK 1:17) is important.
 1. Some Dispensationalists affirm that John’s ministry was to prepare the people to receive their long-awaited king who would restore the throne of David in Jerusalem in place of the Roman/Herodian rule and establish an earthly kingdom and empire.
 2. Here are three reasons why such a theory is wrong:
 - a. Scripture consistently declares that John came to prepare a people for a Messiah-Savior, not an earthly king. ACT 13:22-26.
 - b. Until John rebuked Herod for personal sin, Herod heard him gladly (MAR 6:20), which he certainly would not have done if John were preaching about a new government to displace Herod’s.
 - c. Christ later rebuked Israel’s leaders, not because they rejected John’s message of an earthly king, but because they had not believed John when he came to them “...in the way of righteousness...” (MAT 21:32).
 3. John’s emphasis, as Isaiah’s, was righteousness and he demanded repentance before baptism and afterwards. MAT 3:2, 8, 11.
- C. John’s ministry was not the first time that washing with water, even by immersion, was affirmed.
 1. There were diverse washings under the law of Moses (HEB 9:10), such as the washing of priests for service, washing of garments and vessels, washing of sacrifices, washing of defiled or diseased bodies, etc.

EXO 30:17-21; LEV 1:9; 14:8; 15:5.

2. There were priestly washings, and John was in the priestly line. But John's ministry addressed the washing away of sin associated with repentance, per ISA 1:16-17.
 3. "...John burst on the scene as a virtual mutant, for his rite of baptism, though outwardly similar to Temple lustrations, was wholly without precedent in its meaning...John's rite was so unique that he was named by it ('the Baptizer'), and Jesus clearly regards it as given to John by revelation from God (Mark 11:27-33)." (Walter Wink, The Oxford Companion to the Bible, p. 372)
- D. (MAR 1:4-5) John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.
1. remission: Forgiveness or pardon of sins (cf. 2) or other offences.
 2. The Law provided for a priestly atonement for sin which required a carnal sacrifice at the tabernacle/temple and even confession, but not necessarily repentance. LEV 4:27-35; 5:5-8.
 3. But John ministered without the temple, demanding repentance of those who believed his message both before and after their washing of baptism, and received all who willingly received his message, regardless of sex or rank. MAT 21:31-32; LUK 3:10-14.
 4. John did not require a carnal sacrifice of which he, as the Aaronic priests did, could benefit personally by partaking of the sacrifice. LEV 6:25-26.
 5. Nothing about John's ministry implied a formulaic ritual to satisfy the Law by sacrifice without a genuine reform in the life of the sinner.
 6. NOTE: There are two senses in which sins are remitted through Jesus Christ.
 - a. The eternal penalty of sin for God's people (death, eternal separation from God) has been taken away by the one-time blood-sacrifice of Jesus Christ when He fulfilled the will of the Father. HEB 9:12, 22-28; 10:9-18.
 - b. The temporal burden and consequence of sins of God's people (guilt, alienation, chastening) may be remitted through faith, repentance and baptism which joins one in accord and fellowship with God through Jesus Christ Who in faith forgives their future sins upon their confession. ACT 2:37-41; 22:16 c/w 1JO 1:7-9.
 - c. John's "...baptism of repentance for the remission of sins" (MAR 1:4) was the opening of the door of the new kingdom order which was grounded in Jesus Christ Who remits sins for God's believing people in all nations. LUK 24:46-47; ACT 10:43.
- E. Noah was a link between two worlds (pre-flood, post-flood) and John was a link between two testaments/orders.
1. Noah's experience of salvation by water was a figure of our salvation by Jesus Christ, which salvation is now figured by baptism. 1PE 3:20-21.
 2. Noah was a righteous federal head for whose sake his house was saved. GEN 7:1 c/w ROM 5:18.
 3. Noah was "buried" with his family in an ark/coffin from which they emerged intact to a new world. The ark was a womb which held the promise of life, even as Christ's entombment was actually the promise of life to us. c/w COL 2:12-13.
 4. John's baptism was the opening of the aperture of the better Light. JOH 1:4-9.
 5. With better light, one gets better pictures. Baptism is a better figure of our salvation by a righteous Man in Whose death, burial and resurrection/emerging we share.

ROM 4:24-25.

