

Sundar G. Raman

Chief Executive Officer, Fabric & Home Care

Sundar is the Chief Executive Officer of Procter & Gamble’s largest business sector, Fabric & Home Care, which includes many of P&G’s most-iconic brands: Tide, Ariel, Downy, Gain, Febreze, Swiffer—and represents about one-third of total company sales and net earnings. In this role, Sundar is responsible for delivering top- and bottom-line growth through innovation (R&D), a synchronized E2E supply chain, brand-building and sales. An enthusiastic innovator and change instigator, Sundar transforms opportunities into inspiring results and energized organizations.

Sundar began his P&G career as a market analyst in India in 1998 and soon moved to the United States, where he worked in a variety of roles, from business intelligence to marketing, in P&G Beauty. In 2008, he joined NA Fabric Care to lead innovation and marketing, and in 2019 was appointed President, Fabric Care North America and P&G Professional, expanding his responsibilities to Global Home Care in 2020. A visionary leader with broad expertise and a passion for innovation, Sundar has led a sustained track record of great results, including NA Fabric Care’s unprecedented multi-year growth to record sales and profits, and the launch of key innovations such as Tide Pods and Downy Unstopables. He continues to shape the future of the business through initiatives such as the expansion into laundry services and the transformation of media planning and buying.

Committed to empowering people, Sundar fosters a magnetic culture built around learning to create capable, motivated organizations. He serves as Executive Sponsor for Equality & Inclusion for Fabric & Home Care and represents the company on the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center Board, reflecting his passion for diversity, inclusion and the company’s Citizenship agenda.
