

Update - Schedule Status, Weekend Test Details, and Certification Plans

Schedule Status

The Exchange is continuing plans to make test securities available on our production system beginning April 24, with the gradual phase-in of non-test securities anticipated to begin on May 15. See MA-2020-006 for further detail. As previously stated, we are closely monitoring industry readiness as we prepare to commence trading. We plan to continue issuing periodic updates as the situation progresses.
