The documents that make up your insurance contract

Your insurance contract consists of this policy document and your most recent policy schedule.

Your policy document and policy schedule are designed to be read together.

This policy document Your policy schedule Insurance contract

When read together, your policy schedule and policy document outline your cover, which is the insurance we agree to provide you. This cover is governed by the limits, terms and conditions set out within this policy document and your policy schedule.

Your policy schedule takes priority if the information in this policy document and your policy schedule is different.

We agree to provide cover as long as you have paid your premium.

Please contact us if you have any questions or need to request a copy of your most recent policy schedule.

This policy has standard and optional benefits

Your policy also has optional benefits. To receive these benefits, you have to choose them and you will need to pay an additional premium. Optional benefits will appear on your policy schedule.

You have a cooling-off period if you change your mind

We provide you with a 21-day cooling-off period if you change your mind. You can cancel your policy within 21 days from the day your policy started, as long as you have not made a claim.

If you choose to cancel your policy within this period, we will cancel your policy back to the policy start date and refund you the full amount of any premium paid. The cooling-off period does not apply if you renew your policy or if you have sold your vehicle.

If you have a concern

We value our customers and aim to deliver the best service possible. We also appreciate and encourage your feedback – the good and the bad. If you're unhappy with one of our policies, our service or a decision on your claim, please tell us. Often a quick conversation can help sort things out.

We have used the headings in this policy document to help guide you. These headings are purely descriptive in nature. You should not rely on headings to interpret the policy.

Words in italics have specific definitions

Some words in this policy document are in italics. These words have specific meanings. We have explained them in the 'Definitions' section at the end of this policy document on page 14.

Your vehicle is not covered when being used for any activities in connection with a profession, occupation or business.

If your policy schedule shows 'Business use'

If your policy schedule shows your vehicle is used for 'Business use', we will cover your vehicle when being used for the following:

- private or domestic purposes.

Unless we have agreed in writing, this policy does not cover your vehicle for carrying, hauling or towing stock, merchandise or hazardous chemicals in connection with any trade or business.

Limits on what we will pay

The most we will pay for any one event is the total of:

- the agreed value of your vehicle, if your claim is for fire or theft
- $20 million for your legal liability
- the maximum you are entitled to under the standard benefit 'Accidents with an uninsured third party' on page 7.

We will reduce the amount we pay by the total applicable excess and any other deductions set out in this policy.

Making a claim

This section explains what you need to do when you make a claim.

You must comply with all the following conditions

When you make a claim, there are specific conditions you must comply with.

What you must do immediately after an event

Immediately after an event, you or any driver must:

- take all reasonable steps to prevent further loss
- make a complaint to the police in the case of theft, burglary or vandalism, or the attempt at these
- tell us if you or any person covered by this policy is charged with any offence that has resulted in bodily injury.

What you must not do after an event

You must not do any of the following:

- admit liability
- incur any expense or negotiate, pay, settle, or make any agreement about any claim without our consent
- make any offer of reparation (including as part of any case management conference or sentencing hearing) without getting our consent in writing.

Information you must give us after an event

As soon as possible, you or any driver must tell us:

- that the event happened, giving full details and circumstances of what has happened, including details of everyone involved
- if any of your lost or stolen property is recovered.

Other conditions you must comply with after an event

As soon as possible, you or any driver must:

- get our permission before you incur any expense, other than the reasonable cost of urgent work to prevent further loss
- send us all relevant communications you receive
- make your vehicle available for inspection and assessment before any repairs are carried out
- keep damaged property for our inspection.

You must also provide us with the following:

- proof of ownership, which could include receipts, valuations, photos or financial statements
- any other information or evidence that we ask for.

What you must do to support the claims process

You must assist and co-operate with us, and give us any information or help we ask for about your claim.

You must also assist and co-operate with our assessors, investigators, lawyers or anyone else we appoint to help with your claim.

This includes all the following:

- activities associated with making your claim
- your claim settlement
- the defence of any potential claim against you
- any action against anyone else.

You must also allow us, at our expense and in your name, to:

- take any action necessary against any other party
- take over and conduct the defence and settlement of any claim against you.

