

Get Ready to Grow Good Things

PRE-SPRING 2025 CORPORATE PREVIEW

Gardenuity
FOR BUSINESS

The arrival of the New Year always feels like an awakening, offering a foundation ready for growth and happy well-being for you and your team. This season, we're leaning into the classics – desktop gardens that bring the full benefits of gardening to your every day, moments to witness nature and blooms come to life, and growing good things wherever you work, live, or play.

Cheers to 2025 and all the incredible possibilities ahead!

Braided Money Tree

"The money tree we planted three years ago is still thriving on my desk."

–Scott L.

Terrarium Desktop Garden

"I love my desktop terrarium! It's the perfect blend of nature and creativity, and it brings a sense of calm to my mornings. I'm so appreciative of my company gifting us these gardens."

–Beth, BCG

Bringing wellness to your culture with Gardenuity and garden-inspired experiences creates a lasting impact by fostering growth, connection, and mindfulness. Gardening offers more than beauty; it reduces stress, enhances focus, and builds a sense of accomplishment.

Whether through desktop gardens, team-building workshops, or wellness initiatives, incorporating gardening into your culture cultivates positivity, strengthens relationships, and aligns with sustainability values.

It's a simple yet transformative way to inspire your team and create a thriving, resilient workplace. With Gardenuity, the process is easy, making it a feasible addition to your wellness initiatives.
