Domestic Letter Services

In accordance with the service, the pricing of letters is based on the quantity, weight, size, recipient delivery area and processability of items as well as on the preparatory work done by the sender. The price also depends on the additional services used and the items' batch sizes.

You can find the product terms as well as instructions for mailing and the markings to be placed on the item on posti.fi.

Priority and Economy letters

Dimensions of Priority and Economy letters

- Minimum size 90 mm x 140 mm x 0.2 mm
- Maximum size 250 mm x 353 mm x 30 mm
- Maximum weight 2 000 g

The ordering channel for Priority and Economy letters is the electronic mailing list (invoicing). Letters with the Cash on Delivery additional service can be ordered from Posti SmartShip.

12907 Priority Letter

Priority Letters are usually delivered by the third business day from the mailing date. If a Priority Letter contains goods, for example, or is unsuitable for machine sorting, the item will be directed to additional sorting, and the delivery speed will be one day slower.

Standard Letters

The Standard Letter is the cheapest way to send standard-sized letters that are suitable for machine sorting. The Standard Letter service requires using the Sorting Service and adding the 2D code provided by the Sorting Service to the item. More information and mailing instructions at posti.fi/mailing-instructions and posti.fi/sortingservice.

Standard Letter (C5) dimensions

- Minimum size E6 (110 mm x 156 mm)
- Maximum size C5 (162 mm x 229 mm)
- Maximum weight 50 g
- Thickness 0,2–5 mm

Items that do not meet the specifications for machine-sortable letters and the product terms of the selected Standard Letter service will be processed and invoiced as Priority or Economy letters.

Sending valuable items in Finland

The pricing of valuable items is based on the weight of the items and, for an Insured Item, on the value of the item. The total price also depends on the additional services used.

Both the sender and the recipient can immediately track a valuable item using the tracking code received from the ordering channel. The notice of arrival will be sent to the recipient as an SMS or to the recipient's OmaPosti app or email address if the recipient's mobile phone number and email address have been recorded on the item.

Registered Letters, Letters with Advice of Delivery and Insured Items are only handed over to an identified recipient against a signature.

Direct marketing

The pricing of Customer Direct is based on batch size as well as the weight and processability of the item. Pricing is also affected by the preparation level of the items.

If the Customer Direct item's dimensions or shape do not comply with the service characteristics specified for the service in question, Posti will be entitled to process and invoice them as a service the characteristics of which correspond to those of the customer's item.

You can find the product terms as well as instructions for mailing and the markings to be put on the item on the posti.fi website posti.fi.

Mailing methods that affect the price

If you place the order at least four weeks before the mailing day through the Posti Pro ordering channel, you will be able to take advantage of the 2% advance order discount. For more information, see the posti.fi website posti.fi.

You get a 5% discount for using the Sorting Service. The discount will be automatically applied to mailing batches that have been processed by the Sorting Service and that have the printed 2D code or 4-state code produced by the Sorting Service. You can find the instructions for using the Sorting Service at posti.fi/sortingservice.

Pricing is also affected by the preparation level of the items. The Additional Handling service, which is subject to a charge, will be added for Customer Direct items if they have not been prepared according to Posti's instructions. You can find more information and mailing instructions at posti.fi/mailing-instructions ja posti.fi/sortingservice.

Other services and fees

Information Service

The Information Service ensures that your item reaches the recipient even if the recipient's address has changed. You also receive an electronic report about undeliverable items and changes of address. The service can only be used for items delivered by Posti.

Pricing is based on a monthly usage fee and the number of corrected addresses or undeliverable items.

The price of the Information Service includes the saving of identifying information from the bar code. Posti will charge a separate fee for manual saving.
