 - 10.2.2. Customer is or may be betting on behalf of a person who is less than 18 years of age;
 - 10.2.3. a Customer is or may be in breach of these Terms;
 - 10.2.4. a Customer is or may be in breach of any applicable law; or
 - 10.2.5. a Customer's proposed bet would present an unacceptable liability risk to our business. Whether there is an unacceptable liability risk to us for the purpose of this paragraph is at betr's discretion.
- 10.3. In the case of wagers accepted by betr in accordance with these Terms:
- 10.3.1. Except in the case of "In the Run" wagering, wagers may only be accepted up to the advertised start time, actual start time, or such earlier time as dictated by betr.
 - 10.3.2. Except in the case of "In the Run" wagering, if a wager is inadvertently accepted in respect of an event after its start time, the wager shall be deemed to have been made invalidly and will be refunded to the Customer. For the purpose of this clause, "inadvertently" means that betr had no knowledge that the event in question had started and the wager was accepted in good faith.
- 10.4. "In the Run" means placing a wager on a betr-nominated market after an event has commenced and is in progress. In such cases, once an event has commenced, the event market will close and a new "In the Run" market will commence.
- 10.5. betr may take "In the Run" bets on betr-nominated events. In such circumstances, markets may be displayed on the website as "Live Betting" and betr Account holders can call our office to obtain markets. In compliance with the Interactive Gambling Act 2001 (Cth) "in the run" wagers will not be accepted over the Internet and may only be accepted over the telephone.
- 10.6. For internet wagers, and subject to these Terms and prescribed minimum bet limits:
- 10.6.1. betr has discretion over which odds, prices or lines ('Odds') it may choose to offer a Customer.
 - 10.6.2. betr reserves the right to refuse to accept a wager in its absolute discretion.
 - 10.6.3. All Odds (including fixed odds) displayed on the betr website or apps are indicative only until the Customer has logged in to their account, and may change before the wager is accepted by betr. The only Odds offered by betr are those that are displayed after the Customer has logged in, and at the time the wager is confirmed by a Customer. All Odds offered to a Customer are subject to variation until the time a wager is accepted by betr. For tote derivative products the final price is not known until dividends are declared.
- 10.7. In the case of telephone wagers, betr has discretion over which Odds it may choose to offer a Customer. The Odds offered by betr are those outlined to the Customer by the telephone operator at the time of the Customer making the wager. All Odds offered to a Customer are subject to the wagering limits as described in these Terms, and are subject to variation until the time a wager is accepted by betr. For tote derivative products the final price is not known until dividends are declared.

- 10.8. When a Customer is making a bet on their Account via the Internet, it is only accepted once the Customer submits the bet and a confirmation is received by the Customer. This will be accompanied by a ticket number.
- 10.9. When a Customer is making a bet on their Account via the telephone, the Customer is responsible for quoting the correct Account details. A bet is accepted when a Customer either indicates agreement with a bet after it has been read back to the Customer or, if the Customer does not disagree with the bet details, when read back to the Customer before the telephone call ends.
- 10.10. In the event a telephone conversation between a betr representative and a Customer in which a bet is being placed is interrupted for any reason (including a mobile phone dropping out) prior to the conclusion of the conversation, any unconfirmed bet will be deemed not to have been placed. In such circumstances, it is the responsibility of the Customer to contact us promptly to confirm the bet the Customer wishes to make.
- 10.11. Customers are unable to change or cancel a bet once the bet has been accepted by betr unless the Customer informs betr as soon as practicable after the wager was placed (but before the event has commenced) that the wager was made in error and the initial wager shall only be voided and replaced with another wager at the sole discretion of betr management.
- 10.12. The minimum bet on the Internet is $1.
- 10.13. The minimum bet via the telephone is $25.
- 10.14. In any sporting event where there is a flat line (i.e. 7.0), and the result falls on that flat number, all wagers are void and refunded. Affected multiple wagers (parlays) will be recalculated excluding that leg.
- 10.15. The maximum telephone or internet wager (or series of telephone or internet wagers) that betr is compelled to accept at the Odds it offers, is that wager amount so prescribed by law that when applied to the applicable Odds offered and the circumstances of the wager, would result in the maximum amount betr is compelled by law to pay out on any wager or series of wagers (betting limits as outline in Schedule 2).

RESULTS

- 10.16. Where an event or match is postponed and rearranged to take place within 48 hours of the original scheduled starting time, all wagers will stand. If the event or match is rescheduled to take place more than 48 hours later than the original scheduled start time, all wagers will be void and stakes refunded. Affected multiples will be recalculated, excluding that leg. Rules contained in betr's Sports Rules which are contrary to the above will override this section 10.17.

- 10.18. Unless otherwise stated in the event description or individual sport Terms, overtime periods or extra time periods will count towards the final result, except in relation to soccer. Other individual markets noted as excluding extra time or overtime, and individual sports Terms stating that extra time or over-time does not count will override this section 10.18.
- 10.19. Where a Customer has placed a multi bet and one of the selections of the multi bet is scratched, the wager on the remaining selection(s) and the initial stake will stand.
- 10.20. Dead Heat Rule:
 - 10.20.1. A Dead Heat occurs when two or more selections are placed in the same position after the final results have been given from a specific event.
 - 10.20.2. In the event that a dead heat occurs, reduced returns shall be awarded on all runners involved in the Dead Heat.
 - 10.20.3. If we have not offered the "Draw" or "Dead Heat" selection for a specific event where there has been a Dead Heat, the ticket will be paid out at face value divided by the number of Dead Heating winners of the event.
 - 10.20.4. The reduction on returns shall be dependent on the number of runners involved in the dead heat.
 - 10.20.5. For Fixed Odds bets, the reduced return shall be calculated as the face value of the bet divided by the total number of runners involved in the dead heat.
 - 10.20.6. If betr have offered the "Draw" or "Dead Heat" (may have a different name) selection and there has been a draw/dead heat in the event, then all Win/Place wagers are losers and the "Draw" selection is the winning wager.

 - 11.3.4. a person with a good understanding of wagering would reasonably understand that there was an error in a relevant market or in the acceptance of the bet.

- 11.4. For the purposes of paragraph 10, and in any of the above circumstances:
- 11.4.1. A bet includes a single bet or a multiple bet; and
 - 11.4.2. If the erroneous price or selection is part of a multiple bet placed by you, the multiple bet will be either re-calculated at adjusted (correct) prices or by excluding the event to which the error relates, at betr's discretion.

12. Maximum payouts

- 12.1. You acknowledge and agree that for certain bet types your accepted stake or bet may mean that you have the opportunity to win more than a win limit or maximum payout set out in this clause or in our other Terms and Conditions.
