

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE CHEMICALS

1. General

'Seller' means Vidara UK Ltd, with registered address Unit 1, Everill Gate Business Park, Everill Gate Lane, Wombwell, Barnsley, S73 0FJ, England, United Kingdom and company registration No 04882189.

'Buyer' means the person who accepts a quotation from the Seller for the sale of the Goods or whose order for the Goods is accepted by the Seller.

The Buyer and the Seller are individually referred to as Party or jointly as Parties.

'Goods' means all products, which the Seller is to supply in accordance with these Conditions. 'Conditions' means the general terms and conditions of sale as set out in this document.

The Seller shall sell and the Buyer shall purchase the Goods in accordance with any written quotation of the Seller which is accepted by the Buyer, or any written order of the Buyer which is accepted by the Seller.

The Conditions apply to all quotes given by the Seller to the Buyer and all contracts between the Seller and the Buyer, unless agreed otherwise in writing. The Buyer is assumed, unless agreed otherwise in writing, to have accepted these Conditions expressly and irrevocably. These Conditions shall always prevail over the terms and conditions of the Buyer or any involved third party. Any deviation from these Conditions requires the explicit written approval of the Seller.

In case the Buyer would purchase any Goods through the Seller's online sales platform, these Conditions and any mandatory national legislation (if any), shall apply to all offers, orders, contracts and deliveries, as a consequence of these online sales.

Any typographical, clerical or other error or omission in any sale literature, quotation, price list, acceptance of offer, invoice or other document or information issued by the Seller shall be subject to correction without any liability on the part of the Seller. The headings in these Conditions are for convenience purposes only and cannot be used for interpretation purposes.

The Buyer shall familiarise itself with any information provided by the Seller in relation to the Goods, including (but not limited to): (i) safe handling and use; and (ii) storage, transportation and disposal procedures. The Buyer shall instruct its employees and any of its contractors on these procedures and shall draw reasonable attention to hazards to persons, property, and the environment. The Buyer shall indemnify the Seller for all claims and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of Buyer's failure to comply with the foregoing obligations. The Seller shall be entitled to cancel any Order with 14 days' notice in the event of the Buyer's failure to comply with the above obligations.

2. Offers, orders and confirmation of orders

Any offer from the Seller is non-binding and it is to be seen as an invitation to the Buyer to submit a binding order.

An order placed by the Buyer (or a change to an existing order) is binding upon the Buyer, but the Seller shall only be bound after its written confirmation, in view of the availability of the Goods. As from the moment an order is placed by the Buyer, the Buyer is not entitled to cancel the order.

3. Delivery and term of delivery

The delivery term shall be the term stated in the order confirmation and no others. Trade terms shall be interpreted in accordance with Incoterms 2020 (or any other later versions hereof) and title shall pass to the Buyer at the same time as the risks of loss or damage under the Incoterms 2020, notwithstanding clause 5. Risk of loss shall pass to the Buyer upon delivery into the custody of the carrier when the sales contract does not specify any trade term in this regard and title shall only pass upon full payment of the Goods.

Unless explicitly agreed otherwise in writing, the delivery term is purely indicative and is not binding to the Seller. The Parties acknowledge that certain circumstances may hinder or postpone the delivery term. In that case the Seller will notify the Buyer hereof within a reasonable period of time and suggest a new delivery term. Under no circumstances the Seller can be held liable for any damages in case of late deliveries.

The Seller is permitted, to make minor deviations in the volume of the ordered Goods, unless explicitly agreed otherwise in writing between the Parties. The Buyer will receive a bill relating to the actual quantity of the Goods delivered. The Seller is permitted to make partial deliveries to the Buyer.

