

Schedule Status, Weekend Test Details, and Certification Plans

Schedule Status

As noted last week, the Exchange will make test securities available on our production system beginning April 24, with the gradual phase-in of non-test securities anticipated to begin on May 15. See MA-2020-006 for further detail. The Exchange remains on track and we will continue to monitor developments on a weekly basis.

Details for Saturday, March 28, Weekend Test

On Saturday, March 28, 2020, the Connectivity and Market Data Event will allow participants to integrate the Exchange into their production environments. Event participants should expect to:

- Connect their production sessions to LTSE using their designated credentials
- View market data specific to LTSE on the SIPs
- Enter orders on the Exchange

See MA-2020-007 for further details.

Certification Plans

The exchange will be offering an automated certification process which can be accessed on April 13. More details to come in future Market Announcements.
