In the event that Trimble does not receive any Entries which adhere to these Official Rules or which Trimble deems sufficient to garner an Open Competition Prize, Trimble in its sole discretion may withhold any or all Open Competition Prizes.

Trimble will provide a Finalist confirmation letter to support the visa application upon request. A bona fide denial of a U.S. visa application, made in good faith by the Finalist, will be treated as an event of "inability to travel" under these Official Rules.

Grand Prize

Each Open Competition Finalist will be required to give two (2) live presentations to audiences consisting of 3D Basecamp and Trimble Dimensions attendees. All presentations must be delivered in English. #### Local Tax Treatment of Prize Income – Latin American Grand Prize Winners:

The following country-specific tax disclosures apply. All taxes are the sole responsibility of the winner. Latin American Entrants are strongly encouraged to seek independent tax advice from a locally qualified tax professional.

- Brazil: Prize income (prêmios) received by Brazilian residents from foreign-source competitions is subject to Imposto de Renda Retido na Fonte (IRRF) at a rate of 30% under Art. 676 of the Regulamento do Imposto de Renda (RIR/2018, Decreto n.º 9.580/2018), where the payer is a non-resident entity. The USD "Grand Prize" valued at $1,000 is expected to trigger withholding obligations. Brazilian winners should consult a contador (CRC-registered accountant) and may be required to declare the income in their Declaração de Ajuste Anual (IRPF). Trimble will issue applicable U.S. tax forms as described below.
- Mexico: Prize income received by Mexican residents is subject to Impuesto Sobre la Renta (ISR) under the Ley del ISR (Art. 90 and Art. 167 for prizes won in competitions). The applicable rate varies based on total annual income. The U.S.–Mexico income tax treaty (Treaty of 1992, as amended) may reduce the applicable U.S. withholding rate; Mexican winners should provide IRS Form W-8BEN and consult a contador público certificado (CPC).
- Argentina: Prize income received by Argentine residents may be subject to Impuesto a las Ganancias under the Ley de Impuesto a las Ganancias (Ley n.º 20.628 and amendments). Argentine winners should consult a contador público nacional (CPN) registered with the applicable Consejo Profesional de Ciencias Económicas.
- Colombia: Prize income received by Colombian residents may be subject to Impuesto sobre la Renta y Complementarios under the Estatuto Tributario (Arts. 304–306 for lottery and competition prizes). Colombian winners should consult a contador público titulado registered with the Junta Central de Contadores.
- Chile: Prize income received by Chilean residents from competition prizes may be subject to Impuesto a la Renta under the Ley sobre Impuesto a la Renta (D.L. n.º 824) and the Impuesto Único de Segunda Categoría as applicable. Chilean winners should consult a contador auditor registered with the Colegio de Contadores de Chile.

Tax Documentation – Latin American Finalists and Grand Prize Winners:

Non-U.S. Open Competition Finalists and Grand Prize Winners residing in Latin American jurisdictions shall be required to complete and submit IRS Form W-8BEN (Certificate of Foreign Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding and Reporting — Individuals) in lieu of a W-9 form, to certify their foreign status for U.S. federal tax withholding purposes. Prize payments to non-U.S. recipients may be subject to U.S. federal income tax withholding at a rate of up to 30% pursuant to Sections 871 and 1441 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code, subject to any applicable reduction under a U.S. income tax treaty. The United States maintains an income tax treaty with Mexico (Treaty of 1992, as amended) that may reduce the applicable withholding rate for Mexican residents; no such treaty currently exists with Brazil, Argentina, Colombia, or Chile, and the full 30% withholding rate may therefore apply to residents of those countries.

ALL TAXES, FEES, AND ANY APPLICABLE WITHHOLDING AND REPORTING REQUIREMENTS — INCLUDING LOCAL INCOME TAX OBLIGATIONS IN THE ENTRANT'S COUNTRY OF RESIDENCE — ARE THE SOLE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE OPEN

COMPETITION FINALIST / GRAND PRIZE WINNER. Latin American Entrants are strongly encouraged to seek independent tax advice regarding the local tax treatment of any Prize received.

Unclaimed Prizes – Brazil:

In accordance with Law No. 5,768/1971 and Federal Decree No. 70,951/1972, any Prize not claimed by a Brazilian winner within the applicable statutory period shall be donated to designated social causes as required by applicable Brazilian regulations. The general provision that "any unclaimed Prizes will not be awarded" does not apply to Brazilian participants; unclaimed Brazilian prizes shall be disposed of in accordance with Brazilian law.