VIII. John's ministry generally had broad acceptance. MAT 3:5.

- A. The people were for a season willing to rejoice in his light. JOH 5:35.
- B. But John did not use the crafty sophistry of the religious leaders. c/w 2CO 4:2.
 - 1. He was not a warm, fuzzy light but a burning one. JOH 5:35.
 - 2. He did not try to zealously affect men with pretended care.
GAL 4:17 c/w 2SAM 15:1-6 ct/w 1TH 2:5.
 - 3. He was resolute, steadfast, unwavering. MAT 11:7.
 - 4. He was not a light and treacherous preacher who soft-pedaled his message to avoid offending the hearers. ct/w ZEP 3:4.
 - 5. He did not cater to men's vanities with emotion-based preaching or carnal experiences. He didn't even do miracles. JOH 10:41.
 - 6. He was very much what a modern Baptist preacher should be: frank, diligent, steadfast, fact-oriented, Scripture-oriented, practical, honest, without miracles, dunking only penitent believers and giving Christ preeminence.
- C. He knew what he was dealing with and called men out for what they were in spite of potential backlash.
 - 1. He called the religious leaders a "...generation of vipers..." (MAT 3:7).
 - 2. He called the multitude a "...generation of vipers..." (LUK 3:7); it was an "...adulterous and sinful generation..." (MAR 8:38), a generation which said of him, "...He hath a devil" (MAT 11:7, 16-18).
 - 3. He did not excuse the publicans because of their civic duty or the harlots because they were victims of circumstances or bad choices. MAT 21:32.
 - 4. He did not let Herod's veneration for him stop him from reproving Herod.
MAR 6:17-18.
- D. Though he himself followed a restricted regimen of food and drink (LUK 7:33), he never demanded that his converts must do likewise.
 - 1. If someone has conscience issues about using wine for communion because John never drank wine, it should be noted that he also didn't eat bread.
 - 2. NOTE: we should not callously violate conscience but conscience can be both misled by false assumptions and also relieved by truth. Conscience is a guide but the truth of God's words is the best guide. PSA 119:128.
- E. Consider how practical John was in his instruction to humbled folk in various walks. LUK 3:10-14.
 - 1. He affirmed discretionary charity to the desperate for the needs of the body.
v. 11 c/w ISA 58:7; JAM 2:15-17.
 - 2. He did not force the publicans to quit their work, only to purify it. vs. 12-13.
 - 3. He did not forbid soldiers their service but to do no violence (The exercise of physical force so as to inflict injury on, or cause damage to, persons or property; action or conduct characterized by this; treatment or usage tending to cause bodily injury or forcibly interfering with personal freedom) nor resort to graft. v. 14.
 - 4. However, we do not read of where John permitted harlots to continue their walk.
 - a. harlot: 1. A vagabond, beggar, rogue, rascal, villain, low fellow, knave. In later use (16–17th c.), sometimes a man of loose life, a fornicator; also, often, a mere term of opprobrium or insult. Obs.
 - b. harlot: 5. Applied to a woman. a. As a general term of execration. (Cf. 1.) rare. b. A female juggler, dancing-girl, ballet-dancer, or actress. (Cf. 2.)

