13.3 Supplier shall at its own expense remedy any breach of the warranties in Clause 13.1 in accordance with the maintenance requirements set out in Clause 3.

14 LIABILITY

14.1 The Parties shall be liable for any damages arising out of or relating to the performance or non-performance of their respective obligations under the Agreement except as deviated from under this Clause 14.

14.2 The aggregate liability of a Party under the Agreement shall in no event exceed an amount equal to 100 % of the total Charges paid by Customer in the twelve (12) months period preceding the date of the first claim made for the Solution or Service in question. If the Agreement has not been in force twelve (12) months at the time of occurrence of the breach for which the first claim is made, the "total Charges" shall be deemed to include all Charges paid for the actual period lapsed for such Solution or Service and multiplied with a factor to correspond to a twelve (12) month period. The above limitation of liability shall not apply to Charges payable by Customer.

14.3 The limitation of liability will apply to any and all liability irrespective of the basis of liability, i.e. damages, proportionate reduction and penalties (but not the indemnity in Clause 15.1).

14.4 The Parties shall not be liable for indirect losses, including loss of profits, business, revenue, goodwill, data, or loss related to processing of Personal Data unless otherwise provided in the Agreement.

15 INDEMNIFICATION

15.3 An indemnified Party must give the other Party prompt notice of any claim and allow the indemnifying Party to defend or settle the claim as a condition to indemnification. No settlement shall bind a Party without its written consent.

Supplier disclaim all other express or implied warranties, conditions, and other terms in relation to such third-party data, whether statutory, arising from course of dealing, or otherwise, including without limitation terms as to quality, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose and non-infringement.

16.4 Supplier does not in any way control Customer's vessels and does not take or accept any liability for the safety of any crew or any vessel including damage to cargo, personal death, and bodily injury. Customer acknowledges and accepts that any decision concerning its vessels is taken solely by Customer and that Solutions and Services are provided for reference only and shall in no way substitute sound judgment.

16.5 Customer acknowledges and accepts that while due care and skill has been used, Supplier provides no warranties or representation that any price indications, quotes or any other calculations or assessments provided by or through the Solutions or Services will reflect actual prices, circumstances, etc. and be obtainable by the Customer.

- (ii) The other Party commits a material breach of the Agreement, which is not capable of remedy.

18.2 In the event of termination or expiry of the Agreement, howsoever occurring, Supplier shall upon Customer's request provide all necessary termination assistance until all Customer Data in Supplier's possession has been transferred to Customer or a replacement service provider designated by Customer in the same format as Customer Data was delivered to Supplier. Any such termination assistance shall be chargeable by Supplier on a time and material basis. Subject to Customer's payment of the Charges, Supplier shall be obliged to continue its provision of the Services temporarily until such successful transfer has been achieved.

19 PARTIAL TERMINATION

19.1 Where the Charges set out in the Order are specified for each individual

Solutions and/or Services, a Party may terminate these individual Solutions or Services (partially terminate the Agreement), including in accordance with the procedure in Clause 17.3 or 18.1 (as applicable). However, where the Charges are in anyway bundled or linked between more than one Service or Solution, a right to terminate, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, shall mean termination of the Agreement as a whole.

20 CONTRACT DOCUMENTS AND INTERPRETATION

20.1 A reference to (i) "includes" or "including" shall mean "includes without limitation" or "including without limitation", and (ii) a Party to this Agreement include a reference to its successors and permitted assigns under this Agreement.

20.4 If any Product Terms apply to a Solution or a Service, such Product Terms shall take precedence over these T&Cs.

20.5 A person who is not a Party to this Agreement has no right under, including under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 in England, to enforce or to enjoy the benefit of any term of this Agreement.

21 SEVERABILITY AND WAIVER

21.1 If any term in the Agreement is found by competent judicial authority to be unenforceable in any respect, the validity of the remainder of the Agreement will be unaffected, provided that such unenforceability does not materially affect the Parties' rights under the Agreement.

21.2 An effective waiver under the Agreement must be in writing signed by the Party waiving its right. Hence, the failure of a Party to exercise any right or remedy to which it is entitled will not constitute a waiver of such right or otherwise cause a diminution of the obligations created by the Agreement, unless explicitly agreed to in writing. Furthermore, a waiver by either Party of any instance of the other Party's noncompliance with any obligation or responsibility under the Agreement will not be deemed a waiver of subsequent instances.

22 FORCE MAJEURE

22.1 Either Party is entitled to suspend the performance of its obligations without incurring liability for damages under the Agreement if and to the extent that such performance is impossible due to extraordinary circumstances beyond the reasonable control of such Party.

22.3 Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Agreement, either Party is entitled to terminate the Agreement with immediate effect by written notice to the other Party if it is clear from the circumstances that the performance of the Agreement will be and is suspended under Clause 22.1 for more than 30 days.

23 CONFIDENTIALITY

23.1 The Parties shall not, apart from what is required by applicable law or by any court or other authority of competent jurisdiction, make use of, except for the purposes contemplated by the Agreement, disclose to any third party or publish any Confidential Information received by one Party from or in respect of the other Party under or in connection with the Agreement. The receiving Party will use the same care and discretion to avoid disclosure, publication, or dissemination of the disclosing Party's Confidential Information as the receiving party uses with its own Confidential Information.

23.2 For the purpose of the Agreement, "Confidential Information" means a Party's trade secrets as well as other commercial and operational information and knowhow all other information disclosed to the relevant Party by or on behalf of the other Party (whether before or after the date of this Agreement) which is marked as or has been otherwise indicated to be confidential or which derives value to a Party from being confidential or which would be regarded as confidential by a reasonable business person. The Parties shall ensure that their employees also observe this Clause 23.

23.3 The provisions of this Clause 23 apply during the Term of the Agreement and for a period of three (3) years following the expiration of the Agreement.

24 PUBLIC STATEMENTS

24.1 Supplier is allowed to name Customer as a client for reference purposes in its marketing efforts and may strictly for the purpose thereof use Customer's tradenames and logos.

25 VARIATION OF THE AGREEMENT

25.1 Either Party may request an amendment of the Agreement. Both Parties shall in this case conduct discussions relating to the proposed amendment of the Agreement in good faith. Any changes to the Agreement shall be included in an amendment to the Agreement and shall be agreed in writing by the Parties.

25.2 In addition to Clause 25.1, Supplier may amend the Agreement if strictly necessary to comply with laws applicable to Supplier, the Solutions, or the Services. Such amendments will become binding on Customer upon notice from Supplier setting out and justifying the amendments; however, Customer may terminate the Agreement for convenience with immediate effect within 30 days following Customer's receipt of such notice if the amendments are to the disadvantage of Customer.

26 ASSIGNMENT

26.1 Supplier is entitled to assign its rights and obligations under the Agreement in full or in part to a third-party without Customer's approval, however, Customer is not entitled to assign any of its rights under the Agreement.

28.2 The seat of the arbitration shall be Singapore.

28.3 The Tribunal shall consist of three arbitrator(s).

28.4 The language of the arbitration shall be English.

28.5 This contract is governed by the laws of Singapore.