Unless specifically agreed otherwise, the Buyer is responsible for compliance with all laws and regulations regarding import, transport, storage, use, (safe) handling and disposal practices of the Goods. Irrespective of the delivery terms agreed upon between the parties, the Buyer shall be solely responsible for the unloading of the Goods at the agreed destination. The loading or filling of vehicles and/or containers by the Buyer shall be the sole responsibility of the Buyer, even if carried out by the Seller and/or if the Seller has issued instructions regarding the vehicle or container or has performed any work on them. The Seller may refuse to load a vehicle or fill a container, if according to the Seller's opinion it falls short of reasonable safety requirements. The Seller shall not be liable for any delay resulting from such refusal. The Seller shall not be liable in case of contamination during loading or filling of vehicles and/or containers. As from the delivery, the Buyer is obliged to insure the Products against all risks at its own expense (including, but not limited to: degeneration, perish, fire, moisture and theft) and to provide the Seller with a copy of the insurance policy.

4. Packaging

Where the Seller supplies the Goods in non-returnable containers, such containers are not returnable when empty, unless provided by law or agreed upon otherwise in writing. Where the Buyer is obliged to return these containers, they shall be returned at the Buyer's cost and risk and shall be empty, clean, securely closed and in a good condition. Containers remaining the Seller's property such as IBC's, isotainers, demounts etc. shall be used in compliance with the Seller's instructions. Tank trucks, containers or any other tank transporting the Goods owned by or made available by Seller shall be emptied on arrival without delay and shall be returned to the installation of origin, within 24 hours after arrival at the destination, free of charge and having been cleaned. If tank trucks, containers or any other tank transporting the Goods are returned late, a hire charge may be levied (the amount depending on the type of tank, vehicle, ... and/or capacity) determined by the Seller (however, not exceeding 10% of the invoice amount). Containers remaining the Seller's property shall not be used for storage or shipment of any other material, including the Goods supplied by the Seller in bulk or containers, without the Seller's prior written consent. Loss or damage to containers whilst in the Buyer's possession or control shall be the Buyer's responsibility.

5. Price of the Goods

The price of the Goods shall be the Seller's quoted price. Unless specifically agreed otherwise, all prices quoted have a validity of maximum 5 days after which time it may be altered by the Seller without giving notice to the Buyer. Unless specifically agreed otherwise, the price does not include transport and insurance costs and is exclusive of any applicable taxes, such as but not limited to value added tax, any other state or local taxes, and/or any import and/or export duties, which the Buyer shall be liable to (re)pay to the Seller in addition to the price, regardless of how or on whom the tax is levied. The Seller reserves the right, by giving notice to the Buyer at any time before delivery, to increase the price of the Goods to reflect any increase in the cost to the Seller which is due to any factor beyond the control of the Seller, any change in delivery dates, quantities or specifications for the Goods which is requested by the Buyer, or any delay caused by any instructions of the Buyer or failure of the Buyer to give the Seller adequate information or instructions. If the Buyer is of the opinion that the price increase is unreasonable, it may object to such increase by written notice within 15 days of the date of receipt of the Seller's notice. The Seller shall then have the right to continue to deliver to the Buyer at the initial price or to cancel the contract immediately upon notice to the Buyer in writing without any obligation to compensate the Buyer.

6. Payment conditions

All invoices are payable to the Seller within the period specified in the invoice unless the Parties expressly agree otherwise in writing. The price in the invoice is final and binding and all payments shall be made in the currency of the invoice. The Buyer may not suspend its payment obligation even in the event of a clearly grounded complaint or legal action in respect of the services/goods delivered. If payment is not made by the due date, interest in arrears at 10 % per annum shall be charged on the invoice sum, ipso jure and without need for prior reminder, from the invoice due date to the day of payment in full. If payment is not made within 10 days of the due date, the Seller might decide to increase the invoice sum, ipso jure and without need for prior reminder, by 10 % by way of compensation, to a minimum of 125 EUR. Without prejudice to the Seller's other rights, in the event of non-payment and/ or in case of a suspension, decrease or cancellation of the approved credit limit by a credit insurance company the Seller shall be entitled to suspend without notice all further deliveries to the Buyer and/or declare all current contracts void by operation of law and/or demand payment of all invoices outstanding but not yet due, irrespective of the right of the Seller to demand compliance and/or compensation from the Buyer. In the event of non-payment the Buyer shall lose all rights to discounts granted, including but not limited to year-end rebates. The Buyer is not entitled to set-off any due amounts or withholding of any kinds (save to the extent that this by law can be excluded). The Seller shall be entitled to transfer any claim under this contract to one of its affiliates, such as Factoring Service Center NV, without the prior consent of the Buyer. If any provisions in the general terms and conditions of the Buyer conflict with the transferability of a claim such provisions are hereby explicitly rejected and excluded.

