

Product Title		Experience making a foil-stamped fan using special brass foil		Region: Hiroshima City, Hiroshima Prefecture
Introduction 200 characters or less	Learn unique, innovative Japanese metal leaf paper techniques			<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Languages Supported <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Japanese <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> English <input type="checkbox"/> Chinese <input type="checkbox"/> Other
	At the Rekiseisha factory, where a chimney still stands defiantly after the atomic bombing, you can learn special foil stamping techniques and try your hand at making foil-stamped fans using the company's own special brass foil, which is used all over the world. More resistant to rust and deterioration than real gold leaf, it creates fantastic souvenirs of Japan that last for a long time. The session takes place at a factory with a history of over 100 years, which began as a sword merchant and is now the only place in Japan that produces metal leaf for foil-stamping. This atelier-like factory is built with scrap wood from the atomic bombing, giving visitors a sense of the history of Hiroshima. Learn special foil stamping techniques from artisans that can also be used for modern interiors, and try your hand at foil-stamping on fans. As a souvenir of your trip, take home an original fan created with the delicate techniques learned from the artisans.			<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Explanatory Materials in English <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes / <input type="checkbox"/> No