What happens if you do not comply with any of the claims conditions

If you do not comply with any of the claims conditions, we can:

- decline your claim
- recover from you what we have already paid.

You must give full and accurate information when making a claim

We rely on the accuracy of the information that you, or anyone on your behalf, give us. When making a claim, you must provide full and accurate information.

You must also answer all questions we ask you honestly, correctly and completely.

You must answer our questions truthfully. We may refuse your claim if you provide any incorrect, incomplete or fraudulent information when you:

- make a claim
- answer any of our questions
- provide us with any information.

We may also end your policy and any other policy you have with us from the date you supplied false or misleading information or statements.

If we refuse your claim due to incorrect, incomplete or fraudulent information or statements, you must return any claim payments we have made to you.

You will have to pay an excess

You must pay an excess for each individual event. We may deduct your excess from the total settlement amount.

The circumstances of your claim determine the value of the excess you need to pay. You might have to pay more than one type of excess for each claim. Your policy schedule tells you the amount and types of excess.

If you claim under more than one policy with us for loss caused by a single event at the same location, you will only pay the excesses that are payable under one policy. These will be the excesses payable under the policy with the highest total applicable excess.

What we need to reimburse your excess

We will reimburse your excess for an event if you have paid your excess and all the following criteria are met:

- you give us the correct name and contact details of the other driver
- you give us the correct registration number of the other vehicle
- the person responsible confirms their involvement in the event
- we agree the driver of your vehicle was not at fault and did not contribute to the event.

If your claim is for theft, you must make a complaint to the police. Your complaint must result in the offender being charged before we can reimburse your excess. If you withdraw your complaint against the offender, you must repay the excess.

How we will settle your claim

This section explains how we will settle your claim.

We will choose to settle your claim in any of the following ways:

- Repairing your vehicle
- Paying the costs to repair your vehicle
- Paying your claim as a total loss.

Repairing your vehicle

This section discusses what happens if we choose to repair your vehicle.

When we choose to repair your vehicle

We can choose to repair your vehicle if it has been damaged, and we believe all the following:

- your vehicle can be repaired safely
- your vehicle is more cost-effective to repair than to pay the agreed value.

When we arrange to repair your vehicle, we will ensure it is repaired to a standard comparable to the condition of your vehicle immediately before the event. We will choose repairers from our group of AA Insurance repairers.

We will give you a lifetime repair guarantee

If your vehicle is repaired by one of our AA Insurance repairers, we guarantee the quality of workmanship, parts and materials used for your claim. This guarantee will remain in place while your vehicle is registered for road use in New Zealand.

If we repair your vehicle to a better condition

If the repairs will put your vehicle in a better condition than it was immediately before the event, we will discuss this with you before any repairs begin. If we agree to complete repairs that are unrelated to your claim, you must pay the extra costs.

When we repair or replace parts of your vehicle

We will decide whether damaged parts and accessories on your vehicle are repaired or replaced.

If we decide to replace parts on your vehicle, we will decide whether to use new, recycled or reconditioned parts. We will use original manufacturer branded parts, except for windscreens and window glass. When available, windscreens and window glass will be replaced with compatible aftermarket glass that meets all Australasian safety standards.

If we decide to replace accessories for your vehicle, we will replace accessories with the nearest equivalent item which is readily available in New Zealand. This item will have the same functions, characteristics and specifications as the damaged or stolen accessory, but will not necessarily be the same brand, price, model or colour.

You must let us take ownership of any parts or accessories we have replaced that have been damaged, lost, or that are stolen and recovered.

Paying the costs to repair your vehicle

We can choose to pay the cost to repair your vehicle to a standard comparable to the condition of your vehicle immediately before the event.

We will pay the lowest of the:

- reasonable cost of the repairs as estimated by our assessor
- amount we would have paid if we had arranged the repair ourselves.

We will not be responsible for the quality of workmanship provided by your repairer. We will not provide any guarantee relating to the repair.

For any part not available in New Zealand, the most we will pay is the lowest of the:

- manufacturer's last known list price in New Zealand
- price of the part's closest New Zealand equivalent
- cost of having a new part made in New Zealand.

We will not pay shipping or freight charges for parts that are sourced outside of New Zealand.