No substitution, assignment, or transfer of any Prize is permitted, except by Trimble, which reserves the right to substitute the Prize or any Prize component with another of comparable or greater value.

9. General Conditions

These Official Rules are governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, United States, without regard to its conflict of law principles, except as follows:

- Brazil: To the extent that Brazilian mandatory consumer protection law, including the Código de Defesa do Consumidor (CDC, Lei n.º 8.078/1990), applies to Brazilian Entrants, such mandatory law shall apply and prevail over these Official Rules to the extent of any inconsistency. Brazilian constitutional guarantees, including the right of access to the judiciary (Constituição Federal, Art. 5.º, XXXV), cannot be excluded by any contractual provision.
- Mexico: Mexican mandatory consumer protection law, including the Ley Federal de Protección al Consumidor (LFPC), applies to Mexican Entrants and prevails over these Official Rules to the extent of any conflict. Mexican Entrants retain the right to submit disputes to PROFECO and the applicable courts of Mexico regardless of the governing law chosen herein.
- Argentina: Argentine mandatory consumer protection law, including the Ley de Defensa del Consumidor (Ley n.º 24.240 and amendments), applies to Argentine Entrants and prevails over these Official Rules to the extent of any conflict. Any clause that limits, exempts, or attenuates Trimble's liability to Argentine consumers, or that implies a waiver of consumer rights, shall be deemed not written (se tendrá por no convenida) pursuant to Art. 37 of Law No. 24.240.
- Colombia: Colombian mandatory consumer protection law, including the Estatuto del Consumidor (Ley n.º 1480 de 2011), applies to Colombian Entrants and prevails over these Official Rules to the extent of any conflict. Abusive clauses as defined in Arts. 42 and 43 of Law No. 1480/2011 are ineffective as a matter of law.

- Chile: Chilean mandatory consumer protection law, including the Ley de Protección de los Derechos de los Consumidores (Ley n.º 19.496 and amendments), applies to Chilean Entrants and prevails over these Official Rules to the extent of any conflict. Consumer rights under that law are non-waivable pursuant to Art. 4 of Law No. 19.496.

All applicable federal, state, local, and national laws and regulations of the Entrant's country of residence apply.

By submitting an Entry, Entrant agrees to be bound by the terms of these Official Rules and by the decisions of Trimble, which are final and binding on all matters pertaining to this Competition, subject to mandatory local consumer protection law. Return of any Prize or Prize notification may result in disqualification and selection of an alternate winner.

Eligibility Documentation – Latin American Finalists:

Potential Prize winners may be required to sign and return a Declaration of Eligibility (referred to in these Official Rules as a "Declaration of Eligibility"), a Liability/Publicity Release, and the applicable tax form (IRS Form W-8BEN for Latin American Finalists), and to provide any additional information or documentation required by Trimble within thirty (30) days following the date of first attempted notification (or fifteen (15) business days for Latin American Finalists, whichever is longer). Latin American Open Competition Finalists may execute any required Declaration of Eligibility before a notary public in their country of residence (cartório in Brazil; notario público in Mexico, Argentina, Colombia, or Chile), and Trimble will accept such declarations executed in accordance with local notarial requirements. Failure to comply within the applicable time period may result in disqualification and selection of an alternate winner.

Intellectual Property:

The intellectual and industrial property rights to each Entry, if any, will remain with the Entrant submitting such Entry, except that these terms do not supersede any other assignment or grant of rights pursuant to any other separate agreements between Entrant and other parties. As a condition of entry, Entrant agrees that Trimble shall have the right to use, copy, modify, and make available the Entry to the public via Trimble's websites for any purpose, including but not limited to advertising and promotion of the Competition using screenshots, animations, and Entry clips. This license does not affect the Entrant's inalienable moral rights (direitos morais / derechos morales) in their work as recognized under the intellectual property laws of the Entrant's country of residence, including Brazil's Lei de Direitos Autorais (Law No. 9,610/1998, Arts. 24–27), Mexico's Ley Federal del Derecho de Autor (Art. 21), Argentina's Law No. 11,723 (Art. 51), Colombia's Law No. 23/1982 and Andean Community Decision 351 (Art. 30), and Chile's Law No. 17,336 (Art. 16). Moral rights are perpetual, inalienable, and non-waivable in all five jurisdictions.

