

DermaLab Aesthetic

DermaLab Aesthetic demonstrates measurable improvements and its objective data strengthens both professional guidance and the client's perceived results.

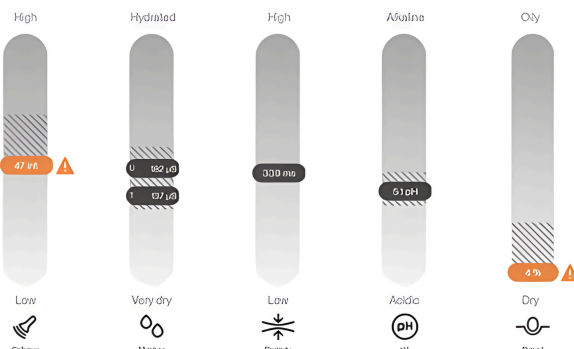

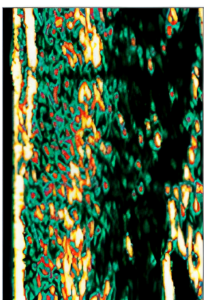

Case study - female 53 years

Before treatment

This case demonstrates the physiological skin changes observed after two weeks of consistent use of the complete Circadia home care regimen

After treatment

Sebum levels were reduced due to endocrine disorder. However, hydration, elasticity and pH demonstrated clear improvements