On February 15, 1864, Gerard Adriaan Heineken acquired the Hooiberg brewery in Amsterdam with a mission to perfect beer through quality, precision, and innovation. Inspired by Bavarian brewing, he expanded in 1873 with a second brewery in Rotterdam. Ever since we have meticulously upheld the quality standards of our beer through innovative packaging and cooling systems. All to keep brewing the perfect beer for moments of Dutch 'gezelligheid', true togetherness. Pioneering bottling and distinctive branding, including the red star and green label, reinforced its premium image. By the 1980s, Heineken® was a global powerhouse still crafting beer that is refreshing, approachable, and meticulously brewed.

On Texel, we do things the Texel way.

In a brewery too small to turn around in, on an island with more sheep than people, we brew a very special beer with a very special name: Skuumkoppe.

Since 1999, we've been brewing our beers here on the island – inspired by the salty sea breeze, pure ingredients, and the laid-back island life. As proud islanders, we like doing things our own way. Not because we have to, but simply because we don't spend too much time thinking about what's happening "across the water."

The Texelse Bierbrouwerij, like the people of Texel, is naturally headstrong yet always welcoming. Everyone is invited to visit our brewery, where we proudly share our craft. We warmly invite you to our island – but first, enjoy our beers.

OEDIPUS

OEDIPUS Since 2012 - Amsterdam

We are here to explore what else beer, and life, can be. Born from friendship and fueled by curiosity, Oedipus is a community of creators, thinkers, and drinkers who believe flavour is just the beginning.

We brew to discover, to disrupt, and to invite others into something unexpected. Whether it's a saison aged in passito barrels, turning kegs into instruments, or building an upside-down bar, we're not interested in the status quo. We're interested in what happens when we colour outside the lines.

Oedipus - crafted for the curious

Draft Beer

Mannenliefde

Saison | 6.0% vol

The first beer by Oedipus (2012). Brewed with lemongrass, Sichuan pepper, and Sorachi Ace hops. A fresh, fruity flavour with citrus notes. Dry and spicy, highly drinkable.
