

Rangoli pattern

Diwali is the beginning of Hindu New Year, where Hindus, Jains and Sikhs from across the world celebrate light over dark and good over evil.

This year it starts on 14 November.

During the festival of light, people draw bright Rangoli patterns on the floor near the entrance to their house, to bring them good luck and welcome the Goddess of wealth, Lakshmi Maa, into their homes. Colour your own Rangoli pattern to celebrate Diwali and bring yourself good luck!
