

Test symbols launching August 3 and additional weekend tests

Beginning Monday, August 3, Long-Term Stock Exchange will support trading of test symbols in its production environment during system hours. Member firms will be able to submit orders to the Exchange during pre-market, regular, and post-market sessions. LTSE quotes and trades in the test symbols below will be identified on the SIPs under the "L" quote.

As we continue to ensure industry preparedness in connection with the commencement of Exchange operations, LTSE will offer additional weekend testing opportunities on Saturday, August 1, and Saturday, August 8.

Our assessment of a phase-in schedule for non-test symbols is ongoing and we will provide updates to the industry in future market announcements.
