Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father.

Did Jesus work miracles, or are they just pious tales?

Jesus really worked miracles, and so did the apostles. The New Testament authors refer to real incidents. (547-550)

Even the earliest sources tell of numerous miracles, even the raising of the dead, as a confirmation of Jesus' preaching: "But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you" (Mt 12:28). The miracles took place in public; some of the persons involved were known by name, for instance, blind Bartimaeus (Mk 10:46-52) or Peter's mother-in-law (Mt 8:14-15). In those Jewish circles, there were also miracles that were shocking and outrageous (for example, the healing of a crippled man on the Sabbath and the cleansing of lepers). Nevertheless they were not disputed by contemporary Judaism.

1. How would you define a miracle?
2. Have you ever experienced a miracle - perhaps after praying to God over something, and it happened?
3. Why was faith more important to Jesus than the miracles and signs he performed?
4. Imagine that you had been Mary of Magdala or the other Mary (Mt 27:56) - how would you have convinced the disciples of the Easter Miracle of Resurrection?

Search about your favorite saint or patron saint on the internet and find out what miracles happened in his or her life.

Tips: Research about Blessed Carlo Acutis and find out what he collected on the internet about Eucharistic miracles.
