Hands of Grace: The Catholic Sacraments in American Sign Language takes participants on an amazing journey as they learn the power and purpose of the sacraments, deepening their understanding of these signs of faith and their relationship with the Church.

Featuring videos of Father Seán Loomis presenting the sacraments in ASL, as well as a workbook designed with a visual emphasis to provide a more dynamic learning experience for deaf and hard-of-hearing Catholics.

Through seven sessions, participants will gain a deeper understanding of the sacraments and their Catholic Faith as they:

- Learn the story behind the sacraments.
- Discover the Church's teachings about the sacraments.
- Live out the abundant grace given to us in the sacraments.
