

FABIO ROPPOLI

Chief Product Supply Officer

Fabio Roppoli (born in Turin in 1977) has been Safilo's Chief Product Supply Officer since July 2017. Previously he was Global Industrial Director RX for Luxottica Group.

After an Executive Master of Business Administration from ESCP Business School in Paris and a Master's Degree in Management Engineering from Turin Polytechnic, in 2003 he began an international career in Luxottica Group where he held various roles of increasing responsibility in the Global Operations Team in Asia, Brazil and Italy, reporting to the CO-CEO.

Until 2009 he was the Plant Director for Luxottica China, where he contributed to building up from scratch the production facility based on an end-to-end, lean concept. He then became Plant Director of the Italian production site in Sedico, playing a key role in relaunching the site within the Italian manufacturing footprint and increasing its performance. In 2013, he was appointed Director of Operations Brazil with the objective to integrate a newly acquired company and achieve excellence in the performance. Two years later, he was promoted to Director of Manufacturing Asia, with the objective to relaunch the operational performance and integrate the RX business in the APAC region. After two years, he was promoted to RX Global Operations Director managing the integration of the RX business and eyewear business worldwide.

He speaks Italian (mother tongue) and English (fluent).
