HOTEL THE MITSUI KYOTO Unveils Exclusive Afternoon Tea Experience with Café Kitsuné

Kyoto, Japan – HOTEL THE MITSUI KYOTO is thrilled to announce the first ever hotel collaboration with renowned Café Kitsuné, the coffee shop born out of the Paris lifestyle brand, Maison Kitsuné. This partnership brings forth a distinctly themed Afternoon Tea, available for a limited time from January 15 to March 14, 2024.

Guests at HOTEL THE MITSUI KYOTO are invited to embark on a sensory journey featuring a charmant menu curated for this collaboration. Those enjoying can begin with a refreshing Yame-cha tea; savor the Religieuse Matcha, a traditional French pastry infused with Japanese green tea; and sample the Dorayaki Café, a unique sweet sandwich filled with special coffee cream. The menu also boasts savory delights, such as Kyoto pork and strawberry croissants, delivering an authentic Parisian experience.

Among the highlights are three variations of the brand’s playful fox mascot – or Sablé Kitsuné – including an exclusive cheese flavor available only at HOTEL THE MITSUI KYOTO. The experience is complemented by specialty coffee sourced from a roaster in Okayama and original mocktails.

Two seatings are available at 12:00PM and 2:30PM, each lasting approximately two hours, with the following pairing options:

- Two types of freshly brewed coffee or tea drinks included (¥7,100)
- 20 drinks offered with a wider range of beverages, including Café Kitsuné’s specialty coffee and original mocktails (¥7,700)

On January 15 only, the first patrons to order Afternoon Tea will receive a limited number of Café Kitsuné original products (available on a first-come, first-served basis).

Maison Kitsuné seamlessly blends fashion, music, and now, culinary artistry. This collaboration at HOTEL THE MITSUI KYOTO invites you to experience the vibrant fusion of these cultures in every bite.