7. Events of default/termination

The Seller may terminate this contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Buyer if (i) the Buyer fails to make any payment which has become due under the terms of this contract or any other contract between the Buyer and the Seller or commits any other breach of its obligations hereunder, (ii) the Buyer is unable to pay its debts as they fall due or is deemed unable to pay its debts within the meaning section 123 of the Insolvency Act 1986, (iii) the Buyer compounds or makes any voluntary arrangement with its creditors or an application is made to court or an order is made for the appointment of an administrator or (being an individual or firm) becomes the subject of a bankruptcy petition or (being a company) goes into liquidation (otherwise for the purposes of amalgamation or reconstruction), (iv) an administrator or a receiver is appointed over any of the property or assets of the Buyer, (v) the Buyer ceases or threatens to cease to carry on business, or (vi) the Seller reasonably apprehends that any of the events mentioned above are about to occur in relation to the Buyer and notifies the Buyer accordingly. If any of the above sections (i) to (vi) (inclusive) applies then (without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to the Seller) the Seller shall be entitled to cancel this contract and any other contract or suspend any further deliveries under any such contract without any liability to the Buyer, and if any goods have been supplied under any such contract but not paid for, all monies then due or to become due by the Buyer to the Seller under this contract or any other contract shall become immediately due and payable notwithstanding any previous agreement or arrangement to the contrary and the Seller shall be entitled to retain any deposits paid by the Buyer on account of such liability. Clauses which expressly or by implication survive termination of this contract shall continue in full force and effect.

8. Warranty/liability

The Seller undertakes that the Goods will meet sales specifications from the producer of the Goods. The Seller's above warranty on the sales specifications is subject to the following assumptions: (i) the Seller shall be under no liability in respect of any defect in the Goods arising from processing of the Goods by non-qualified professionals, wilful damage, negligence, abnormal working conditions, inexpert storage, misuse or alteration of the Goods without the Seller's approval; and (ii) the Seller shall be under no liability under the above warranty if the total price for the Goods has not been paid by the due date.

All recommendations and/or (eventual) technical advice regarding the use or application of the Goods, any additional specifications and/or warranties on the Goods, given by the Seller and any of its employees or representatives (e.g. by e-mail, phone, ...) outside the standard written sales specifications, do not provide any warranty as to the results to which the Buyer is aiming or is intending to obtain through its own manufacturing process, nor can any liability in this regard be accepted by the Seller.

Nothing in this contract shall operate to exclude the Seller's liability for (i) death or personal injury arising from its negligence or the negligence of its employees, agent or sub-contractors, or (ii) fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

Nothing in this contract shall operate to exclude the Seller's liability for (i) breach of any of the terms implied by section 12 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979, (ii) section 2 of the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982, or (iii) defective products under the Consumer Protection Act 1987.

