1. Applicability

1.1 These Terms and Conditions apply to all reservations made for the VIP centre areas and/or VIP service. In addition, the Customer, by making a reservation for the VIP service or an area at the VIP centre, shall be deemed to have accepted the terms and conditions of Schiphol VIP centre's Privacy Statement, resulting in these terms and conditions being applicable to the reservations agreement of the VIP service or an area at the VIP centre.

1.2 In the event that any of the stipulations in these Terms and Conditions are found to be null and void, or become so, or lose their legal validity in any other way, the other stipulations in these Terms and Conditions will remain applicable as far as possible, insofar as they conform with the purpose and purport of these Terms and Conditions. Any null and void provision will be replaced with a valid provision in line with the purpose and purport of these Terms and Conditions.

1.3 Articles 1, 2 and 7–13 apply both to the reservation of VIP centre areas and to VIP service reservations. Articles 3 and 4 apply only to reservations for the VIP service and Articles 5 and 6 apply only to reservations for the VIP centre areas.

2. Grounds for refusal and termination

- 2.1 The VIP centre may refuse a reservation request under the following circumstances:
- insufficient capacity;
 - security and/or privacy reasons relating to the presence of a prominent VIP, where third parties may temporarily be denied access to the VIP centre;
 - any risk to the safety of other guests;
 - any request made by the Royal Netherlands Marechaussee to perform passenger handling through regular channels rather than at the VIP centre;
 - if the Customer or guest has previously demonstrably failed to adhere to the stipulations as set out in Article 9 of these Terms and Conditions.
- 2.2 As operator of the VIP centre, SNBV also reserves the right to amend an agreement on the reservation of a VIP service or an agreement on the reservation of an area, or to offer these agreements under other conditions or, in the most extreme case, to terminate these agreements early with immediate effect, should any of the grounds mentioned in Article 2.1 arise. The client is entitled to reject the reservation that has been amended or has been offered under other conditions, as a result of which no agreement will be effected. If SNBV (as operator of the VIP centre) terminates the agreement on the reservation of a VIP service or an area early, the parties will not owe each other any compensation. If and insofar as a party has already paid a deposit in this context, this amount will be returned by the other party, unless otherwise provided by these Conditions.

3. Agreements on the reservation of a VIP service

- 3.1 A reservation for a VIP service is considered to have been made at the point where the VIP centre explicitly confirms a Customer's reservation by email. If the Customer subsequently wishes to reserve additional services, these will be considered part of the agreement only after they have been confirmed by email from the VIP centre to the Customer.
- 3.2 A last-minute cancellation, change or request for a reservation is subject to a surcharge, as stated in the list of rates.
- 3.3 Where a special group handling arrangement is made, both parties will reach an alternative option/cancellation agreement. In such a case, the parties will draw up an estimate by email consultation, setting out any specifics on ground handling arrangements, including the time of arrival, baggage, and staff escorts.
- 3.4 For each delegation, two people collecting or dropping off customers may also use the VIP centre at no additional cost. For each additional person collecting or dropping off customers the rate shown in the list of rates will be charged, if they also make use of the VIP centre. Drivers may use the drivers' area at no additional cost.

4. Requirements for reservation/option VIP service

4.1 A VIP service reservation confirmation must include the following details:

- The Passenger's name;
- The number of fellow passengers and their names;
- The scheduled date/time of the flight, and the flight number;
- The origin or destination;

4.2 The VIP service is charged per Delegation.

5. Agreements on the reservation of an area

5.1 A reservation for a particular area is considered to have been made at the point where the VIP centre explicitly confirms a Customer's reservation by email.

If the Customer subsequently wishes to reserve additional services, these will be considered part of the agreement only after they have been confirmed by email from the VIP centre to the Customer.

5.2 For any special events, an alternative option/cancellation agreement will be made.

In such a case, both parties will come to an arrangement regarding an estimate and/or schedule of agreements, including specific agreements on the organisation of the event regarding staffing, decor and costs.

7.4 Payments in cash or by cheque will not be accepted.

8. Customer liability

- 8.1 SNBV excludes any liability for damage, theft, loss etc. of Customer property as well as any liability for injury to or the death of the Customer, unless the Customer can prove intent or gross negligence on the part of SNBV. The Customer enters the airside operational area for the VIP service at his or her own risk and is obliged to follow all safety instructions given by the VIP personnel in that regard.
- 8.2 The Customer is liable for any damage caused by or as a result of the Customer using the VIP centre or service. Any damage caused by the Customer to the VIP centre/service must be compensated for immediately unless, in the judgement of SNBV, the Customer can provide satisfactory assurance that the damage will be made good. The assessment of SNBV or an SNBV-appointed expert will be decisive in assessing the amount of the claim. The cost of that assessment will be charged to the Customer.
- 8.3 SNBV cannot be held liable for any circumstances beyond its control which prevent it from reasonably being able to fulfil its obligations to the Customer as agreed for the use of the VIP centre/service. Such circumstances at least include industrial action, fire, government measures, service breakdowns or failures by third parties.

9. Suspension and dissolution

- 9.1 If the Customer fails to honour its obligations or SNBV has reasonable grounds to assume the Customer will fail to do so, SNBV has the right to:
- Request assurance that the Customer will honour its obligations;
 - Suspend its obligations towards the Customer;
 - Terminate the agreement(s) with the Customer.

10. Food & Beverage

- 10.1 The VIP service includes a basic food & beverage service. More information on the menu can be obtained from the VIP centre. If the Customer wishes to add to or make alternative food & beverage arrangements, the options can be discussed with the VIP centre. Alternative arrangements can be ordered up to 24 hours in advance at an extra charge. In principle, the additional food & beverage arrangements must be purchased from the VIP centre's own, in-house supplier.

11. Discretion, social media, photography, film and sound recordings

- 11.1 The Customer will treat the other visitors of the VIP centre with discretion at all times. The Customer is also responsible for ensuring that guests are also discreet. The Client and the Guests will never enter other spaces than allocated areas and reveal other Guests through social media or otherwise.
- 11.2 Unless SNBV has provided explicit written permission, no photography, film, sound or any other recordings may be made in the VIP centre.
