

Please answer the questions below.

General Information

Through the 'Biathlon for All' program, IBU will assist National Federations by providing laser/optical rifle equipment (rifles, targets, supporters, mats), and promotional materials and funds to help implement their strategy for recruiting and training kids and youths. This project will continue for an extended period, and selected National Federations are expected to continue their promotional activities for several years.

Project Guidelines

Contact Information of Project Coordinator

Please assign an NF representative responsible for project implementation and reporting, representing NF during workshops and seminars, setting the action plan and communication with IBU about its progress. TIP! Depending on who you want to involve, you can use other development projects support, such as the Popularisation of biathlon among kids, Athlete recruitment after sports careers, or Gender Equality, to cover B4A Project Coordinator costs.