Subject to the above two paragraphs, the Seller does not sell the goods (or provide any associated technical advice or services) subject to any warranty or condition either express or implied by common law, statute or otherwise, and all such warranties and conditions are hereby expressly excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law, save that the Seller warrants that the goods shall conform with their description on the Seller's order acknowledgement of the applicable order, provided always that goods for "made to order" materials are accepted by the Buyer on the understanding that the Seller may deliver goods up to and including 10% more or less in the quantity of goods ordered due to production anomalies (in which case the Seller shall not be liable for any such fluctuations and the value of the applicable invoice shall be adjusted accordingly and the Buyer shall have no right to reject such goods); In case Parties have agreed that Goods are sold as "off-grade material" (outside standard sales specifications), second quality goods, goods of reprocessed material or the like, the Seller cannot accept any liability as to the quality of the Goods. Minor deviations in quantity are not qualified as defects and must be accepted by the Buyer. The Buyer will only be invoiced based upon the actual delivered Goods. The Buyer is obliged to inspect the Goods immediately after delivery and shall within 5 days of the arrival of each delivery of the Seller, notify the Seller in writing by registered letter of any visible defect by reason of which the Buyer alleges that the Goods delivered are not in accordance with the Goods' sales specifications. In the case of defects which were undetectable through a visible inspection on the delivery date by the Buyer, or only became apparent after processing of the Goods, the Buyer must respond to the Seller within 5 days of their discovery by registered letter. Either (i) failure to inspect the Goods immediately after delivery; (ii) failure to give written notice on the said dates by registered letter, or (iii) processing of the Goods supplied under this contract (only in the case that the visible defect should have been detected but was not), constitutes an unqualified and irrevocable acceptance of the Goods by the Buyer and a full waiver by the Buyer of all claims towards the Seller. The liability of the Seller as regards to defective or damaged Goods shall only be confined to recovery of the purchase price of the defective or damaged Goods or, if preferred by the Seller, replacement of the defective or damaged Goods. Under no circumstances, shall the Seller be liable for particular, incidental, indirect losses and consequential damages, such as loss of profits, costs of replacement materials or claims made by the Buyer's customers/third parties or any other similar losses. Notwithstanding the above, the Seller's total liability will in no event exceed the amount of the corresponding invoice of the Goods. In any event it is the Buyer's obligation to take all possible measures to prevent or limit damage. Failure to mitigate damages constitutes a full waiver by the Buyer of all claims towards the Seller. The Buyer shall at any time fully co-operate with the Seller and the producer of the Goods in the case that any defects on the Goods are discovered. In no case the Goods are to be returned without first obtaining the Seller's written approval. The Goods must be securely packed to reach the Seller without damage or loss. In the event a complaint from the Buyer is unfounded, the Seller's costs for inspection of the Goods shall be borne by the Buyer, provided that the Buyer could have discovered, on the basis of an inspection duly carried out, that such complaint is not related to a defect in the Goods. Unless specifically agreed otherwise, the warranty of the Seller shall be limited to six (6) months after delivery, provided that the Goods have not been altered and have been stored according to the Good's requirements. The Seller shall not be liable to the Buyer or be deemed to be in breach of the contract by reason of any delay in performing, or any failure to perform, any of the Seller's obligations in relation to the Goods, if the delay or failure was due to any cause beyond the Seller's reasonable control. The Seller does not warrant that the Goods are free of patents or other industrial property rights of third parties. The limitation of liability contained herein shall apply for the benefit of any employees, agents and other representatives of the Seller. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Conditions to the contrary, the Buyer shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Seller and the Seller's parent companies, affiliates and subsidiaries and its respective officers, directors and employees from and against any and all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including any direct, indirect or consequential losses, loss of profit, loss of reputation and all interest, penalties and legal and other reasonable professional costs and expenses) suffered or incurred by the Seller arising out of or in connection with any claim made against the Seller by a third party arising out of or in connection with the supply or use of the Goods or any Goods in which the Goods are incorporated. This indemnity shall not apply to the extent that the primary and predominant cause of a claim is Goods' non-conformity with the warranties at the time of dispatch.