Acceptance of a Prize constitutes permission for, and each winner's consent to, Trimble's and its agencies' use of winner's name and/or likeness and Entry for advertising and promotional purposes without additional compensation, unless prohibited by applicable local law.

Trimble is not responsible for any typographical or other error in the printing of these Official Rules, administration of the Competition, or in the announcement of the Prizes. In the event a winner's or potential winner's employer has a policy that prohibits the awarding of a Prize to an employee, the Prize will be forfeited and an alternate winner may be selected. Each Entrant certifies that their Entry is original, that they are the sole and exclusive owner and rights holder of the submitted Entry, and that they have the right to submit the Entry in the Competition. Each Entrant represents that their Entry does not and will not: (1) infringe any third-party proprietary, intellectual property, industrial property, personal, or other rights, including without limitation copyright, trademark, patent, trade secret, or confidentiality obligation; (2) contain lewd, obscene, or pornographic content; or (3) otherwise violate applicable law in any countries in the world.

10. Media Activity

By participating in this Competition, Entrant agrees and hereby grants Trimble permission to use, copy, modify, and make available Entrant's Entry to the public (with or without attribution to Entrant) for any purpose, including but not limited to press and media communications, without further compensation to Entrant. Entrant also agrees to participate in any media or promotional activity regarding the Competition.

If Entrant is a winner of the Competition, Entrant expressly consents to Trimble's use of Entrant's name, image, photograph, voice, and likeness to administer and promote the Competition and to conduct media interviews and promotional events, to the extent permitted by and in accordance with applicable local law in Entrant's country of residence. This consent is granted freely and with full knowledge of its scope, consistent with the following applicable laws:

- Brazil: Lei Geral de Proteção de Dados (LGPD, Law No. 13,709/2018, Art. 7(I) — consent as legal basis for processing); Lei de Direitos Autorais (Law No. 9,610/1998, Art. 49 — image licensing); and the Civil Code (Art. 20 — protection of image rights). Brazilian Entrants who become Finalists or winners will be required to execute a separate written consent form (termo de autorização de uso de imagem) specifically authorizing Trimble's use of their image, voice, and likeness for promotional purposes, as required under LGPD Art. 7(I) and the Civil Code, before any such use is made.
- Mexico: Ley Federal de Protección de Datos Personales en Posesión de los Particulares (LFPDPPP, 2010) — image constitutes personal data where it identifies or makes identifiable an individual; use for secondary promotional purposes requires specific consent under LFPDPPP Art. 8. Mexican Entrants who become Finalists or winners will be required to provide specific, separate written consent for the use of their image and likeness for promotional purposes before any such use is made.

- Argentina: Civil and Commercial Code (Código Civil y Comercial de la Nación, Ley n.º 26,994, Art. 53) — the image of a person may not be captured, reproduced, or published without their consent. Argentine Finalists and winners will be required to execute a separate written autorización de uso de imagen before any commercial or promotional use of their image is made.
- Colombia: Law No. 1581/2012 (Ley de Protección de Datos Personales) — image constitutes personal data; use requires specific authorization of the data subject. Colombian Finalists and winners will be required to provide separate, written authorization for the use of their image and likeness for promotional purposes before any such use is made.
- Chile: Law No. 21,719 (2024) — image constitutes personal data where it enables identification of the individual; processing for promotional purposes requires the consent of the data subject. Chilean Finalists and winners will be required to execute a separate written consent form for the use of their image and likeness for promotional purposes before any such use is made.

Entrants selected as Finalists or winners may be required to execute a separate image rights release in the form required by applicable local law before any commercial or promotional use of their image or likeness is made.

11. No Recourse to Judicial or Other Procedures:

Trimble encourages Entrants to contact Trimble first to resolve any dispute informally by contacting Education@sketchup.com (Subject line: "Competition Dispute – [Country]"). Trimble will use reasonable efforts to resolve any dispute in good faith within a reasonable time.

