Procedure

You will be advised once this form has been received. The form will be verified for content and an infraction letter issued in accordance with the Strata Property Act and your respective strata corporation's bylaws. In most cases an infraction letter will be issued within five business days of the violation form being received.

For issues such as noise and waste disposal we recommend speaking to the responsible party first, as they might not be aware of the infraction.

Details of the actions taken relating to specific complaints will be reported in the subsequent meeting minutes. The reporting will be done in a format that does not identify the person making the complaint or against who the complaint has been made.
