THIRD PARTY CONTENT DECLARATION

Third party content is defined as any material within the manuscript which is not your original work. Third party content may consist of text passages, figures, photos, poems, song lyrics, screenshots, etc. and be found in many places such as but not limited to - the Internet, print and online books and articles, theses, annual reports, conference material, photocopies, course packages, translations, visually impaired readers.

In particular, pay close attention to sensitive images such as identifiable persons or human research participants, recognisable architecture, logos, brands/trademarks, and images from online photo libraries.

Please refer to Springer Nature Guide to Copyright and Permissions for further guidance.

You are responsible for clearing the rights for third party content under your publishing agreement. Please confirm if your manuscript contains any third party content?(If you are not the author, you confirm that you are authorised to act on their behalf).

* One 'third party content permission' option needs to be selected.

All of the material is the original work of the authors, editors, contributors and no further permissions are required.

The material contains third party content. The necessary permissions have been obtained and are available on request by the Publisher.

Upload permission file(s) if requested.

Drag-and-drop some files here, or click to select files.

4. Upload Source Files

Under the Upload Manuscript tab, submit all required source materials:

A. Upload Source Files

Upload the following items individually:

- Each chapter in Word or LaTeX format
- Supporting documents, including:
 - Organizer and editor list
 - Table of contents
 - Preface
 - Peer Review and Ethics Statement

The screenshot shows a web form titled "UPLOAD PDF FILES". The main text reads: "PDF files of the complete manuscript. For edited works PDF files of each individual chapter are required (as individual files or zipped). This is used as a reference and is especially important if text or figures contain special characters or unusual fonts. Please check the PDF to ensure that text and figures appear correctly. * At least one Reference PDF file should be uploaded." Below this is a dashed box containing the instruction "Drag--and--drop some files here, or click to select files." At the bottom of the form, there is a note: "* Once you submit, you will not be able to make any changes again." and a checkbox labeled "I agree with the terms and conditions of the manuscript submission." To the right of the form, a sidebar contains a progress list: "1. Book details", "2. Declarations", and "3. Upload manuscript & submit". Under item 3, there are two links: "Upload source files" and "Upload PDF files". Below the sidebar, a blue box contains the text: "Need some help? Get in contact with your project manager via email: priya.vyas@springernature.com". At the bottom of the form, there are two buttons: "Back" and "Submit form".

- Each supporting document must be provided in .doc/.xls formats and their corresponding PDF versions.

5. Upload PDF Files

Scroll to the Upload PDF Files section and submit only the individual chapter PDF files.

6. Final Submission

Once all files are uploaded:

1. Tick the confirmation checkbox.
2. Click "Submit Form."

After submission, you will receive a notification confirming successful receipt
