

LTSE Production Securities Phase-in Planned for August 28

Long-Term Stock Exchange plans to begin phase-in of production securities on Friday, August 28. On that date, LTSE will make two production securities available in the system: YELP and SPWR. The production securities phase-in process will be conducted over a two week period. LTSE quotes in securities that are available will be protected and will be identified on the SIPs under the “L” quote.

As we continue to ensure and support member readiness, the Exchange will conduct weekend tests on Saturday August 15, and Saturday August 22.

Production Phase-in Schedule:

Date	Event
Friday, August 28	Two production securities available (YELP & SPWR)
Wednesday, September 2	Russell 2000 Index securities
Friday, September 4	S&P 500 securities
Wednesday, September 9	All securities
