

Saturday, July 18 Weekend Simulated Trading Event Details

On Saturday July 18, beginning at 8am, participants will have the opportunity to connect to the LTSE production environment and test production functionality and settings. Participants in the Simulated Trading Event should expect to:

- Connect to their production sessions using their designated credentials
- View market data specific to LTSE on the SIPs
- Enter orders to the Exchange (Limit, MKT, IOC and ISO)

LTSE will have a full load of symbols in the system. In order to concentrate trading, members can expect activity in the symbols below:

Equity
GOOGL	CAG	UHN	HACK
INTC	K	SKX	RESP
CSCO	PANW	LEVI	IPAY
ZVZZT	XOMA	MSGE	ESGV
NTEST	PTEST	ATEST	ZTEST

There will be no script for this Simulated Trading Event and prices will closely reflect ranges from the previous day.

During weekdays leading up to the event, participants will have the ability to establish their connections during normal market hours as a pre-test production connectivity check.

The Event Timeline and Industry Market Data support on July 18 will be the same as on previous test dates.
