

BRAIN TEASERS

1. After a prank went wrong, a student was told, "If you tell a lie, you will get suspended; if you tell the truth, you will still get a detention." What could he say to avoid both?
2. How far can Jesus travel into the desert?
3. What do these three sentences have in common that is usually uncommon?
 - Saints don't punch animals.
 - A saint is a good Catholic.
 - It is unusual to think of a story about a Catholic saint who ran into a volcano.
4. What was given to you that others use more than you do, but that can't get used up?
5. What binds two people, is used by one, and is seen by all?
6. Speak its name aloud and it disappears. What is it?
7. Remove three letters from this sequence to reveal a famous saint: THAREUEGLUESTTTIERNSE
8. Sister Teresa bets Sister Mary that whatever Sister Mary can pull in a wagon halfway up a hill, she can pull all the way up the hill. How can Sister Mary win the bet?
9. How can you spell reconciliation using only five different letters?
10. What does a priest change daily, yet never looks different?