Mandatory Consumer Rights Preserved – All Latin American Entrants: Notwithstanding anything in these Official Rules, nothing in this Section 11 shall be construed to waive, limit, or restrict any right of an Entrant to seek recourse through applicable consumer protection bodies, tribunals, or courts of competent jurisdiction as conferred by mandatory law in the Entrant's country of residence. The following mandatory consumer redress rights are expressly preserved:

- Brazil: The right of access to the judiciary is guaranteed by Art. 5.º, XXXV of the Federal Constitution of Brazil and cannot be excluded by any contractual clause. Brazilian Entrants may seek resolution of consumer disputes before the Juizados Especiais do Consumidor (Consumer Special Courts) without the need for legal representation for claims up to 20 minimum wages. Complaints may also be submitted to the PROCON of the relevant state or to the Secretaria Nacional do Consumidor (SENACON). The portal consumidor.gov.br is available for online consumer dispute resolution.
- Mexico: Mexican Entrants retain the right not to waive their consumer rights under the LFPC; to submit complaints or claims to the Procuraduría Federal del Consumidor

(PROFECO) at www.profeco.gob.mx | Tel: 800 468 8722; and to access the PROFECO conciliation and arbitration procedure in the event of a dispute.

- Argentina: Argentine Entrants enjoy all rights conferred by the Ley de Defensa del Consumidor (Ley n.º 24.240 and amendments), which are of public order and cannot be waived or limited by contract. Complaints or inquiries may be directed to the Dirección Nacional de Defensa del Consumidor (www.argentina.gob.ar/produccion/defensadelconsumidor) or to the relevant provincial consumer protection authority.
- Colombia: Colombian Entrants enjoy all rights conferred by the Estatuto del Consumidor (Ley n.º 1480 de 2011) and may submit claims to the Superintendencia de Industria y Comercio (SIC) at www.sic.gov.co. Entrants may also access the Red Nacional de Protección al Consumidor for dispute resolution.

To the extent any provision of these Official Rules purports to exclude, restrict, or modify any right of judicial or administrative recourse that cannot be lawfully excluded under mandatory consumer protection law in an Entrant's country of residence, such provision is void to that extent and such mandatory rights are expressly preserved.

3. Binding Agreement

In order to enter the Competition, you must agree to these Official Rules. Please read these Official Rules prior to entry to ensure you understand and agree to them. Submission of an Entry in the Competition constitutes your agreement to these Official Rules. You may not submit an Entry, and you are not eligible to receive any Prize, unless you agree to these Official Rules. These Official Rules form a binding legal agreement between you and Trimble with respect to the Competition.

Mandatory Consumer Protection Provision – All Asia-Pacific Entrants: Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Official Rules, to the extent that any provision of these Official Rules conflicts with mandatory consumer protection, fair trading, or data protection laws applicable in your country of residence — including Australia's Australian Consumer Law (Schedule 2 to the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth)); Japan's Act against Unjustifiable Premiums and Misleading Representations and the Consumer Contract Act (消費者契約法, Act No. 61 of 2000); South Korea's Act on the Consumer Protection in Electronic Commerce and the Act on Fair Labeling and Advertising; Singapore's Consumer Protection (Fair Trading) Act 2003; India's Consumer Protection Act, 2019; and New Zealand's Fair Trading Act 1986 and Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 — such mandatory local law provisions shall prevail over these Official Rules to the extent of that conflict. Governing Language: In the event of any inconsistency between the English version of these Official Rules and any translation or local-language summary provided herein, the English version shall prevail, except to the extent that applicable mandatory local law in an Entrant's country of residence requires that a local-language version prevails or that disclosures be made in the local language. Translated summaries provided in these Official Rules for Japanese and Korean residents are provided for convenience; the English text controls except where mandatory local law requires otherwise.

4. Eligibility

The Competition is open to individuals who are 21 years of age or older and are enrolled in a degree- or certificate-seeking program at a government-recognized institution of higher learning (as further defined below for Asia-Pacific residents) at the time of Competition entry (such individual, "Entrant" or "You").

Japan – Age Note: The minimum age requirement of 21 years for this Competition is set by Trimble as a competition design parameter and is not a requirement of Japanese law. Japan's legal age of majority is 18 years (Civil Code (民法), as amended effective April 1, 2022). Japanese residents aged 18–20 are not eligible to participate in this Competition.

Employees and agents of Trimble, its affiliates, subsidiaries, and any entity involved in the development, production, implementation, or fulfillment of the Competition, and the immediate family members (defined as parents, children, siblings, spouse, and — for Asia-Pacific residents — partners in a legally recognized domestic or de facto relationship as described below) and persons living in the same household as such individuals are not eligible to participate.

You must have access to the Internet and a valid email address in order to enter. Participants, winners, and finalists of prior SketchUp competitions are eligible to compete. By entering the Competition, you affirm that the work underlying your Entry is original and not a copy or recreation of the work of a third party.