- Obs. c. spec.* An unchaste woman; a prostitute; a strumpet.
- c. John would have some choice words about current women's standards. c/w 1TI 2:9-10; 1PE 3:1-6.
 - d. John's reproof of Herod was also a reproof of Herodias. MAR 6:19.
5. Nothing about John's ministry implied isolation from society as a necessity.
- F. Consider John's message to the multitude. LUK 3:7-9.
- 1. "...who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?" (v. 7).
 - a. John would have known about the 70th week of DAN 9:26-27 which spoke of the utter destruction of Jerusalem, etc.
 - b. That wrath came to the uttermost. LUK 21:23 c/w 1TH 2:16.
 - c. "wrath to come is not meant hell fire, everlasting destruction, from which baptism could not save them; but temporal calamity and destruction, the wrath which in a little time came upon that nation to the uttermost, for rejecting the Messiah, and the Gospel dispensation; from which they might have been saved, had they given credit to Jesus as the Messiah, though only with a bare assent; and had they entered into the kingdom of heaven, or Messiah, the Gospel dispensation, by receiving its doctrines, and submitting to its ordinances, though only externally." (John Gill on MAT 3:7).
 - d. The future "...great day of his wrath..." (REV 6:13-17) is only escaped because Jesus Christ Himself has delivered us from it. 1TH 1:10; 5:9.
 - 2. John denounced any notion of descent from Abraham as being a substitute for repentance. v. 8.
 - a. This was a vain conceit of the religious leaders also (JOH 8:33-40) and remains a stumblingblock unto this day to Jews and deluded Christians.
 - b. "The God that had called Israel out of Egypt and led it across the Jordan River was now creating a new people by passing them through the waters of baptism in that same river. The twelve stones that had been set up to mark Israel's crossing of the parted Jordan (Josh. 4) would themselves be raised up into twelve new tribes if the people of Israel would not repent." (Walter Wink, The Oxford Companion to the Bible, pp. 371-372)
 - 3. Repentance, faith and baptism to walk in newness of life were the identifiers of the kingdom of God that John was introducing. c/w ROM 14:17-18.
 - 4. Compare the chopping of v. 9 with LUK 13:1-9. Israel was due to be chopped down by the end of Jesus' ministry but God gave it a little more time to bring forth the fruits of repentance.
- G. John's conversation was so holy and his message so profound that the people wondered if he might be the promised Messiah/Christ but he ever affirmed that he was only a bit-player to introduce the Christ. LUK 3:15-18.
- H. The Jews sent a committee of Pharisee Levites and priests to query John. JOH 1:19-25.
- 1. They had expectations of three notable characters potentially appearing: Christ, Elias, that prophet.
 - a. The Christ was prophesied of pointedly in PSA 2 and DAN 9.
 - b. Moses the deliverer had declared a special miracle-working prophet like himself to come some day. DEUT 18:18-19.
 - c. Elijah did not die (2KI 2:11) and was expected to reappear, per MAL 4:5.
 - (1) See MAR 9:11; LUK 9:8, 19.
 - (2) Elijah appeared again in glory to a limited audience, not to spearhead Israel's exaltation, but to discuss Christ's impending death as the prophets, by His Spirit, had ever spoken.

LUK 9:28-31 c/w 1PE 1:10-11.

2. John denied that he was any of those, which prompted the committee to ask, "...Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?" (v. 25). They evidently associated a watery rite like John's at Jordan with major players and changes.
3. The Jews had a number of notable "immersions" in their history and scriptures to lead them to this association.
 - a. The Flood was an obvious immersion which began a new era.
 - b. Moses "baptized" Israel through the Red Sea unto a new era. 1CO 10:1-2.
 - c. Joshua "baptized" Israel through Jordan unto a new era. JOS 3:14-17.
 - d. Elijah divided Jordan to pass through it in another virtual immersion and be translated. 2KI 2:7-11.
 - e. That John was baptizing in Jordan would have been of great significance. Was John going to be another divider of Jordan to begin a new era?
4. Whatever they were reasoning about John was tied to the concept of immersion in water indicating a great change. And it should! ROM 6:4.
5. Jordan has another significance: it was where the uncircumcised Naaman was dipped and received a cleansing salvation: a preview of good things to come. LUK 4:27 c/w 2KI 5:10-14 c/w ACT 10:34-48.

IX. The apex of John's ministry was his baptism of Jesus Christ.

MAT 3:13-17; MAR 1:9-11; LUK 3:21-23.

