

ALTA Finance Launches Bonds, Financing Company Growth in Web3

LEHI (February 07, 2023) – Web3 real-estate investing platform ALTA Finance announced that it has introduced ALTA Bonds.

“We are pleased to release our Web3 bond offerings to finance our next phase of growth, technology investments, and design initiatives,” said Jeremy Crane, CEO, and Founder of ALTA Finance. “This innovative smart contract based offering allows the market to one-click purchase our bonds as well as redeem coupon payments all within their Web3 wallet.”

ALTA Finance Bonds will be utilized to finance company growth, capital expenditures, and technology investments in the core business, outside the scope of real-estate-specific investments. The core use categories are technology, human capital, and design.

At the time of this launch, ALTA Finance is offering two bonds:

- ALTA, 9.67%, Feb2025, USDC @ 50,000 Issue Volume
- ALTA, 11.97%, Feb2029, USDC @ 250,000 Issue Volume

The ALTA Finance Bond offering smart contracts are available on the Ethereum, Polygon, BNB Smart Chain (Binance), Avalanche, Optimism, and Arbitrum networks.

Like all other ALTA Finance Web3 products, we have integrated our Stripe® Web3 KYC, ALTA Verified. These verifications can quickly be completed with one-click after connecting a Web3 wallet.