5. How To Enter

The Competition begins at 12:01 p.m. Pacific Daylight Time (PDT) on April 6th, 2026 and ends at 11:59 p.m. PDT on July 20th, 2026 (the "Competition Period").

To enter, fill out the Competition entrance form at the SketchUp Ascent Competition Application and submit your creative work as directed by the entrance form (the "Entry," and collectively, "Entries"). In order to be eligible for a Prize, your Entry must be modeled primarily using SketchUp.

Only eligible Entries actually received by Trimble before the end of the Competition Period will be considered. All Entries must represent the original work of the Entrant and may not have been previously published or sold. Only one Entry is allowed per Entrant. If multiple Entries are submitted by an Entrant, only the last Entry submitted within the Competition Period will be judged. The submission of an Entry is solely the responsibility of the Entrant. Automated Entries (including but not limited to entries submitted using any bot, script, macro, or Competition service), copies, third-party Entries, facsimiles, and/or mechanical reproductions are not permitted and will be disqualified.

6. Conduct

By entering the Competition, you agree to comply with and be bound by these Official Rules, which will be posted at the Competition website throughout the Competition Period. Failure to comply with the Official Rules may result in disqualification. You further agree to comply with and be bound by the decisions of the Judges, which are final and binding in all respects, subject to applicable mandatory local consumer protection law.

Trimble reserves the right, in its sole discretion (exercised in good faith consistent with applicable mandatory consumer protection law, including Australia's ACL ss. 18 and 29; Japan's Consumer Contract Act; South Korea's Act on Fair Labeling and Advertising; Singapore's Consumer Protection (Fair Trading) Act; India's Consumer Protection Act, 2019; and New Zealand's Fair Trading Act 1986, s. 9), to disqualify any Entrant found to be:

1. Tampering or attempting to tamper with the entry process or the operation of the Competition;
2. Violating the Official Rules;
3. Violating the terms of service, conditions of use, or general rules or guidelines of any Trimble property or service; or
4. Acting in an unsportsmanlike or disruptive manner, or with the intent to annoy, abuse, threaten, or harass any other person.

Any false information provided within the context of the Competition by any Entrant concerning identity, postal address, or ownership of rights in the Entry, and/or non-compliance with these Official Rules, may result in the immediate elimination of the Entrant from the Competition. Trimble further reserves the right to disqualify any Entry that it believes, in its sole discretion, could or does infringe upon or violate the rights of any third party or otherwise does not comply with these Official Rules.

CAUTION: ANY ATTEMPT BY AN ENTRANT OR ANY OTHER INDIVIDUAL TO DELIBERATELY DAMAGE ANY WEBSITE OR UNDERMINE THE LEGITIMATE OPERATION OF THE COMPETITION MAY BE A VIOLATION OF CRIMINAL AND CIVIL LAWS, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION: AUSTRALIA'S CRIMINAL CODE ACT 1995 (CTH), PART 10.7 (COMPUTER OFFENSES); JAPAN'S ACT ON PROHIBITION OF UNAUTHORIZED COMPUTER ACCESS (不正アクセス行為の禁止等に関する法律, ACT NO. 128 OF 1999); SOUTH KOREA'S ACT ON PROMOTION OF INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK UTILIZATION AND INFORMATION PROTECTION (정보통신망 이용촉진 및 정보보호 등에 관한 법률); SINGAPORE'S COMPUTER MISUSE ACT 1993 (2022 REVISED EDITION); INDIA'S INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY ACT, 2000 (SECTIONS 43, 66, AND 66B); AND NEW ZEALAND'S CRIMES ACT 1961 (SECTIONS 249–252, AS AMENDED BY THE CRIMES AMENDMENT ACT 2003). SHOULD SUCH AN ATTEMPT BE MADE, TRIMBLE RESERVES THE RIGHT TO SEEK DAMAGES FROM ANY SUCH PERSON TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW.

7. Judging

Each Entry will be judged by a panel of SketchUp experts selected by Trimble in its sole discretion ("Judges"). Each Entry will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

- Modeling skill: Submission is an original project primarily modeled within SketchUp, displaying a mastery of 3D modeling.
- Creativity: Submission should be unique and compelling. The concept driving your work should reflect originality in design and execution.
- Overall aesthetic: Submission should create a sense of dynamism and thoughtfulness, making sure no elements are neglected. Your work should be beautiful, and the documents that communicate your work should be, too.
- Project narrative: Submission should clearly communicate your design intent.
- Alignment to area of study: In alignment with your topic, the submission should display knowledge of industry standards. Project topics can include but are not limited to architectural, interior, or landscape design, construction, and engineering. Judges evaluating Asia-Pacific Entries will consider alignment with regional industry standards and higher education practices in the relevant field.

