Title	A trip to meet nostalgic Japanese landscapes in Okayama and Tsuyama				Region:Tsuyama City, Okayama Prefecture
Overview	Machiya (townhouses), modern architecture, retro trains, and more; each era represents the different charms of Japan!		Language Support	Languages Available	■Japanese■English■Chinese□Other
	Tsuyama City, a peaceful town surrounded by mountains, is located in the northern part of Okayama Prefecture. Only an hour and a half by train from Okayama Station, it's a perfect travel destination for those who want an experience off the beaten path.  Tsuyama is a castle town established in the 17th century, and its original townscape has been preserved to this day. Here, there are many spots that invoke a feeling of nostalgia for this old-school Japanese			Language completion tools	■Yes ∕ □ No scenery. On this tour, our guide will take you to the best spots to experience a feeling of nostalgia in Tsuyama.  In the Joto Machinami Preservation District, more than half of the buildings still standing are traditional 17th century buildings. Going inside these buildings, you will surely be able to feel the lifestyle of the past through them.  At the Tsuyama Manabi-no-Tetsudo-kan (Railway Museum), valuable trains such as steam locomotives			Interpreter available	■Yes∕□No
	from past centuries will stir up your nostalgia. On our tour, you will also visit a Japanese garden with over 300 years of history, and the ruins of a castle that overlooks the city. Why not take a look at a different side of Japan in a city with a relaxed atmosphere?			Guide information	1 multilingual tour guide staff (Japanese, English, Chinese), who has passed an independent assessment
	I . You can enter a traditional building and feel the lifestyle of Japanese people of the past.	ng and feel the lifestyle of
Unique Selling Points	Tsuyama, a castle town established in the 17th century, is home to an area rare in Japan, where original streets built long ago still stand. On this tour, you will visit the Joto Machinami Preservation District, where 160 traditional buildings stand side by side for over 1 kilometre, an area where you can experience the nostalgic atmosphere and the lifestyle of Japan in the past.			Participant Requirements	None
Unique Selling Points	II. The ruins of the castle, the symbol of Tsuyama, offers a spectacular view of the city.  Along with Himeji Castle and Matsuyama Castle, Tsuyama Castle is known as one of the "three great flatland-mountain castles" in Japan, and its tower is a viewpoint from which you can see the entire city. The rich nature and the well-developed			Cancellation Policy	Free cancellation up to 48 hours before
Unique Selling Points	castle town are in perfect harmony, creating a beautiful landscape that can truly be called an original Japanese landscape. Enjoy the unique scenery of Tsuyama to your heart's content.  III. You can see rare trains, like steam locomotives, that were once active.  The last stop on the tour is the Tsuyama Manabi-no-Tetsudo-kan (Railway Museum). This museum houses steam locomotives that were once active and a unique fan-shaped locomotive depot that was built in 1980. The museum not only offers tours, but also exhibits where you can actually operate the locomotive, making it a great spot for both adults and children.			Precautionary considerations
Itinerary	Meet up and explanation: Tsuyama station  1-Joto Machinami Preservation District 20min.  2-Tsuyama Museum of Western Studies 30min.  3-Tsuyama Castle 30 min.  4-Shurakuen Garden 20min.  5-Jota Tsuyama High School Main Building 5 min.  6-Josai Roman Museum 50 min.  7-Tsuyama Manabino Railway Museum 40 min.  [Outline of each spot]  -Joto Machinami Preservation District: This district, with a length of over 1 kilometre, is home to more than 160 traditional buildings stand side by side. At Sakushu Joto Yashiki and Joto Mukashi Machiya, you can actually go inside the buildings. It is a nostalgic area where you can feel how people lived in those days.  -Tsuyama Museum of Western Studies: This is the only museum in Japan that specialises in "Western studies", the study of Western countries from a Japanese perspective. It's a good place to look at Japanese history and culture from the unusual perspective of Western studies and you may even change your view of Japan and discover something mountain castless" in Japan. From the castle tower, you can enjoy a spectacular view of the city. It is one of the best cherry blossom viewing spots in western Japan, and is visited by many people every year during the cherry blossom season.		Other Plan Information	In case of bad weather, emergency, delay or no show	•In the event of bad weather on the day of the tour, the means of transportation, destinations, and routes may be changed. •If you do not arrive at the departure point within 60 minutes of the agreed time, it will be treated as a no-show.
	Shurakuen Garden: A Japanese garden with over 300 years of history. It is designed so that visitors can enjoy the harmonious beauty no matter what season they visit. Even though it is located in the city centre, it is a very quiet space, allowing you to feel as if time has stopped.  *Old Tsuyama High School Main Building: This is an old-world style building, built 120 years ago, is still in use to this day. Though you can't enter the premises, you can feel the splendour of the building from the outside.  *Josai Roman Museum: A Western-style house built over 100 years ago, holding exhibitions that show how people lived back then. You can taste a unique coffee brewed in the old days, named after a person associated with the history of coffee in Japan.  *Tsuyama Manabi-no-Tetsudo-kan: This museum has exhibits on the history and mechanics of railroads. The old railroad car warehouse, built in 1980, is lined with steam locomotives and other railroad cars that were once in use, giving visitors a nostalgic feeling. It is a space that railroad enthusiasts will love.			Insurance Support	■Yes∕□No
Reservation Information	■Operation hours ■Number of tours			Inventory Management	□Yes∕∎No
	All year round (except New Year holidays), from Tuesday to Sunday	Dependent on number of requests		Contact Information	otomo corporation / 03-6876-6003 3F Mitomi Building, 3-13-3 Hongo, Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo 113-0033, Japan
	■Duration and start time  Duration: 5.5hours	■Number of people		Support hours	10:00~19:00
	Start times:10am, 10:30am	1 to 6 people		Inquiry email address	notice_partner-reservation@otomo-travel.com
Meeting point and access	Access via public transport  Tsuyama Station	TERMANA Tangama  D = LOGIC  Equation lay  D = LOGIC  Equation lay  Equat	Package Information	Price (Tax included)	Contact us for pricing
	Accessible from Tsuyama Line, Inbi Line, and Heshin Line	MERICEA STROMACHI.		Options / Price
	■Address of meeting place Tsuyama Station Otani, Tsuyama City, Okayama, 708-0882, Japan	MINAMIACH  SPOILS  SERVICE  SE		What's Included	Guide fee, guide expenses, insurance
		Topics Maries  Playing Manage  All 15 (28 8)		What's Not Included	Transportation, entrance fees, meals, souvenirs and experiences (Recommended minimum cash amount: 2,000 yen/person)