- A. The sinless Jesus submitted Himself to this ordinance of a temporary figurative death, burial and resurrection which spoke of His own work to save us.
 1. Whereas John's baptism was of repentance for the remission of sins, Jesus had no sin and therefore nothing to repent of and have remitted.
 2. Jesus was/is flawlessly righteous and so is called, "...Jesus Christ the righteous..." 1JO 2:1.
 3. The righteous are not called to repentance, only sinners. LUK 5:32.
 4. There was something else going on with the baptism of Jesus. It was "...to fulfil all righteousness" (MAT 3:15).
- B. Dr. Jay Adams (a Pedobaptist sprinkler-type) in his book, The Meaning and Mode of Baptism on p. 17 tries to use MAT 3:15 to support baptism by sprinkling. His argument goes like this:
 1. John the Baptist was a Levitical priest keeping the Law of Moses.
 2. John was keeping the righteousness of the Law for the sprinkling of Levites in NUM 8:6-7.
 3. Jesus was honoring the same law and was therefore anointed as a priest at thirty years of age by a sprinkling baptism even as Levites had to be thirty years old to enter tabernacle service. NUM 4:3, 47 c/w LUK 3:21-23.
- C. But...
 1. If John was sprinkling Jesus in keeping with NUM 8:6-7; 4:3, 47 and this is what was fitting Him to be a priest, how could this be fulfilling all righteousness?
 - a. Jesus was of the tribe of Judah, not Levi.
 - b. Judah was ineligible for the priesthood. HEB 7:14; 2CH 26:18.
 - c. John and Jesus would both have been breaking Moses' Law if John was anointing Jesus as a priest as Dr. Adams proffers.
 - d. In fact, if John's baptisms of others were according to the command to sprinkle Levites, he had already been breaking that law since he baptized

- without regard to tribe or sex. MAT 21:31-32.
- e. Above all, how could a Levitical priest (John) anoint Jesus with the Melchisedec priesthood which God HIMSELF conferred upon Jesus by His oath? HEB 7:21.
2. The sprinkling of a Levite is NOT the washing of a priest.
 - a. Not all Levites were priests. NUM 16:7-10; LUK 10:31-32.
 - b. Only the sons of Aaron could be priests. EXO 28:1; 30:30; NUM 3:10.
 - c. The priests had a brass laver to wash IN. EXO 29:4; 30:18-21; LEV 16:4.
 - (1) The washing of Aaron's flesh in water for the Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement) service is interesting since it particularly foreshadows Jesus Christ "...by whom we have now received the atonement" (ROM 5:11).
 - (2) "...this washing may be either an emblem of Christ's baptism, which he submitted to before he entered on his public ministry, and was, by dipping; or rather of his being cleared, acquitted, and justified from all sin, upon his resurrection from the dead, after he had made atonement for it, and before his entrance into heaven; as he had no sin of his own he needed not the washing of regeneration, or the water of sanctifying grace to be sprinkled on him, to cleanse him from it but inasmuch as he had sin imputed to him, and which he took upon him to make atonement for, it was proper and necessary, when he had made it, that he should be justified in the Spirit, that so he might enter into heaven without sin imputed, as he will appear without it when he comes a second time." (John Gill)
 - d. Sprinklings are distinct from washings. LEV 6:27.
 - e. The priests were anointed with oil, not water (EXO 30:25, 30-31) and oil suspends over water, an apt picture of the superiority of the priests over the Levites.
 - f. Jesus' anointing was with the Holy Ghost. ACT 10:37-38 c/w LUK 4:18.
 - (1) The O.T. high priest was washed with water right before his anointing. EXO 29:4-7.
 - (2) This corresponds with Christ being washed with water right before His anointing. MAT 3:16-17.
 3. So what were John and Jesus doing that was fulfilling all righteousness?
 - a. John's baptism and ministry were by divine appointment. LUK 3:2-6 c/w MAR 11:28-33; JOH 1:6.
 - b. The church of God was undergoing a reformation. HEB 9:10.
 - c. An old order defined by pedigree, nation, circumcision, Mosaic code and Levitical service was being abrogated by a new order defined by repentance, faith and baptism.
 - d. This kingdom was spiritual and entered into by baptism. MAT 21:31-32 c/w LUK 7:29-30.
 - e. John was NOT perpetuating a long-held Mosaic ceremony for Levites or imitating ritual ablutions of the Essenes, as some have conjectured.
 - f. Again, John's baptism was of repentance for the remission of sins. MAR 1:4.
 - (1) Jesus Christ had no sins of his own and was only the legal bearer of our sins. 1PE 2:22-24.
 - (2) However, "...in ALL THINGS it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people” (HEB 2:17).