Judges will evaluate and attribute a score to each Entry based upon the above criteria. Up to three Entries will be chosen as finalists (the "Open Competition Finalists"). In the event of a tie, the Entry with the highest score in "Creativity" will be selected. In the event of a secondary tie, the Entry with the higher score in "Modeling Skill" will be selected. In the event of a third tie, the Entry with the higher score in "Overall Aesthetic" will be selected. In the event a potential Open Competition Finalist is disqualified, the Entry with the next highest total score may be chosen as the replacement in Trimble's sole discretion.

On or about August 3rd, 2024, each Open Competition Finalist will be notified by international telephone and/or email, at Trimble's discretion. Asia-Pacific Open Competition Finalists will have ten (10) days from the date of first notification attempt to respond, in recognition of international communication realities, time zone differences, and local public holiday schedules. If an Open Competition Finalist does not respond within this period, such Finalist will be disqualified, and an alternate will be selected from the remaining Entrants based on the judging criteria described herein. Determinations of Judges are final and binding, subject to applicable mandatory local consumer protection law. In the event that Trimble does not receive any Entries which adhere to these Official Rules or which Trimble deems sufficient to garner an Open Competition Prize, Trimble in its sole discretion may withhold any or all Open Competition Prizes.

8. Prizes

Australian Consumer Law — Statutory Guarantees: To the extent required by the Australian Consumer Law (ACL, Schedule 2 to the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth)) and equivalent state and territory fair trading legislation, Trimble does not exclude, restrict, or modify any guarantee, condition, warranty, right, or remedy that cannot lawfully be excluded, restricted, or modified. Where the ACL applies, Trimble's liability for failure to comply with a consumer guarantee is limited (to the extent permitted by law) to resupply of the relevant services or payment of the cost of resupply. Nothing in these Official Rules is intended to exclude, restrict, or modify the operation of the ACL.

New Zealand Consumer Guarantees Act: To the extent required by the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 (NZ), Trimble does not exclude any guarantee or right that cannot lawfully be excluded under that Act. Trimble's liability for a failure to comply with a guarantee under the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 is not excluded or limited by these Official Rules.

Travel Documentation and U.S. Visa — Asia-Pacific Finalists:

If traveling internationally to attend 3D Basecamp 2026, an Open Competition Finalist must have a passport or other acceptable documentation valid for at least three months after the date of entry into the United States of America.

Asia-Pacific Finalists who require a U.S. nonimmigrant visa to enter the United States are encouraged to apply promptly upon notification of Finalist status:

- Australia and New Zealand: Nationals of Australia and New Zealand are eligible to travel to the United States under the Visa Waiver Program (VWP) using an Electronic System for Travel Authorization (ESTA) approval. Finalists must ensure their ESTA is valid before travel.
- Japan and South Korea: Nationals of Japan and South Korea are eligible to travel to the United States under the Visa Waiver Program (VWP) using ESTA approval. Finalists must ensure their ESTA is valid before travel.
- Singapore: Singaporean nationals are eligible to travel to the United States under the Visa Waiver Program (VWP) using ESTA approval. Finalists must ensure their ESTA is valid before travel.

Indian Finalists are strongly encouraged to apply for a U.S. visa promptly upon notification of Finalist status.

Trimble will provide a Finalist confirmation letter to support any visa or ESTA application upon request. A bona fide denial of a U.S. visa application, made in good faith by an Indian Finalist, will be treated as an event of "inability to travel" under these Official Rules.

Grand Prize

Each Open Competition Finalist will be required to give two (2) live presentations to audiences consisting of 3D Basecamp and Trimble Dimensions attendees. All presentations must be delivered in English. Asia-Pacific Finalists who require language assistance should notify Trimble upon acceptance of their Finalist status; Trimble will use reasonable efforts to accommodate interpretation needs, subject to availability and Trimble's sole discretion. After such presentations, attendees will vote on the Open Competition Finalists' presentations using the criteria listed in Section 7. The manner and method of voting shall be determined in Trimble's sole discretion.