Paying the costs to repair or replace your vehicle's accessories

We can choose to pay the cost to repair or replace damaged or stolen accessories on your vehicle.

If we choose this option, we may pay you with cash, a voucher or a store credit for the repair cost or replacement value of any accessories.

The replacement value will be determined by the retail price of an item that is readily available in New Zealand with the same functions, characteristics and specifications as the damaged or stolen accessories. This value may take into account any discount to us from our suppliers.

Paying your claim as a total loss

We can choose to determine your vehicle as a total loss if we believe any of the following:

- it is not safe to repair the damage to your vehicle
- the cost of repairing your vehicle is more than the agreed value, or it is uneconomic to repair
- your vehicle has been stolen and has not been found within 10 days.

What happens when your vehicle is a total loss

If we have determined your vehicle as a total loss, we will choose to settle your claim in one of the following ways:

- paying the agreed value of your vehicle
- paying the agreed value or $4,000, whichever is the lowest value, if your vehicle is covered under the standard benefit 'Accidents with an uninsured third party' on page 7
- paying the market value if your vehicle is covered under the standard benefit 'Replacement vehicle cover' on page 7.

We will deduct your total applicable excess, and any on-road costs that are not fully paid or up to date, from your settlement payment.

Once your claim is settled, your vehicle, including all accessories and modifications, becomes our property. We will also be entitled to any refund of on-road costs. This includes when your vehicle is recovered after it has been stolen.

Your premium and policy when your claim is a total loss

When your claim is a total loss, you must pay the total premium for the entire period of insurance shown on your policy schedule in full before we can settle your claim. If you are paying your premium by instalments, we will deduct any unpaid instalments from your settlement payment.

Your policy will end on the date of the event, and you will not be able to claim on any subsequent event. You will not receive any refund of your premium.

Standard benefits – cover automatically included

Your cover automatically includes the following benefits. These benefits provide additional cover to what is included in 'What you are covered for' on page 3.

These benefits are subject to the limits, terms and conditions outlined in this policy document and your policy schedule.

Accidents with an uninsured third party

We will pay up to $4,000 if your vehicle has suffered a loss and all the following criteria are met:

- the damage was due to an accident caused by an uninsured third party
- you give us the correct name and contact details of the uninsured third party
- you give us the correct registration number of the other vehicle
- the uninsured third party confirms their involvement in the event
- we agree the driver of your vehicle was not at fault and did not contribute to the event.

Replacement vehicle cover

If you replace or trade in your vehicle, we will automatically insure your replacement vehicle under this policy for up to 30 days from the date of purchase.

You must do all the following to receive cover under this benefit:

- tell us within 30 days of the purchase date that you have replaced your vehicle
- pay any additional premium we require.

The most we will pay for any one event is the market value of your replacement vehicle.

The replacement vehicle will be insured under the same terms that apply to your vehicle.

Optional benefit – cover you may have chosen

You can choose to include the following benefit if you pay an additional premium. If you have chosen to include the following benefit, it will be shown on your policy schedule.

Excess-free glass cover

You do not have to pay an excess for claims for loss to your windscreen or window glass.

This benefit does not cover any of the following items:

- sunroofs, glass roofs, mirrors
- headlights, tail lights, lamp covers
- any other glass or transparent plastics on your vehicle
- the replacement of anything attached to the windscreen or window glass.

You will need to pay an excess if you make a claim for any of the items mentioned above, or if there is any other damage to your vehicle.

You are not covered under this benefit for any of the following:

- damage, wear, tear or deterioration to your vehicle that must be repaired to enable the glass to be fitted
- the replacement of any undamaged glass or parts of your vehicle in order to create a match.

Your legal liability

The most we will pay for legal liability is a total of $20 million for any one event.

If you have cover for your legal liability under any other insurance policy with us, you can only claim this benefit under one policy per event.

Property damage

We will pay up to $20 million for your legal liability for damage to other people's physical property arising from an event in New Zealand involving your vehicle during the period of insurance.

Your cover under 'Property damage' includes related legal costs and expenses that we agree to.

Bodily injury

We will pay up to $250,000 if you are ordered to pay a reparation order for bodily injury arising from an event in New Zealand involving your vehicle during the period of insurance.

