

FLORIDA MAN STEVE SCHALE SAYS

Nearly 600,000 voters who requested a ballot to vote by mail have gone ahead and voted in person early (which cancels their VBM ballot).

Of these people, roughly 267k are Democrats, 215k are Republicans, and the rest are NPA (no party) or voters with minor party affiliation.

POTENTIAL VOTES NOT YET CAST

The final outcome will depend largely on voters who show up in person. We track the number of voters from each party who have yet to vote as well as those who have not requested a mail-in ballot. We do not expect all of them to vote; Florida's 2016 turnout rate was 75%.