A "Grand Prize" valued at $1,000.00USD will be awarded to the Open Competition Finalist garnering the highest score in attendee voting (the "Grand Prize Winner"). The Grand Prize Winner will receive the Grand Prize following the conclusion of 3D Basecamp 2026 at Trimble Dimensions.

Tax Documentation — Asia-Pacific Finalists and Grand Prize Winners:

Non-U.S. Open Competition Finalists and Grand Prize Winners residing in Asia-Pacific jurisdictions shall be required to complete and submit IRS Form W-8BEN (Certificate of Foreign Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding and Reporting — Individuals) in lieu of a W-9 form, to certify their foreign status for U.S. federal tax withholding purposes. Prize payments to non-U.S. recipients may be subject to U.S. federal income tax withholding at a rate of up to 30% pursuant to Sections 871 and 1441 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code, subject to any applicable reduction under a U.S. income tax treaty. The following U.S. income tax treaties may reduce the applicable withholding rate:

Country	U.S. Income Tax Treaty	Treaty Effect on Prize Withholding
Australia	U.S.-Australia Tax Treaty (1982, as amended by Protocol 2001)	Reduced rate may apply; confirm with qualified U.S. tax counsel
Japan	U.S.-Japan Tax Treaty (2003, as amended by Protocol 2013)	Reduced rate may apply; confirm with qualified U.S. tax counsel
South Korea	U.S.-Republic of Korea Tax Treaty (1979, as amended)	Reduced rate may apply; confirm with qualified U.S. tax counsel
Singapore	U.S.-Singapore Tax Treaty (1981, as amended by Protocol 2004)	Reduced rate may apply; confirm with qualified U.S. tax counsel
India	U.S.-India Tax Treaty (1989)	Reduced rate may apply; confirm with qualified U.S. tax counsel
New Zealand	U.S.-New Zealand Tax Treaty (1982, as amended by Protocol 2010)	Reduced rate may apply; confirm with qualified U.S. tax counsel

ALL TAXES, FEES, AND ANY APPLICABLE WITHHOLDING AND REPORTING REQUIREMENTS — INCLUDING LOCAL INCOME TAX OBLIGATIONS IN THE ENTRANT'S COUNTRY OF RESIDENCE — ARE THE SOLE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE OPEN COMPETITION FINALIST / GRAND PRIZE WINNER. Asia-Pacific Entrants are strongly encouraged to seek independent tax advice regarding the local tax treatment of any Prize received.

Local tax treatment of prize income:

- Australia: Prize income received by Australian residents from foreign sources may be assessable income under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth) (ITAA 1997) and subject to Australian income tax. Foreign tax credits may be available under Division 770 of the ITAA 1997 for any U.S. tax withheld. Entrants should seek advice from a registered tax agent.
- Japan: Prize income (一時所得, ichiji shotoku) received by Japanese residents is subject to Japanese income tax under the Income Tax Act (所得税法, Shotokuzei Ho, Act No. 33 of 1965). A 50% deduction applies to temporary income before applying the marginal tax rate. Entrants should seek advice from a Japanese tax professional (税理士, zeirishi).
- South Korea: Prize income received by Korean residents may be subject to Korean income tax and local income tax (주민세) under the Income Tax Act (소득세법). Entrants should seek advice from a Korean certified public accountant or tax adviser.
- Singapore: Prizes received by Singaporean residents from foreign competitions may be subject to Singapore income tax under the Income Tax Act 1947 (revised 2014). Entrants should seek advice from a Singapore tax professional.
- India: Prize income received by Indian residents is taxable in India as income from other sources under Section 56 of the Income Tax Act, 1961, and is subject to a flat-rate tax of 30% under Section 115BB of the Income Tax Act, 1961, plus applicable surcharge (if any) and the Health and Education Cess at 4%, resulting in an effective tax rate exceeding 30% (the precise rate depends on the Entrant's total income for the relevant assessment year). Under Section 194B of the Income Tax Act, 1961, where prize money exceeds INR 10,000, the payer is required to deduct tax at source (TDS) at 30% before making the prize payment. The "Grand Prize" valued at USD $1,000 is expected to exceed the INR 10,000 threshold; accordingly, TDS will be deducted from any prize payment made to Indian winners. Indian winners may be required to provide their Permanent Account Number (PAN) to Trimble or its agents before prize payment is made. Entrants should consult a chartered accountant registered with the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI).
- New Zealand: Prize income received by New Zealand residents may be taxable under the Income Tax Act 2007 (NZ). Entrants should seek advice from a chartered accountant registered with Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand (CA ANZ).

