SINCE 1969

Welcome to The Fine Wine Room

Will Lyons

Vice-President of The Sunday Times Wine Club and The Sunday Times wine columnist.

Whether you're just starting to explore the world of fine wine, restocking your collection or curious to taste more, come in and enjoy a magnificent selection of wines from some of the world's most sought-after producers. The Fine Wine Room made its Festival debut more than two decades ago and has been a major attraction ever since. Today we have a Grand Cru lineup to taste, including Taittinger's most prestigious cuvée, Comtes de Champagne, a Brunello di Montalcino from Antinori, and luscious, sweet wine from Royal Tokaji.

But we haven't overlooked the Southern Hemisphere, with a clutch of exciting producers including Henschke from Australia, Restless River from South Africa and New Zealand's Trinity Hill. There are also rare whiskies such as the rich and peaty Ardbeg. As an extra treat, I'll also be hosting two Masterclasses (details below). Come and join us as we'll be pouring a range of aged clarets, including Château Grand-Puy-Lacoste, and opening some of my favourite discoveries from my travels this year.

Wine is above all pleasure, and we very much hope you enjoy today's selection.

Will's Fine Wine Masterclasses

New Discoveries

Join Will as he pours some of his most exciting vinous discoveries from this year. During this 30-minute premium fine wine Masterclass, he'll share three wines from the Wine Route illustrating how the world of fine wine has moved beyond the vineyards of Europe's classic regions.

TIMINGS

Friday evening	6.45pm – 7.15pm
Saturday lunchtime	12.45pm – 1.15pm
Saturday evening	6.45pm – 7.15pm
Sunday lunchtime	12.45pm – 1.15pm

A Journey through Bordeaux

In this 30-minute premium Bordeaux Masterclass, Will shares more than 20 years' experience of visiting the greatest wine region of them all. Learn about its diverse wines, grand châteaux, rich history and cuisine through the lens of three different wines.
