

Your Lyft driver account has been deactivated due to violation of Lyft's Terms of Service. Please refer to your email for the effective date and reason for your deactivation.

If your deactivation is noted as temporary or due to missing documentation, please review the Lyft Driver App for any actions that need to be taken at this time.

For additional details regarding your deactivation please refer to the email you received from Lyft. You can also reach out to Lyft Support for additional details regarding your deactivation, or to appeal your deactivation here.

You have the right to redeem paid sick time accrued to date.

Please refer to your email to understand if your deactivation is eligible for appeal through the Driver Resource Center (DRC). To learn more you can contact the Driver Resource Center (DRC) at support@driversunionwa.org, 206-812-0829, 14675 Interurban Ave South, Suite 201, Tukwila, WA 98168, or review the DRC's materials at www.driversunionwa.org. The DRC may provide representation services at no cost to you.

Note that pursuant to Lyft's Terms of Service and the Arbitration Agreement contained therein, you may be required to submit claims you have against Lyft to arbitration. Please see www.lyft.com/terms for more detail.
