

Get to Know Markus Meckl PhD

Steering Committee Member of the Migration in Harmony Research Coordination Network

Meet Markus Meckl

Markus Meckl holds a Ph.D. from Berlin Technical University where he studied at the Center for Research on Anti-Semitism. Since 2004, he has been working at the University of Akureyri in Iceland where he is a professor at the School of Humanities and Social Sciences. In recent years, one of his research interests focused on immigration issues in Iceland from which a series of articles has been published. He is involved in immigration and integration-related projects in the Nordic and other European countries.

project that excites you

We are just started a new research idea: The overall aim will be to understand the repercussions of public health campaigns and health and media communications on migrant populations during the COVID-19 pandemic. The focus on public health and media communication will allow us - to understand the pattern of access to health services and healthcare provision in Iceland, - to explore healthcare consumption among migrants and to compare it with non-migrants, and to develop strategies for improved health literacy among migrants.