Trimble may be required to file IRS Forms 1042 and 1042-S with respect to prize payments to non-U.S. recipients. Trimble will engage qualified U.S. tax counsel to confirm all applicable withholding and reporting obligations.

Unclaimed Prizes — Australia: Under applicable Australian trade promotion legislation, unclaimed prizes may be subject to specific handling requirements in certain states and territories. Trimble will handle any unclaimed prizes in accordance with applicable Australian state and territory requirements. In all other Asia-Pacific jurisdictions, any unclaimed Prizes will not be awarded.

No substitution, assignment, or transfer of any Prize is permitted, except by Trimble, which reserves the right to substitute the Prize or any Prize component with another of comparable or greater value.

Eligibility Documentation – Asia-Pacific Finalists: Potential Prize winners may be required to sign and return a Statutory Declaration or Declaration of Eligibility (referred to in these Official Rules as a "Declaration of Eligibility"), a Liability/Publicity Release, and the applicable tax form (IRS Form W-8BEN for Asia-Pacific Finalists), and to provide any additional information or documentation required by Trimble within thirty (30) days following the date of first attempted notification (or fifteen (15) business days for Asia-Pacific Finalists, whichever is longer). Intellectual Property: The intellectual and industrial property rights to each Entry, if any, will remain with the Entrant submitting such Entry, except that these terms do not supersede any other assignment or grant of rights pursuant to any other separate agreements between Entrant and other parties. As a condition of entry, Entrant agrees that Trimble shall have the right to use, copy, modify, and make available the Entry to the public via Trimble's websites for any purpose, including but not limited to advertising and promotion of the Competition using screenshots, animations, and Entry clips. This license does not affect the Entrant's inalienable moral rights in their work as recognized under the intellectual property laws of the Entrant's country of residence, including:

Trimble is not responsible for any typographical or other error in the printing of these Official Rules, administration of the Competition, or in the announcement of the Prizes. Each Entrant certifies that their Entry is original, that they are the sole and exclusive owner and rights holder of the submitted Entry, and that they have the right to submit the Entry in the Competition. Each Entrant represents that their Entry does not and will not: (1) infringe any third-party proprietary, intellectual property, industrial property, personal, or other rights, including without limitation copyright, trademark, patent, trade secret, or confidentiality obligation; (2) contain lewd, obscene, or pornographic content; or (3) otherwise violate applicable law in any countries in the world.

10. Media Activity

By participating in this Competition, Entrant agrees and hereby grants Trimble permission to use, copy, modify, and make available Entrant's Entry to the public (with or without attribution to Entrant) for any purpose, including but not limited to press and media communications, without further compensation to Entrant. Entrant also agrees to participate in any media or promotional activity regarding the Competition.

If Entrant is a winner of the Competition, Entrant expressly consents to Trimble's use of Entrant's name, image, photograph, voice, and likeness to administer and promote the Competition and to conduct media interviews and promotional events, to the extent permitted by and in accordance with applicable local law in Entrant's country of residence. This consent is granted freely and with full knowledge of its scope, consistent with the following applicable laws:

- Singapore: Under the Personal Data Protection Act 2012 (PDPA), image and likeness may constitute personal data; use for marketing or promotional purposes requires valid consent obtained in compliance with the PDPA (s. 13 and the Second Schedule). Singapore Entrants who become Finalists or winners will be required to provide specific, informed consent for the use of their image and likeness for promotional purposes, separately from their agreement to these Official Rules, before any such use is made.
- India: Under the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 (DPDPA, No. 22 of 2023), image, photograph, and likeness constitute personal data; processing for promotional or advertising purposes requires free, specific, informed, and unambiguous consent of the data principal (DPDPA s. 6). Indian Entrants who become Finalists or winners will be required to execute a separate written consent form specifically authorizing the use of their image, photograph, voice, and likeness for promotional purposes before any such use is made. The right to privacy is a fundamental right under Article 21 of the Constitution of India (Justice K.S. Puttaswamy v. Union of India, (2017) 10 SCC 1).
- New Zealand: Privacy Act 2020 (NZ) — image may constitute personal information; use requires compliance with Information Privacy Principles (IPPs). No standalone image rights statute.