9. Title

a. Title to the goods shall not pass to the Buyer until the earlier of (i) payment in full for the goods and any other goods that the Seller has supplied to the Buyer, has been received, in which case title to the goods shall pass at the time of payment of all such sums; and (ii) the Buyer resells the goods, in which case title to the goods shall pass to the Seller at the time specified in section c. below.

b. Until title to the goods has passed to the Buyer, the Buyer shall (i) keep and store in such a manner as to enable identification of the goods as those of the Seller, (ii) not remove, deface or obscure any identifying mark or packaging on or relating to the goods, (iii) maintain the goods in satisfactory condition and keep them insured against all risks for their full price from the date of delivery and (iv) notify the Seller immediately if it becomes subject to any of the events listed in article 7.

c. Subject to section d. below, the Buyer may resell or use the goods in the ordinary course of business (but not otherwise) before full payment has been received for the goods. However, if the Buyer resells the goods before that time, it does so as principal and not as the Seller's agent and title to the goods shall pass from the Seller to the Buyer immediately before the time at which resale by the Buyer occurs.

d. If before title passes, the Buyer becomes subject to any of the events listed in article 6., then, without limiting any other right or remedy the Seller may have (i) the right to sell or use goods in the ordinary course of business ceases immediately and (ii) the Seller may, at any time, enter any premises of the Buyer or any third party (and the Buyer grants to the Seller, or shall procure the grant to the Seller of, an irrevocable licence to do so) in order to recover goods stored at such premises which have not been resold by the Buyer or irrevocably incorporated into another product, or at any time require the Buyer to deliver up all such goods in its possession.

10. Insolvency

Each Party shall have the right to terminate the contract upon delivery of written notice to the other Party in the event that the credit worthiness of the other Party is endangered.

11. Force Majeure

In case of force majeure, such as, but not confined to e.g. (i) pandemics, (ii) war, civil unrest, martial law and/or acts of governments, (iii) strikes, (iv) trade sanctions, (v) fire and/or lightning strikes, (vi) unforeseeable production, traffic and/or shipping disturbances, (vii) unforeseeable shortages of labour, utilities and/or raw materials and supplies, the Seller shall retain at all times the right to either suspend its obligations as long as the situation of force majeure persists, or, should it persist for more than 6 months, to terminate the contract, without any liability of the Seller to compensate the Buyer for whatever reason.

12. Suspension of Obligations

If at any time during the contract, the Seller is of the view that there has been a substantial change in (i) business, (ii) monetary, technical or commercial conditions of the contract, as a result of which the Seller suffers material hardship in complying with this contract, the Seller will notify the Buyer in writing that it wishes to meet and review the conditions of the contract in the light of the changed business conditions. The Parties shall meet to discuss in good faith appropriate means, if any, to alleviate or mitigate the effects of such hardship in a manner equitable to both Parties. If no agreement can be reached, the obligations of both Parties will be suspended until the said substantial change has been normalised or the Seller is entitled to termination of the contract without any obligation to compensate the Buyer.

13. Safety, Compliance & Trademarks

The Buyer shall handle the Goods as recommended in the Material Safety Data Sheets and/or the Seller's safety documentation. In the case that the Buyer would not be in the possession of this safety information, the Buyer will immediately contact the Seller on any required advice or information.

The Buyer acknowledges that any or all Goods supplied under this contract may be or become considered a hazardous material under various governmental laws and regulations.

The Buyer is responsible for complying with all regulatory provisions in connection with the storage, handling and use of substances purchased from the Seller and shall inform its customers (if any) of such obligation.