You are not covered under 'Bodily injury' for any related legal costs and expenses.

Additional liability cover

We will also cover legal liability under 'Property damage' and 'Bodily injury' where:

- the event is caused by any trailer or caravan while attached to your vehicle
- the event is caused by items falling from your vehicle, or any trailer or caravan while attached to your vehicle
- another person is driving your vehicle with your consent, and is not otherwise excluded from the policy cover
- your vehicle is being driven with your permission for your employer's business
- you are using an uninsured motor vehicle that does not belong to you. This vehicle must not be hired, rented or leased. This policy does not cover any loss to the vehicle being driven. The exclusions and conditions outlined in this policy document will apply to the uninsured vehicle as if it was your vehicle.

What we do not cover under legal liability

You are not covered for any of the following:

- exemplary or punitive damages awarded against you
- legal defence costs, court costs and any levy, fine or penalty (other than a reparation order) arising from a prosecution of any offence under any Act of Parliament including regulations, rules or by-laws against you, your employer, or any person using your vehicle
- legal costs incurred by any other party that you agree to or are ordered to pay
- legal liability assumed by agreement, unless you would have been liable anyway or are ordered to pay
- any loss to property belonging to you, or in your care, custody or control, unless that property:

You may choose to cancel your policy if you do not agree to the changes to your policy terms, cover, limits or premium. If you cancel your policy, we will refund you any unused portion of your paid premium.

You must give full and accurate information

We rely on the accuracy of the information that you, or anyone on your behalf, give us. You must answer all questions we ask you honestly, correctly and completely.

If you give us any incorrect, incomplete or fraudulent information or statements, we may refuse your claim.

We may also end your policy and any other policy you have with us from the date you supplied false or misleading information or statements.

You must take reasonable care

You and any driver of your vehicle must take reasonable care:

- while driving or using your vehicle or any vehicle where liability for damage to other property is covered by this policy
- to avoid circumstances that could result in loss.

Your claim will not be covered if you or any driver are reckless, grossly irresponsible or grossly negligent.

You must maintain and secure your vehicle

You must, at your cost and expense, maintain your vehicle in good repair, secure your vehicle and take all reasonable precautions to prevent loss occurring.

You must not transfer your legal rights

You must not assign or transfer, or attempt to assign or transfer, this policy or your interest in this policy to any other party.

Cancelling your policy

This section discusses what happens if you choose, or if we choose, to cancel your policy.

If you choose to cancel your policy

You may cancel this policy at any time, unless you have made a claim for a total loss.

If you cancel your policy outside the cooling-off period and you have not made a claim, we will refund you any amount we owe after the cancellation date.

If we choose to cancel your policy

We may cancel your policy at any time by notifying you in writing. The cancellation will take effect on the 7th day after we have sent the notice. We will refund you any amount we owe after the cancellation date.

How we administer your policy

This section gives you useful information about how we administer your policy.

Paying your premium on time

If your premium is overdue, we may refuse to make any claim payments until your overdue premium has been paid.

We may reduce the period of insurance in line with the proportion of the unpaid premium if either of the following occur:

- you make a change to your policy that results in us charging an additional premium, and you don't pay this premium
- you do not pay the full amount of your premium.

If your premium remains unpaid

If your premium remains unpaid for 28 days, your policy will automatically be cancelled. You will not be sent a cancellation notice.

How you will receive our documents

We will send any notice, policy schedule or other written documents to your last known physical, postal or email address.

If your policy schedule shows an 'Interested party'

An interested party is not covered by this policy and cannot make a claim under this policy.

You give us permission to share your information with anyone noted as an 'Interested party' on your policy schedule. We may partially or fully settle your claim by making a payment to an interested party, fulfilling our obligations under this policy.

What happens when you are jointly insured

All people listed as 'Who's insured' on your policy schedule are jointly insured and considered to act on behalf of each other. Actions done by one person can affect the cover for any of the people listed on your policy schedule. We will not cover any people listed on your policy schedule if any one of them act in a way that results in no cover.

Each person listed under 'Who's insured' on your policy schedule has the right to:

- make a change to the policy
- make a claim under the policy
- receive claim proceeds under the policy
- cancel the policy.
