 Selah—LUKE 12:33-34

“Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Provide purses for yourselves that will not wear out, a treasure in heaven that will never fail, where no thief comes near, and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

Our possessions don't last. The house, the car, the holiday, the outfit, they won't last. They won't bring the joy that we so desperately seek. Rather than storing our treasures in memento boxes, Jesus tells us to hold our treasure in heaven.

Not in bigger barns, not in clothing, or cars or superannuation, but in heaven. Because it's only there that our purse cannot wear out. Only there that the thief cannot come near, or the moth destroy. Only there that we can find lasting joy.

When you think of the word treasure, what images come to mind?

Dear Jesus,

Help our family to think about where our treasure is. What have we been storing up that we should have been giving away? Help us to be rich towards you and open our hearts to those who are in need. Amen.