- (3) As God, Christ had given the law by which John baptized people into the kingdom of heaven. Thus, He submitted Himself to that revolutionary ordinance in demonstration of its validity and of the fact that the promised kingdom had come: “...The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand...” (MAR 1:15).
 - (4) Christ was therefore made a genuine brother of the new order: the gospel church and kingdom of God/heaven. HEB 2:11-12.
 - (5) As the sacrificial lamb once had to be taken FROM the pre-advent church (LEV 16:5), Christ our Lamb and Brother was taken from among the reforming church that would be under a N.T. to be offered for our sins.
 - (6) By submitting Himself to the ordinance of water baptism, Christ by example showed that none who would have a part in the new order of the kingdom of heaven are exempt from its entry requirement.
- D. Moses opened a way through the Red Sea to freedom. Joshua opened a way through Jordan to Canaan. Elijah opened a way through Jordan to his own translation.
1. But when Jesus was baptized, a channel was opened through the watery atmosphere of earth unto heaven while Jesus prayed. LUK 3:21-22.
 2. The Spirit descended upon Jesus like a dove, and this was the very sign that God Himself had prophetically given to John concerning the One Who would baptize with the Holy Ghost: the Son of God. JOH 1:29-34.
 3. “As the prayer of Jesus winged heavenwards, His solemn response to the call of the Kingdom - ‘Here am I;’ ‘Lo, I come to do Thy Will’ - the answer came, which at the same time was also the predicted sign to the Baptist. Heaven seemed cleft, and in bodily shape like a dove, the Holy Ghost descended on⁸⁹² Jesus, remaining on him. It was as if, symbolically, in the words of St. Peter,⁸⁹³ that Baptism had been a new flood, and He Who now emerged from it, the Noah - or rest, and comfort-bringer - Who took into His Ark the dove bearing the olive-branch, indicative of a new life. Here, at these waters, was the Kingdom, into which Jesus had entered in the fulfilment of all righteousness; and from them he emerged as its Heaven-designated, Heaven-qualified, and Heaven-proclaimed King.”
(Alfred Edersheim, The Life and Times of Jesus the Messiah, p. 302)
 4. Then “...a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased” (MAT 3:17). No such thing was said of Moses, Joshua or Elijah.
- E. NOTE: The sinless Jesus submitted to this ordinance administered by a sinner. Behold this great condescension of Almighty God which shows us that obedience in godly things is not absolutely conditioned upon the flawlessness of the one in authority.
1. As a child, he subjected Himself to sinful parents. LUK 2:51.
 2. To qualify as a brother of the new spiritual kingdom, He subjected Himself to sinner John’s baptism.
 3. As a civilian, He subjected Himself to sinners’ civil authority and tribute. MAT 17:24-27; 22:21.
- F. John would have handled the body of Jesus Christ to baptize Him but the apostles handled Him post-resurrection in His victorious state. LUK 24:39; JOH 20:27 c/w 1JO 1:1.
1. This is another example of their preferment and blessing over John. MAT 11:11.
 2. John, though, may have seen the resurrected Christ in glory at His initial ascension before they saw Him on earth since his soul was in heaven after his beheading.

JOH 20:17.

3. When John died, his soul/spirit went to the place where Moses and Elijah dwelt in glory, in whose presence Christ was transfigured. LUK 9:28-31.
 - a. The disembodied John would be in that place of the perfectly bodied Christ and Elijah, his type in whose spirit and power he had ministered, per LUK 1:17.
 - b. The type (Elijah) and the antitype (John) could together with Moses in that place praise the One of Whom they all prophesied, the Judge of quick and dead. ACT 10:42-43.
 - c. The Apostle John may well have seen John, the one faithful beheaded saint recorded in Scripture, in glory. REV 20:4.
4. Did Moses, Joshua and Elijah open up a way to something better?
 - a. Jesus Christ, by His blood, death, burial, resurrection and ascension opened a way into the holiest in heaven. HEB 9:8-12; 10:19-22 c/w JOH 14:1-6.
 - b. The death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ was the very thing that John's baptism was figuring: the great story of life from the dead and death's defeat.
 - c. Christ would even describe His sufferings for our sins as a baptism of complete immersion under the sins of His people and the wrath of God when even the land was immersed in darkness.
MAT 20:22 c/w PSA 69:1-2, 4, 9, 14-15, 20-21 c/w MAT 27:45.