More specifically, the Buyer represents and warrants that it will comply with (i) the Regulation 1907/2006 of 18 December 2006 as amended concerning the Registration, Evaluation, Authorisation and Restriction of Chemicals ("REACH") regarding all substances in the Goods that are used or manufactured in or imported into the European Economic Area; (ii) the Regulation (EC) No 1272/2008 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 December 2008 on classification, labelling and packaging of substances and mixtures, amending and repealing Directives 67/548/EEC and 1999/45/EC, and amending Regulation (EC) No 1907/2006. The Buyer will instruct its employees, and any of its contractors, in these practices and will draw suitable attention to dangers to persons, property and the environment. The Buyer will indemnify the Seller for all claims and costs, including reasonable attorney fees, arising out of the Buyer's non-compliance with the above-mentioned obligations. The Seller is entitled to cancel any order with 15 days' notice period in case of non-compliance with the above-mentioned obligations from the Buyer. The Buyer shall comply with all applicable export control and trade embargo laws, rules and regulations and shall not resell export, re-export, distribute, transfer or otherwise dispose of materials, directly or indirectly without first obtaining all necessary written consents, permits and authorisations and completing such formalities as may be required by any such laws, rules and regulations. The Buyer also warrants and undertakes that it will comply with all applicable laws including but not limited to laws on anti-corruption (including but not limited to the applicable UK Bribery Act), competition, data protection (see also article 1512) and trade sanctions, and that all applicable measures are in place to ensure the Buyer is compliant with such laws. In case of any infringement by the Buyer, the Seller is entitled to terminate any contract with the Buyer without any notice period and/or obligation to pay any indemnity. In case of any said infringement by the Buyer, it will indemnify the Seller for any damages and losses upon first request. The Buyer will not use the trademarks of the Seller, its affiliates and/or the Seller's supplier(s) without the Seller's prior explicit written approval.

14. Miscellaneous

Applicable law and competent courts - The Conditions and all contracts between the Seller and the Buyer are subject exclusively to the law of England and Wales. The Seller and the Buyer expressly exclude application of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (1980). In the case of a dispute the court of England and Wales, shall have sole jurisdiction to hear the case between Parties. Non-validity - The non-validity or non-enforceability of one of the clauses of these Conditions shall not in any way affect the validity or enforceability of the other clauses of these Conditions. Performance by affiliates – Assignment - At the Seller's choice, any contractual obligation (partially or in whole) may be performed by the Seller or any of its affiliates and/or assigned to any of the Seller's affiliates. Any deliveries made under these circumstances may be invoiced by the involved affiliate and shall constitute performance by the Seller, under the contract. In the case of assignment, the general terms and conditions of the affiliate will apply. No waiver - No waiver by the Seller of any breach of the contract by the Buyer shall be considered as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision. Changes in writing - Any change to these Conditions need to be agreed upon in writing between parties.

15. Data Protection – Data Privacy

The Seller may undertake searches with credit reference agencies in relation to the Buyer, including principal directors. The Seller may make information relating to the Buyer's trade credit performance available to credit reference agencies and other organisations to assess applications for credit, fraud prevention and debtor tracing. The Seller may use information (including personal data, as defined in the Data Protection Act 1988) provided to it by the Buyer to provide information to the Buyer about other goods offered by the Seller that are similar to those already purchased and disclose such information to third party organisations engaged by the Seller to conduct promotional activities on the Seller's behalf. All personal data (as defined in the Data Protection Act 1988) provided by the Buyer to the Seller will be processed and held by the Seller in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1988.

The Seller will comply with the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) (2016/679) or any local regulations applicable. Within the Seller and its affiliates the processing of personal data is allowed, but only for purposes compatible with those for which the personal data have been collected (i) processing of personal data of potential, current and former customers (ii) customer administration, bookkeeping system fulfilments, quality management fulfilments based on our contractual relationship and/or because you use our products and/or services. Customers will be informed through the privacy policies on our website. As our potential, current or former customer, you can exercise your rights with regard to your personal data: (i) right to withdraw consent at any time, (ii) right of access to the personal data, (iii) right to rectification of incomplete, inadequate or excessive personal data, (iv) right to erasure of inaccurate personal data, (v) right to data portability, and (vi) right to object. The application to exercise any of the rights mentioned above should be done to privacy@ravago.com.
