WHY ARE YOU RUNNING FOR THE IBU ATHLETES' COMMITTEE?

Adequate representation in sport is essential to protecting athletes' quality of life and long-term careers. I am running for the Athletes' Committee because I value the athlete voice and want to strengthen representation at the highest IBU level. Strong representatives show empathy, patience, and persistence, ensuring every voice is heard. Having competed on both the World Cup and IBU Cup circuits, I will advocate for development, financial fairness, global growth, respect for athletes' privacy, and continued exclusion of Russia and Belarus until compliant.

I want to represent athletes honestly, support their health and wellbeing, and help improve communication between biathletes and the International Biathlon Union. ### WHY ARE YOU RUNNING FOR THE IBU ATHLETES' COMMITTEE?

For me it has always been important to get in contact with athletes of other nations in order to listen to some interesting stories or share different experiences. That's why I really like to start conversations with other athletes, no matter if it's on the track, in the shuttle bus or hotel. Every athlete has to tell his/her own story and opinions about different topics and I would appreciate it to represent these within the Athletes Committee. Furthermore, I like to get involved in discussions about important questions that have impact on the future of our beautiful sport. Whether it's problems with climate change or financial issues, I would like to have a voice in the Committee to make good decisions every athlete would support, as well.

WHY ARE YOU RUNNING FOR THE IBU ATHLETES' COMMITTEE?

I have been participating in IBU competitions for 20 years. As a Sustainability Ambassador, I have already been involved in the IBU for four years. As an athlete from a small nation like Belgium, I am very familiar with the position of small nations. However, thanks to my good language skills, I am also able to network well with athletes from large nations. In addition, I am familiar with the views of large nations through my contacts in Germany and France. My goal is to represent the interests of all athletes, whether they come from small or top nations. I am the contact person for the general public and will represent their interests.

This is why it is essential that athletes have a strong voice in the decision-making process. With my experience as a professional athlete, I want to contribute a clear, constructive perspective and ensure that the athletes' needs, concerns, and ideas are heard and taken seriously. My goal is to help shape a future for biathlon that is fair, sustainable, and supportive for everyone involved.
