TARGET MARKET DETERMINATION

INTRODUCTION

Airwallex Pty Ltd ABN 37 609 653 312 (referred to as Airwallex, us, our or we) operates an online payments business. Our services allow you to make and receive domestic and global payments in various currencies, and to convert one currency to another currency. The design and distribution obligations set out in Part 7.8A of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (DD Obligations) apply to the issue and distribution of non-cash payment facilities and certain foreign exchange contracts to retail clients from 5 October 2021.

We are authorised and regulated by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission, with Australian Financial Services Licence number 487221 and registered office located at Level 7, 15 William Street, Melbourne VIC 3000.

We are a product issuer and we issue the following financial products to clients:

Product	Retail Client	Wholesale Client
Non-cash payment products - Wallet Services, Payout Services, and Collection Services (Global Account)	Yes	Yes
Debit and Prepaid Card Services	Yes	Yes
Foreign exchange contracts (spot contracts)	Yes	Yes
Foreign exchange contracts (forward contracts)	No	Yes
Commercial credit facilities	No	Yes

A 'retail client' is a defined term in the Corporations Act 2001 which can cover some small businesses with less than defined number of employees as well as certain sole traders. Clients who are not retail clients are wholesale clients.

While we are authorised to issue forward contracts to retail clients, we do not do so. Accordingly, this document does not go into detail about the suitability of forward contracts for retail clients.

The DD Obligations aim to assist retail clients to obtain appropriate financial products by requiring product issuers and Distributors to have a consumer-centric approach to the design and distribution of financial products.

The purpose of this target market determination (TMD) is to describe the target market of retail clients for our products to which the DD Obligations apply.

If you are a retail client, you should refer to the relevant Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) before deciding whether to acquire or continue to hold the relevant product. You can get a copy of the relevant PDS from our website.

The information in this TMD is not financial advice and does not take into account your individual objectives, financial situation or needs. You should not base any decision to transact on the contents of this TMD.

Our products are distributed by:

- us, (following the completion of an online application) through either Airwallex's website or mobile app; and

- various third parties with whom Airwallex has an agreement (including white-labeled technology platforms) regarding the distribution of our products (each a Distributor, and together, the Distributors).

All channels for distribution are required to collect data and conduct checks to ensure compliance with Airwallex's account opening eligibility criteria.

Airwallex (and its Distributors) may employ various marketing and promotional methods, including digital and physical advertisements, social media platforms, direct marketing, and third-party/comparison websites, subject to Airwallex's internal approval process and rules. We will take reasonable steps to ensure that both we and any Distributors, distribute the financial product to the identified target market.

Distribution appropriateness

Airwallex has full control over the distribution and marketing efforts through its channels. To ensure that the distribution strategy is consistent with the identified target market, we have several processes in place to ensure that the retail clients who are potential clients fall within the identified target market. For example, Airwallex makes appropriate training available to staff who are client facing, including for Distributors if requested.

We will also take reasonable steps to ensure that our marketing strategy and the marketing strategy of Distributors is targeting potential clients who fall within the identified target market for our products through our agreement. For example, any new marketing campaign that contains financial product advice should be reviewed and approved by Airwallex as the product issuer prior to its publication, to check that it does not contain elements which may attract potential clients outside of the intended target market.

This approach enables Airwallex to exercise strong control and oversight, ensuring that Airwallex products efficiently reach the appropriate target market.

MONITORING AND REVIEWING THE TMD

Periodic reviews

We will perform periodic reviews of this TMD.

The first review of this TMD occurred on 1 October 2021.

Subsequent reviews of the TMD will occur on 1 October each year thereafter, unless a review trigger occurs (see below).

Review triggers

Airwallex will also review the TMD where the following review triggers occur:

- where there are significant dealings (issuing of any of the above products) which are not consistent with the target market or this TMD. This trigger occurs where significant distribution is occurring outside the target market, and does not refer to any one particular dealing;

- where a Distributor has reported a large volume of complaints;
- where we have received a large volume of complaints;
- where there is a material change to the product or distribution model that could potentially impact the target market;
- where we have detected significant issues with the distribution of our products through our monitoring of our own day-to-day activities, or the monitoring and supervision of our Distributors;
- any changes in applicable laws or regulations that may require this TMD to be changed so that it is not inconsistent with such laws or regulations.

Distributors – information collecting and reporting requirements

As part of the process of monitoring and reviewing the TMD to determine whether it is still appropriate, each Distributor must provide the following to us on an annual basis at each scheduled annual compliance review meeting (Annual Compliance Review Meeting):

- complaints data – information about the complaints received, including the number of complaints received;
- general client feedback which may negatively affect the suitability of a product being offered to the target market or the product performance;
- requests for information that the Distributor has received from clients in relation to the suitability of the product, to the extent the Distributor has not already provided such information to Airwallex, and only where such disclosure is not prohibited by applicable law.

No party may engage in the distribution of one of our products unless they have entered into an agreement with us.

We reserve the right to amend the TMD at any time if such amendment is needed as a result of any changes to the law or regulations, regulatory guidance, or for any reason we consider as a proper reason to amend the TMD.
