

DEACTIVATION NOTICE

Your Lyft driver account has been deactivated due to violation of Lyft's Terms of Service. Please refer to your email for the effective date and reason for your deactivation.

If your deactivation is noted as temporary or due to missing documentation, please review the Lyft Driver App for any actions that need to be taken at this time.

You have the right to use earned accrued paid sick time while your account is deactivated.

To learn about your right to appeal your account deactivation, contact the Driver Resource Center (DRC) at support@driversunionwa.org, 206-812-0829, or 14675 Interurban Ave South, Suite 201, Tukwila, WA 98168, or review its materials at www.driversunionwa.org. You may have the right to be represented by the DRC to appeal your account deactivation.

Please note, if you have agreed to the Lyft Terms of Service and the Arbitration Agreement contained therein, you must submit all claims you may have against Lyft, including claims relating to your account deactivation, to binding and final arbitration as set forth in Lyft's Terms of Service. Please see www.lyft.com/terms for more detail.