- X. As noted earlier, John's ministry was not only spiritual in calling men to the "...baptism of repentance for the remission of sins" (MAR 1:4), it was also very practical in showing men how to live godly in this present world and use its fashion without abusing it. LUK 3:10-14.
- A. His disciples adopted frequent fastings. LUK 5:33.
 1. John also taught them to pray. LUK 11:1.
 2. Given the devilish infection that was manifesting in Israel, fastings and prayers were very appropriate instruction for them, and also for us who wrestle with dark powers. MAT 17:21; 1CO 7:5 c/w EPH 6:11-12.
 - B. John showed that God-blessed ministry is not defined by polished appearance and fine cuisine. MAT 3:4 c/w ISA 53:2.
 - C. John showed that ministry may be called upon to reprove the powers that be, especially for their immorality. LUK 3:19-20.
 - D. John knew that a people prepared for the Lord needed family order and to hearken to the just. LUK 1:17 c/w ISA 38:19; 45:20-25.
 - E. John knew his place in the kingdom program: a forerunner, a rough grader to the Paver/Paviour, a Jonathan to a David, the friend of the bridegroom but not the bridegroom. JOH 3:28-29.
 1. Knowing one's place and abiding therein pleases God and is best for those under one's care. PRO 27:8 c/w 2CO 10:13-18; 1TI 4:16; COL 4:17.
 2. Those who get stuck with the likes of a Korah or Diotrephes have trouble. NUM 16:32-35; 3JO 1:9-10.
 - F. Another practical side of John's ministry was that he had disciples he taught. LUK 11:1.
 1. He was a spiritual father who made known the truth to his children, per ISA 38:19.
 2. Some of those disciples became Jesus' disciples. JOH 1:35-40.
 3. That John had disciplined men who became Jesus' disciples is another way in which he did "...make ready a people prepared for the Lord" (LUK 1:17).

4. Apollos was another man who had been prepped for the Lord by John's ministry. ACT 18:24-28.
 5. John not only taught the multitudes but also schooled men for continuing the truth. c/w 2TI 2:1-2.
- G. There is also a very human side of John's ministry seen when he was imprisoned by Herod. MAT 11:1-6.
1. Though being both personally and prophetically knowledgeable of the Christ, John wavered. Personal trials can do this to the most stalwart of saints.
 2. The great man of faith, Abraham, wavered and bred an Ishmael. GEN 16:1-4.
 3. Even Elijah ran off after the resounding victory at Mt. Carmel. 1KI 19.
 4. Prophets were subject to the same human passions as others. JAM 4:17.
 5. NOTE: When faith puts you in a place of feeling all alone, you're not, and when circumstances seem to be contrary to your expectations of God's promises and care, they're not. The expectations, though, may need to be analyzed and adjusted.
 6. Sometimes bad things happen to good people, as Job, or as Jesus.
 - a. Jesus said of John's fate at the hands of wicked civil authority, "...they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed [pleased, chose, liked]. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them" (MAT 17:12).
 - b. John would, in his unjust treatment and death, precede Jesus' unjust treatment and death: "...the fellowship of His sufferings, being made conformable unto his death" (PHIL 3:10).
 - c. John preceded/went before Jesus in conception, birth, ministry, death and even in his soul/spirit's reception in glory.
- XI. Before Herod imprisoned John, Jesus began to baptize men as John did. JOH 3:22-24.
- A. The actual baptizing was done by Jesus' disciples. JOH 4:1-2.
 - B. This represented a rival camp, which concerned John's disciples. JOH 3:25-26.
 - C. John was not fazed by this in the least for he knew his place and joyfully deferred to Christ. JOH 3:27-36.
 - D. "The answer which the Baptist made, may be said to mark the high point of his life and witness. Never before was he so tender, almost sad; never before more humble and self-denying, more earnest and faithful. The setting of his own life-sun was to be the rising of One infinitely more bright; the end of his Mission the beginning of another far higher. In the silence, which was now gathering around him, he heard but one Voice, that of the Bridegroom, and he rejoiced in it, though he must listen to it in stillness and loneliness. For it he had waited and worked. Not his own, but this had he sought. And now that it had come, he was content; more than content: his 'joy was now fulfilled.' 'He must increase, but I must decrease.' It was the right and good order. With these as his last words publicly spoken,⁴²³ this Aaron of the New Testament unrobed himself ere he lay down to die. Surely among those born of women there was not one greater than John. That these were his last words, publicly spoken and recorded, may, however, explain to us why on this exceptional occasion Jesus sanctioned the administration by His disciples of the Baptism of John.
