Selah—ISAIAH 25:6

“On this mountain, the Lord Almighty will prepare a feast of rich food for all peoples, a banquet of aged wine—the best of meats and the finest of wines.”

The COVID-19 pandemic has impacted us all, and it has not spared the children we serve. It has, however, enabled us to think differently about the way that we serve one another.

Like nine-year-old Keysha from Emaus Child Development Centre in Indonesia was inspired by scripture. When she heard the Bible story of Jesus who was feeding 5000 people with only five loaves of bread and two fish, she was compelled with hope to help others. Keysha aimed to help elderly people and orphans in her community, asking friends to contribute five handfuls of rice. Sometimes it just takes a simple idea to reframe the small things that become revolutionary. God delights in responding with hope.

As we go on this journey together, the prophet Isaiah invites us to the table to sit with Christ and feast.

How can we sit at the table together and start conversations?

Dear Jesus,

This year has been one full of much change, loss and transition. Help us to find ways to laugh, smile and celebrate you well as we move towards a New Year. May we find new songs and new ways to lean towards your hope. Thank you for the invitation to sit with you and feast. To taste and see that the Lord is good. Amen.
