ENDLESS CUSTOMIZATION OPTIONS

Customized packaging and colors available to ensure your growing together message blooms to perfection.

Our wax dipped amaryllis bulbs ship seasonally and bring blooms to wherever your people are. Metallic, Red, White, Lilac, Green, and Swirls- each bulb is hand-dipped and guaranteed to bloom.

ALFRESCO PLEASE- AMARYLLIS BULBS

The science is clear: when we nurture nature, every aspect of our mental health improves. A little water, sunshine and these bulbs bloom.

Planting the Alfresco bulb is simple and makes for a quick gathering with colleagues and customers. The perfect way to bring well-being into the holiday season together.

INSIDE AND OUT

A little nature creates a happier workspace and just might make your workday better. Easy to gift, great to receive, and perfect for customization.

Corporate anniversaries, Breast Cancer Awareness, and summer associate cocktail gatherings. Gifts that highlight the season we are in.

EVERY DAY IS A GOOD DAY TO GROW

Eating seasonally is a way to bring healthy habits to every day. Bring each season to life with a patio garden of fresh harvests.

Each garden includes full Grow Pro access.
Grow Pro supports the entire growing journey and reinforces ideas on how to let your garden nurture your mental health through microsteps.

About Us

Gardenuity is on a mission to make gardens and gardening experiences accessible to everyone, bringing the well-being benefits of gardening to people no matter where they live, work, or play.

Research shows gardening is a benefit to physical and mental health, and to the health of the planet. Gardenuity has built a product suite that brings these benefits to individuals, companies, and communities. We embed the well-being benefits from gardening directly into every experience.
